

When Death Tests an Overall's Strength!

WHEN Mr. Wm. H. Iles of Logansport, Indiana, made a misstep on the deck of a rapidly moving engine and fell, he writes us, "It was lucky that I did have on a well-made overall or I would have been badly injured."

"As I fell off the step the suspender on my Oshkosh B'Gosh overall caught on the iron and held me. I swung by the suspender and bib, never tearing out the button or the bib or breaking the buckle, and I weigh 214 pounds."

Laboratory tests show that Oshkosh B'Gosh Overalls are made of the strongest, toughest, longest-wearing cloth made. Experiences such as Mr. Iles' where the greatest test of all is made in a dramatic manner, proves its strength beyond question.

Cheap overalls cost more per month than good overalls

This long-wearing cloth means lower overall costs to you. It doesn't cost you any more PER MONTH OF ACTUAL WEAR to have the famous Oshkosh B'Gosh full-cut, long-wearing, guaranteed overalls.

First Look at World in 53 Years

It was a new world that was opening before the eyes of Jesse Peabody as this picture was taken showing the aged life-time aviator (richly stepping outside the walls of the Massachusetts State Prison for the first time in 53 years. Automobiles, airplanes, skyscrapers, flappers, a steam shovel, gigantic locomotives—these were the wonders he saw for the first time during a 40-mile ride to the Bridgewater, Mass., state farm, where he will be given hospital care.

to, in Brandon, 12 miles north, marked today the path of a wind and hailstorm which at times assumed the proportions of a tornado. No loss of life was reported.

Cottages and barns were blown over, livestock killed in the fields, crops ruined, telephone communication disrupted, and highways blocked by fallen trees by the combined effect of the gale and hailstones as large as silver dollars. Damage was estimated at many tens of thousands of dollars.

The summer colony at Lake Bonanza was hit hardest by the storm. A dozen cottages were blown over by the wind while hail smashed windows of hotels and cut through automobile tops and windshields. Several bathing parties were in great danger.

Mountain Boy Visits Hoover Camp; Lindbergh Means Nothing To Him

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14 (AP)—When wordy things were concerned, the red-headed, "big" boy of a "horn grasser," politically speaking, is one of the toughest ones who has visited President Hoover's fishing lodge in Virginia and will probably be invited back again.

Or probably Ray, who lives not far from the chief executive's camp in the Blue Ridge mountains, has the mountainous and hospitable mood of neighborliness and hospitality and does not feel that an invitation is necessary. He, uninvited and unaccompanied, he drops in for a visit upon Mr. Hoover, he will probably be welcome.

Ray met Mrs. Lindbergh near the camp some time ago, but he did not see the president until the past weekend when he brought a proposition as a gift for the president and remained for a time to talk over the situation. The habits of postrace and the situation in general.

Naturally the conversation turned to politics. Ray, who is 31, told his "Dad" was a strong man, that the fact that he was unable to read and write. The father had a lot to prescribe, but was said, but naturally Ray was not to a Building and Loan Association operating on the membership fee plan, just consider what happens.

Suppose you are striving to save $1000 with payments of $5 a month. You pay $5 a month for eight months—a total of $40 and what have you saved?

Not $40. Only half that amount—because $20, or two per cent of the face of your certificate, went as a "membership fee." Which is nothing more or less than commission to the salesman and overhead for the company.

The La Grande Building and Loan operates differently. There is no membership fee, no deductions of any kind. Every dollar you pay in is always your dollar.

Expense of operation is borne by the guarantee fund—capital subscribed by leading business and professional men in order that this home company might keep La Grande money at home, might promote the building of La Grande homes.

You suffer an unnecessary loss whenever you pay a membership fee for a Building and Loan investment. "Investigate Before You Invest"—and get full details of our plan.
