MENUS

By Sister Mary
In many localities the late spring fruits "spoiled" the peach and apple crops. This makes these fruits comparatively high and scarce and indirectly affects the price of all fruits so that many housekeepers find it impossible to put up their usual amount of jellies and jams. However, there are a few vegetables that make delicious and nutritional sweets. Carrots are especially good. The vegetable marrow can be used. Beets are attractive and combine well with fruits. And tomatoes which really are a fruit but have been classed with the vegetables, are so good alone or in combination, green or ripe, red or yellow, that they will be heartily appreciated during the winter months.

Familiar Combination
Carrots used in combination with citrus fruits act as a filler and tend to make the flavor more delicate. Now carrots are more desirable than old ones for this purpose. This combination is quite common.

Green tomatoes used in combination with lemons and ginger root produce a marmalade that has a pleasant tang.

The tiny yellow tomatoes, heated until transparent in a heavy syrup, make one of the most delicious preserves in the category.

Lemon juice and ginger root can be added to the tomatoes, used alone. Three pounds of sugar to four pounds of fruit is the rule. Scald and peel tomatoes and drop into the boiling syrup. Then simmer very gently so as not to break the shape of the tomatoes and cook until they are clear and the syrup is thick.

Vegetable marrow jam is unusual and has an original tang. It is particularly good to serve with rice croquettes or any combination in which rice takes the place of potatoes.

Vegetable Marrow Jam
Three pounds marrow (weighed after drying), 3 lemons, sugar, 3 ounces ginger root.

The marrow should be not more than half grown. Pare and remove seeds, cut in thin slices and then in match-like strips. Weigh. Make a syrup of two pounds sugar and 4 cups water. When boiling, add marrow and simmer ten minutes. Remove from fire, cover with soft cloth and let stand two days. Drain off syrup. Weigh again and allow pound for pound of sugar and marrow. Put marrow, sugar, grated rind and juice of lemons and ginger root in a preserving kettle. Boil slowly until clear. Pour into sterilized jars and seal.

An Indiana man has invented a golf ball that bums for 15 minutes after it is struck. When a golfer drives into the rough with that ball he has to face the music.

AT THE THEATERS

John Barrymore In Picture Coming Thursday

"When a Man Loves" is a stupendous creation, gorgeous in setting and costume and interpreted by two who are acknowledged to be the greatest lovers of the screen, John Barrymore and Dolores Costello. The extraordinary quality of their support may be gleaned from the cast above. "When a Man Loves" at the Colonial Thursday and Friday, is a re-telling of the Alibi Proverb story and while less tragic than the original, it is suffused with beauty and passion, and is possessed of many brilliant high lights and thrilling situations. The locale is the France of Louis XV, 1722-30, with interest therein at the rate of six per cent per annum from the 22nd day of May, 1925, and $11.95 as costs and disbursements, under which said execution is levied upon the following described real property in Union County, Oregon, to-wit:

Lot four (4), in Block Cityseven (57), of Chantia's Addition to La Grande, Union County, Oregon.

NOW THEREFORE, by virtue and authority of said writ, and in obedience to its commands, I will, on Saturday the 31st day of August 1929, at ten o'clock a. m. of said day, at the front door of the court houses in La Grande, Union County, Oregon, sell at public auction the above described real property, and all the right, title, interest and equity of the defendant therein, to the highest bidder for cash, the proceeds of said sale to be applied in satisfaction of said judgment, including costs and disbursement costs of execution and sale.

Hotel of La Grande, Oregon, this 1st day of August, 1929.

JOHN HENSHAW, Sheriff of Union County, Oregon. Aug. 1, 8, 15, 22.

"Voice of City" Coming To Arcade Friday

"The Voice of the City" Willard Mack's all-talking picture, which opens at the Arcade Friday, is a dramatic expose of love, distrust, treachery, to the highest bidder for cash, the proceeds of said sale to be applied in satisfaction of said judgment, including costs and disbursement costs of execution and sale.

Hotel of La Grande, Oregon, this 1st day of August, 1929.

JOHN HENSHAW, Sheriff of Union County, Oregon. Aug. 1, 8, 15, 22.

Abe Martin

By Willard Mack, who also plays an important character part. It is a "Cosmopolitan production for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer."

Lupe Velez In Lon Chaney Picture

Lupe Velez, fiery little dancer from Mexico, famous for her work in "The Gaucho," and other film successes, plays Lon Chaney's daughter in his latest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer starring drama "Where East is East," now being shown at the Star Theatre. She emulates a spirited little daughter of the jungles, living with her father, a trapper of wild animals in the wilderness. The new picture is a V.I.T. drama of Spain, with a cast that includes Estelle Taylor, Lloyd Hanning and others of note. Tod Browning, directed the new play from an original screen story.

MODERN FACILITIES AID TO SMALL TOWN'S GROWTH

CHICAGO (AP)—Wider distribution of electrical power, the automobile and high municipal taxes are the chief causes cited by the Middle West Utilities company in explanation of the growing industrial importance of small towns.

The company sponsored a study of "America's new frontier." Investigators' data indicated that the historic concentration of industries in large cities was a natural result of the fact that the great centers offered better transport and power facilities.

Scarlet on the Bench

Scarlet was the "judicial color" throughout the Middle Ages, and those dignitaries of the church who were entitled to sit as Judges in England during the Thirteenth and Fourteenth centuries wore robes of that hue.

Loans and Currency

NEW YORK (AP)—The volume of brokers' loans on stock exchange collateral is approaching a point almost equal to the total amount of currency in circulation throughout the United States. The federal treasury puts the currency volume at $8,500,000,000, of which $2,000,000,000 is in the pockets of the public. Recent brokers' loans reached a total slightly less than $5,500,000,000.
