CANYON FIRE IS UNDER CONTROL

Four Acres Burned Over by Blaze, According to District Warden.

A forest fire which broke out Tuesday afternoon in the logging operations of the Menefee Lumber company camp in Ladd Canyon, was placed under control yesterday morning, according to announcement made today by L. C. Morehead, district warden.

"The blaze is believed to have been started by a careless smoker, and for a time a fine stand of timber was threatened. Some slight damage was done to logs that were cut and ready to be logged.

"The logging crew and the state fire patrol were successful in checking the fire when only about four acres had been burned over.

"The hazardous situation has been slightly relieved the last few days due to cooler weather and higher humidity," Mr. Morehead said.

Mr. Morehead also stated that a fire about a mile north of Perry Monday afternoon was extinguished by local wardens before it had gained any headway.

Other improvements in the program include a 120-ton ice house, located behind the hospital, which has just been completed. Installation of an automatic oil burner to heat the entire institution (this is now in progress); and the installation of an automatic Otis elevator, to replace the present system of stairways in the four-story structure.

Also work of redecorating the interior, costing about $2,500, has been under way for the last few months.

The entire program, when completed, will modernize the hospital in every respect, giving La Grande an institution that will compare favorably with any of its type in the country.

DERBY STARTS TOMORROW

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 22 (AP)—All ten racing airmen who will take off from Swan Island airport tomorrow morning in the national derby to Cleveland were on the field today tuning up their motors to compete for $6,000 in prizes plus lap money and field meet awards at the end of the long route.

Sydney Hall, St. Louis aviator, and W. H. Emery, Jr., Broaddo, Pa., were the nearest arrivals today. Ted Wells, Wichita, Kan., dropped down on the field late yesterday followed closely by Charles W. Hoffman, Chicago.

Other entrants are: Tex and Dick Rankin, brothers, both prominent Portland, Ore., Major Gilbert Eckerson, Springfield, Ore., Clarence P. Bates, Milwaukee, Wis., Earl Wright, San Francisco, and Lieutenant Ben Clark, Portland.

With the entry list closing tonight, officials said today there was a possibility that E. M. Latrobe, Chicago flyer, would make a last minute entrance. Airport officials said they were expecting Latrobe to land before nightfall.

A change in the itinerary will send the aviators flying over the Spokane, Wash., field and Chicago to enable checkers to note the registration number allotted the flyer.

SOVIET SEEK WORLD STRIFE, CHINESE SAY

Two hundred Soviet cavalry men appeared at Yuzm Sin Tuesday, set fire to a number of houses and kidnaped these rich Chinese business men.

PEIPING, China, Aug. 22 (AP)—The prospects of war preparation along the Manchurian border now have their counterpart on the far eastern ether.

Since the beginning of the dispute between Russia and China the Russian radio station at Khabarovsk has daily broadcast news and propaganda about the Chinese Eastern railway situation.

Mukden has taken the hint and is using its radio station for similar purposes.

Adherence to the facts of the dispute does not appear to be the guiding principle of these rival stations.

It was an officially broadcast announcement from Mukden which reported the mythical invasion of Manchuria by 10,000 Russian troops August 17, while Khabarovsk's latest effort is a denunciation of the American department of state for "plotting with the French government to set up an international control commission for the Chinese Eastern railway in order to have a finger in the pie."

"The Russian station added that 'the stubborn and crafty Japan is standing by to protect and improve her Manchurian interests.'"

"PARIS BOUND" HERALDS NEW TALKIE TYPE

A REVIEW

Like a sleek, suave polished herald of a new era in "talkies" is "Paris Bound," now having its northwest premiere at the Arcade theater. There's not a single sardonic "yeah" nor an explosive "Oh Baby" in it. It's a talkie leaving the experimental "hamand in the rough" stage, coming out suggestions levelly. It's restrained, subtle, with deft humor—not "stagey" but a quite everyday sort.

"Paris Bound" is a problem play. There are only half a dozen or so characters who count and mostly it's about a man and a woman and how to stay married. If you're a moralist you may be shocked because it condemns infidelity too mildly—but if you're a realist, you'll love it.

Every character is so clearly drawn, so definitely a personage that one easily thinks of a John Galsworthy novel.

It is, of course, a talkie more related to its quieter sister, the legitimate that the "hoysienish" movie.

And then there is an exquisitely lovely piano ballet that is hauntingly sad.

Blonde Ann Harding is the wife—and you can't help loving her because most of the time she's beautiful, and once in awhile she isn't, so that, unlike your erstwhile movie heroine—she's real.

GOVERNOR HARTLEY SCORNS CONFERENCE

OLYMPIA, Wash., Aug. 22 (AP)—Asserting "those meeting don't accomplish anything" Governor Hartley of Washington had indicated today he would not attend the conference of governors of eleven states at Salt Lake City, next week.

"If we attended all of the conventions people ask us to," the governor said of conventions in general, "we would be on the go all the time. We would have no time left to take care of the people's business. The affairs of the state are important while all they do at conventions is hit the high spots and talk."

"These are fine for the railroads,
