

STETSON HATS

zephyr weight $8.50

Western Inc. Men's Wear.

Local News In Brief

Editor Here—

Union, Wallawa and Baker counties, together comprise one of the prettiest areas in the world, declared J. B. Bowen, prominent Baker pioneer who has recently retired after more than 50 years of active newspaper publishing as editor of the Baker Democrat. He was in La Grande yesterday on his way home from a trip to Wallawa lake and paid a call on The Observer during his stop. "These are among the rich counties of the West and with their tremendous diversification in agriculture—there's nothing they can't do," Mr. Bowen has the distinction of being one of 12 remaining pioneers who came to Baker county in '62. Four of those are members of his family. He is chairman of the Baker County Pioneer association which is to have its first meeting Sept. 2 at the new Baker hotel. Even though the requirement for membership in the association is that the settlers must have come by 76 or before, there is a membership of several hundred, Mr. Bowen said. The Union county qualification is '84. Just now things are lively in Baker and the whole community is on its toes in anticipation of the hotel opening this evening. Though the newspaper game is a hot one to leave, the veteran editor admitted, he is finding much pleasure in traveling and devoting more time to other interests. He enjoyed very keenly his stay at Wallawa Lake.

Return from Salem—

The Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Putnam and their children returned to La Grande last night from a trip that took them to Seattle for the international disciples of Christ convention to Kelso, Vancouver and Portland for brief stops, and to Salem, Mr. Putnam's former home, for a several days visit. They also spent a day at Rainier national park. Mr. Putnam will preach the pulpit at the Christian church tomorrow morning, speaking on "Messages from the Convention." In the evening Mrs. Putnam and her daughter, Lenore, will speak on the convention.

Goes to Klamath Falls—

Owen Price left last night for Klamath Falls where he will work his brother, Milton, now makes his home in that city. Mr. Price has been employed by the Pacific Fruit company for the past few months.

Leave for Missoula—

Miss Clara Taylor and Gertrude Adams, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Scott for the past few days, left last evening for Missoula, Mont. Miss Taylor is a sister of Mrs. Scott.

Here from Seattle—

Ben Rhodes Grandy, of Seattle, is visiting relatives in La Grande until school starts this fall. He is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Leola Grandy, and Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grandy.

Goes to Baker—

Miss Mildred Smith and Florence Sullivan, of La Grande, are leaving this evening for Baker. They will spend the weekend visiting at the home of Magdalene Phillips and friends.

Return from Klamath Falls—

Mr. and Mrs. Orson Brandt returned to La Grande last evening after spending a few days at Klamath Falls. Mrs. Brandt has been visiting relatives there for some time.

Attend Convention—

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McWayne, of La Grande, are leaving this evening for Tillamook, where they will attend the Oregon Federation of Labor convention. They will be away from this city a week.

Demonstration—

George Kamplain and John P. Hart, of the Eastern Kodak company from Rochester, N. Y., arrived in La Grande yesterday. They demonstrated a motion picture in the natural colors at the Red Cross drug store this morning.

Here from Bellingham—

Lois E. T. who has been attending the Bellingham normal school, arrived in La Grande last evening. She will spend a few days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Elbert.

Here from Nampa—

Mrs. J. Cassady and her son, Junior, left last evening for Portland. She has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Haynes in La Grande for the past few days.

From Union—

Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Harris, of Union, are now living here at 1422 Monroe street. He has been employed by the railroad for some time.

Return from Trip—

Madelon Buchanan and her daughter, Weechee May, and her sister, Grace Thompson, returned to La Grande this morning, after visiting relatives in San Francisco. They have been away from this city for the past six weeks.

Return from Wallawa—

Herb Jones, of Wallawa, returned to his home yesterday after a brief visit here. His father is publisher of the Wallawa Sun and he works with him in the office. Mr. Jones is a senior in journalism at the University of Oregon.

Go to Caldwell—

Mrs. C. B. Miller and her son, Donald, left this morning for Caldwell, Ida. They will spend a week visiting her mother, Mrs. D. Campbell.

From Salem—

Mrs. Clifford Carter, of La Grande, left last evening for Salem, where she will visit her parents for two weeks.

From Kennewick—

J. F. Perry and Ida Perry, arrived in La Grande yesterday. They are here on a business trip from Kennewick.

Goes to California—

Mrs. Bruce Merman left yesterday morning for California, where she will spend a month visiting friends.

Return from Portland—

Mrs. Emma Grady returned to La Grande yesterday, after a few days visiting in Portland.

Goes to Portland—

George Scott drove to La Grande

Goes to Portland—

Mrs. L. V. Clausen and her children, Marlan and Burnett, of La Grande, left last evening for Portland. They will return tomorrow evening after spending the week end on business.

Here from Enterprise—

Mrs. L. Day, Mrs. Emily Wilson and Miss Mildred Day, stopped over a few days in La Grande on their way to their home in Enterprise. They have been on a vacation trip in Montana for some time.

From Nampa—

Miss Donna June Casey, of Nampa, is spending a month visiting Mrs. Robert Ayers, and Doris and Phyllis Barnes. Miss Casey is their niece.

Returns from Portland—

Mrs. N. G. Neal, who has been visiting with her sons and other relatives in Portland for the last three weeks, returned to La Grande this morning.

Go to Yakima—

Mrs. M. A. Harrison and her daughter, Ruth, and Mrs. J. E. Allen, of Union and her grandmothers, have been visiting friends in Yakima the past few days.

Goes to Elgin—

Frank Giltner and two children, left last evening for their home in Elgin. They have been visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harry Giltner, of La Grande.

From Bend—

Miss Florence Pattie, of Bend, Ore., recently arrived in this city. She will spend a few days visiting her friend, Miss Marguerite Ethik. They were accompanied in La Grande.

Visiting—

Mr. and Mrs. Farrel Murray and their two sons, of La Grande, left last evening for Portland, where they will visit relatives and friends.

From Hill—

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tuckey, of Hill, arrived in La Grande last evening from Bates, Ore. He has been there for some time.

Go to Portland—

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Ainsworth, of La Grande, left last evening for Portland. They will spend the week end there on business.

From Salem—

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tuckey, of Hill, arrived in La Grande last evening from Bates, Ore. He has been there for some time.

Go to Portland—

George Scott drove to La Grande

From Salem—

Mrs. Clifford Carter, of La Grande, left last evening for Salem, where she will visit her parents for two weeks.

From Kennewick—

J. F. Perry and Ida Perry, arrived in La Grande yesterday. They are here on a business trip from Kennewick.

Goes to California—

Mrs. Bruce Merman left yesterday morning for California, where she will spend a month visiting friends.

Return from Portland—

Mrs. Emma Grady returned to La Grande yesterday, after a few days visiting in Portland.

Goes to Portland—

George Scott drove to La Grande

From Salem—

Mrs. Clifford Carter, of La Grande, left last evening for Salem, where she will visit her parents for two weeks.

From Kennewick—

J. F. Perry and Ida Perry, arrived in La Grande yesterday. They are here on a business trip from Kennewick.

Goes to California—

Mrs. Bruce Merman left yesterday morning for California, where she will spend a month visiting friends.

Return from Portland—

Mrs. Emma Grady returned to La Grande yesterday, after a few days visiting in Portland.

Goes to Portland—

George Scott drove to La Grande

From Salem—

Mrs. Clifford Carter, of La Grande, left last evening for Salem, where she will visit her parents for two weeks.

From Kennewick—

J. F. Perry and Ida Perry, arrived in La Grande yesterday. They are here on a business trip from Kennewick.

Lieutenant Of Police Shot By Married Woman

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 24 (AP)—With Mrs. Anna Schrader, private detective, held on a charge of assault with intent to kill preferred by Police Lieutenant William Breunling, the man she is alleged to have attempted to shoot, police today were attempting to unravel what they described as "one of the most unusual cases in local history."

Both Mrs. Schrader and the police officer admitted they have known each other for more than eight years. The woman told detectives that she and Breunling were "more than friends."

"He has never missed seeing me a single night in the last eight years," she told her questioners. Mrs. Schrader, who is said to be the wife of a railroad man, declared she had no intention of shooting the police officer. Breunling, however, told his superiors that she attacked him as he drove up in front of his home. He said she fired once through the window of the automobile and again when he reached the sidewalk after he had knocked the weapon from her hand.

Explaining to detectives her experience near the Breunling home and possession of the revolver Mrs. Schrader said "some time ago he (Breunling) went to police Jenkins and told him the story of our relations. He wife was with him and he merely wanted to save himself and damage my character."

"I decided to wait a 'settlemen' so just right I lured for him. I took my gun because I was afraid of him. He hurt me once when he twisted my arm."

Detectives said Mrs. Schrader was somewhat vague as to what occurred after Breunling's arrival in front of his home.

Just 265 Pounds

This 265-pound black bear, of Jawah, displayed by Sergeant Noah E. Dillman of Uncle Sam's air service, was caught with red and blue at the foot of Garun Dan gullyway along the Panama Canal. Fishermen don't crowd getting tickets to Panama?

FIND IT HERE

Copy for this column must be in by 9 a. m.

GREEN WHEAT

Have you seen the latest creation in dinnerware? You will enjoy seeing the new Green Wheat pattern of ivory porcelain now being shown at Richardson's Art and Gift Shop. It has a most artistic decoration, entirely different from anything ever shown, and is lined with platinum instead of gold, also platinum handles. It is just what you have been looking for in dinnerware. See it. 8-24-29.

THE PRICE OF GREEN WHEAT

Is most reasonable. It is an open stock pattern which you can buy what you wish at a time and fill it in as you wish. See it in the window at Richardson's Art and Gift Shop.

Home-stitching, piecing, button holes, etc., Norton's Kiddie Shop. —Adv.

Sidney Lytle, the piano tuner, will be at La Grande hotel week of Sept. 8th. 7-27-1 mp

Kinogram News — Comedy — RAH! RAH! RAH!

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

SUNDAY & MONDAY

WILLIAM FOX PRESENTS THE ONE WOMAN IDEA ROD LA ROCQUE MARCELINE DAY SEADON LYNN SALLY DRIES

Kinogram News — Comedy — RAH! RAH! RAH!

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

Books For Boys and Girls

- "The Adventure Club" by Rose Fyleman $2.00
- With the same charms that prevails her more fanciful writing Miss Fyleman chronicles this tale of real children.
- "Polaris" by Ernest Harold Baynes $1.50
- Every dog lovers will wish to have this biography of a great-souled dog on his shelf.
- "Lotty" by Rose Fyleman $2.00
- A study of a child for parents and teachers and all lovers of children—and for the children themselves.
- "Jack Pumpkinhead of Oz," by Ruth Thompson $1.75
- Jack Pumpkinhead is the hero of the newest Oz book, and his adventures are as strange and wonderful as any happenings ever recorded by the royal historian.
- "The Burgess Animal Book for Children" $3.00
- Among the most admirable and entertaining writers of animal stories, Thornton Burgess ranks at the top of the list.
- "Hero Stories From the Old Testament" $1.50
- In these Bible stories the outstanding figures of the Old Testament move before you as vividly as if you had met them yesterday.

La Grande Book & Stationery Company 1114 Adams Ave. We Take Subscriptions for all Magazines

COLONIAL

BIG Shows at SMALL Prices

STARTING SUNDAY

Robert E. Pinkerton's Great Novel of the Canadian Northwest.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

—Adv.

this morning from Baker. He is leaving this evening for Portland, where he will spend the weekend.

Bill Roberts and his parents, left this morning for the Innabla, where, where they will spend the weekend on a fishing trip.

Tom Bruce underwent an operation at the Grande Ronde hospital this morning. He will remain at the hospital two or three days.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Puckett's little son, Winton, underwent a tonsil and adenoid operation this morning.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with applications for copyright registration, the first selection is made from among them by the librarian of congress for the Library of Congress. Copies remaining are distributed among other libraries in the District of Columbia.

When copies of books are sent to the copyright office in Washington with