Peanuts Are Legumes

The use of nuts offers a good means of supplying added protein by the diet without increasing the amount of heat used. As nuts rank high both in protein and fat, peanuts, although classed with the nuts, really belong to the same family as peas and beans—namely, the legumes. They may be used in a great many ways to make economical and satisfying meat substitute dishes, or may be used with a small amount of meat to supply the added protein.

Rio Grande valley of Texas are increasing their production about 10 per cent through use of mechanical diggers.

Four wagon loads of Cleveland cups leveled shotgun at an escaped Auburn prison convict and Maxwell Day portrays a dual role in this screen drama of romance.

OUT OUR WAY

AT THE THEATERS

"Desert Song", Film Operetta, At Arcade Sunday

Screen operetta is now a fact. Through the magic of the talking picture, "The Desert Song," one of the most tuneful and most popular musical plays ever shown on the stage, has been brought to the screen, and has been produced on a scale that would be impossible in the theater.

Sigmund Romberg's score with its magnificent choruses and the fitting charm of its beautiful solo numbers, has been reproduced by Vitaphone in all its original glory.

"The Desert Song" will be the attraction at the Arcade theater beginning Sunday next.

The all-star cast of "The Desert Song" includes John Boles, Louise Fazenda, Carlotta King, Johnny Arthur, John Miljan, Marie Wells, Jack Pratt, Edward Martindel, Otto Hoffman, Robert E. Guzman, Myrna Loy and many others, as well as a chorus of one hundred beautiful voices. Roy Del Ruth directed, and the operetta was adapted for the screen by Harvey H. Gates.

"One Woman Idea" Coming To the Star

The exotic atmosphere of luxury in which a prince of Persia lives is said to be fairly pictured in Fox Film's "The One Woman Idea," which begins an engagement of 2 days at the Star theater Sunday.

A peep into the harem and a good look at the dancing girls of the prince's household are afforded.

Rod La Rocque is the prince and Maxwell Day portrays a dual role in this screen drama of romance.

Colonial Will Show "Test Of Donald Norton"

At the Colonial Sunday and Monday there is a story of love, a story of struggle and sacrifice, a struggle of a youth to make good in the eyes of the world. It is a tremendous ordeal for a mere youth to undergo, but the hero in "The Test of Donald Norton" struggles forward and upward until at last he is proclaimed a white man in a white man's world.

If you believe in hereditary traits—that all your ancestral cells demand a bearing in your life, that at all times "blood will tell," be sure and see this screen story of a lad who fights and overcomes the stigma of that name, "half-breed." He had to fight the hatred of an Indian whom he believed to be his squaw mother; he had to fight his own father who had a bitter prejudice against all half-breeds and a still more bitter reason for that same prejudice. It's a big fight but a glorious one.

Sophistication

A careful examination of several explanations of the meaning of sophistication leads to the conclusion that if you don't know much, and pretend you do, you are sophisticated.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

Uncle Eben

"A matchel horn trouble maker," said Uncle Eben, "works overtime 'n' don't ask no wages whatever."—Washington Star.

Millenium Pictured

I don't believe that the wall of what will be heard forever; that the prison and the walls will always curse the ground. The time will come when liberty and love, like the rings of Saturn, will surround the world; when the world will cease making these mistakes; when every man will be judged according to his worth and intelligence.—Robert G. Ingersoll.

One More Error

Another misapprehension entertained by the public concerning this country is that any kind of soap is necessarily good if it is called cream of something.—Ohio State Journal.

A TIP from Your Teacher

Among "Northwestern" students of last summer were teachers who paid us many splendid compliments. Of many letters later received was one which read:

"As a graduate of the University of Washington and the Klensburgh State Normal School, I am glad to state that your instructors are among the best I have ever known."

Information about the forthcoming summer session will be gladly sent to you on request.
