You hear mainly about Grove and Walberg, the southpaw speed-ball stars, when ayone is discussing the pitching staff of the Athletics, but if the House of Mack bucks into the House of Wrigley in the forthcoming world's series, it is not unlikely that Old Jack Quinn and Big George Earnshaw, right-handers, will take over a good share of the attempt to check the heavy-hitting Chicago array.

Along baseball alley, they think the portside staff of Grove and Walberg will be soft for the Bus-tin' Bruins, most of whom are right-handed hitters. With Wilson, Hornsby, Stephenson and Cuyler coming up in a row to swing from the starboard side, it is anything from an encouraging prospect for a southpaw artist out there trying to hold his own against a crew that has been putting fast ones out of the park all season.

Earnshaw, a horse for work, may be Connie Mack's best bet, assuming the Cubs furnish the opposition. Big George got under the wire with his 18th victory of the season well ahead of Lefty Grove, who had a sizeable start on the right-hander.

Quinn has put on another comeback after slipping earlier in the campaign. Old Jack, the Mike McTigue of baseball, still has a lot of deception in his moist-ball delivery. He can't stand as much work as Earnshaw but after 25 years in the game and at the age of 44—if the record books are right—he can outsmart the best of them.

The last time the Cubs and A's mingled in the world's series, Mack used only two right-handers to win. Colby Jack Coombs won three games and Chief Bender got an even break in the other two played. Eddie Plank didn't get into action.

At the rate he has been going so far this season, it is difficult to see how Eric Pedley can fail to win a place on the new American polo "Big Four," now taking shape in anticipation of a renewal of the international cup series with Great Britain next year.

Right now the stocky Californian is one of the most improved players in the galloping game. In high-goal competition, he has turned in a number of smashing performances, adjusting himself skillfully to any one of the first three positions on the field. The only post he has not taken a whirl at is back but so long as Winston Guest is available, there is no need for worry about that place in the American line-up.

Pedley was an international substitute two years ago but he had little chance then, with Stevenson, Webb and Milburn still in the game. Now these three veterans are in the background while the new American team is being built around the one and only Tommy Hitchcock.

PORTLAND DUCKS IN FIRST PLACE

Win 15th Straight Game to Lead Coast League by One Full Game.

(By The Associated Press)

The rejuvenated Portland Ducks, who suddenly snapped out of a long dormant period in the cellar of the Pacific Coast league, finished a highly successful week against the San Francisco Seals yesterday by winning both games of a double-header to take the series seven games out of seven, and the league lead by the largest margin held by any top notcher in the last four weeks.

The Ducks completed their bang-up series by downing the Seals in the morning by a 4-0 score and in the afternoon by 9 to 6. Both games were dramatic thrillers from start to finish, and were witnessed by record sized crowds. In the first game Leroy Mahaffey blanked the San Franciscans in a beautiful shutout exhibition. He allowed only four hits and held the bases empty except for three innings. In the second game the Seals did better, batting Roy Chesterfield from the box in the first two innings.

Seattle Wins Series

The Los Angeles Angels and the Seattle Indians split a double-header in the northern city, the Indians taking the first 6-1 and the visitors the second contest, a seven inning affair, 7 to 2. Seattle took the series four out of seven games.

The Mission Reds and the Sacramento Senators traded even in their pair, the Reds winning 5-0 in the afternoon and the series by an odd game, while the Solons won the morning contest 9 to 5.

Hollywood took it on the chin twice at Wrigley field, Los Angeles, at the hands of the Oakland Acorns, 4 to 0 in the first battle, and 9-7 in the second. The Oaklanders bagged five of the seven games played in the week.

Reds And Cubs Break Even In Peaceful Games

By William J. Chipman
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The long-awaited grudge-meeting between the Reds and the Cubs came off in Cincinnati yesterday, but hardl as advertised, lured by threats and counter-threats of what would happen when Messrs. Wilson, Klop and Donohue found themselves once more within the confines of a single ball park, even so roomy a battle-ground as Redland field, 35,432 clients appeared before the turnstiles with cash in hand.

They settled into their seats or standing spaces, expecting at least a ten round bout but really hoping for a battle of the Marne. After all they had been led to hope for, they saw nothing but two very business-like ball games played by peaceful young men who apparently did not even know how to make a hostile gesture. Red Lucas won the opener for the home team by six to three, his seventeenth triumph of the season, but Guy Bush turned the tables for Chicago in the night-cap, wining his eighteenth game by a score of ten to one after being held 0 to 0 by Pete Donohue for seven rounds.

Hack in Limelight

The crowd, the largest paid attendance ever accommodated at Redland field, was not hostile to the pennant-bound Bruins, although Hack Wilson did hear a few deep-throated bronx cheers from time to time. The fans more than made up for this, however, by the way they cheered Hack's circus catches, and he made several in the two games.

The even break enabled the Cubs to stretch their margin half a game, to 13 full contests as the Pirates again bowed to the Giants, this time ten to five. The Bruin edge now is exactly the same size as that owned by the wily Mr. McGillicuddy in the rival league. The pirates are only three games ahead of the Giants, who took three out of four.

Lester Sweetland pitched the Phillies to a four to .0 triumph over the Robins in Brooklyn yesterday, allowing only four hits, and Willie Sherdel shut out the Braves in Boston by an identical score while allowing five hits.

The game at the polo grounds was marked by Mel Ott's thirty-second home run and by Cy Rigler's manipulation of a broadcasting device which amplified announcements of batteries and player changes to fans throughout the vast park.

Ruth Scores Twice

After 32 scoreless innings the master minds of the Yankees devised a plan for getting runs across the plate, at once simple and effective. It was merely to have Mr. Ruth step to the front and hammer the ball out of the lot, which he had neglected to do for some days until yesterday, as box scores of Yankee games will show.

Putting this plan into operation against Wally Stewart in the fourth and the ninth innings at sportsman's park, yesterday, Mr. Ruth snapped the Yankee string of scoreless innings and lifted his personal home run from 38 to 35 but failed to win the ball game, which the Browns did at the expense of Roy Sherid by three to two. Ruth's two homers broke up a tie which had existed among the Yankee slugger and Hack Wilson and Chuck Klein.

The Athletics also lost yesterday when Al Thomas allowed just four hits to win by three to 0. It was three out of four for the White Sox over the leaders, who now have dropped six of their last eight. The Mackian lead remains fixed at 13 games because the Yankee record over the same period is identical.

Detroit finally won from Washington, stopping the Senators by eight to seven in eleven innings at Navin field, and the Indians divided a double-header with the rejuvenated Red Sox. Cleveland took the opener by five to four and Boston the nightcap by five to three.

Charley Tolson Ready For Work

CHICAGO, Aug. 26 (AP)—Charley Tolson, big first baseman recalled from Los Angeles by the Cubs to replace Charlie Grimm, injured, field captain, today was ready to go to work. He was not certain of getting into today's game with Cincinnati, as Clarence Blair who has played the position since Grimm was injured last week, has been playing excellent baseball. Blair got a double in the first game and a pair of singles in the second tilt of yesterday's double header at Cincinnati.

Billy Sunday turned down a million dollars offered him if he'd go into the talkies. Sound judgment.
