Wheat Lower And Easy At Closing

CHICAGO, Aug. 26 (AP) — Favored drained by bearish developments wheat was declined today and the downside and Liverpool cash bids moved downward together. Trading was dull, however, and while rather narrow margins on early declines of more than two cents a bushel being largely made up by a late rally influenced partly by a wave of short covering and to some extent by a shortage increase in the visible supply. This had been anticipated. However in the most bearish circumstances a sizable movement that carried corn nearly three cents at one moment.

Wheat finished steady 1¼ to 1¾ lower, with corn down 1¼ to 1¾, and oats easy at ¼ to ¾ cent decline and provisions unchanged to 25 cents lower.
