OFFICE CAT

Inspector (examining class) "Name an extinct animal."
Small Boy: "Please sir, 'Tomy'."
Inspector: "But Tomy is not an extinct animal."
Small Boy: "Yes, sir. He was our cat, but the dog got hold of him."

If you have a grinch, for Pete's sake get rid of it. If you have to take it to a hospital, it will thrive and cover your whole physiognomy with a minimum of excrement.

Johnny was poking up apples under the trees and called to him to look out for the cat. "When I see a cat," he called back. "The woman has to look out for herself."

Man: If you call a man a gay dog, it will flatter him, call him a dog, a hound, or a pup, and he will try to alter the name of your pet. He usually will be called a ball or a bear, yet he will fight you if you call him a cat or a cub. Men are queer.

Woman: Call a girl a chick and she will call you a hen and she will look at you as if you were a chicken. Call a young woman a witch and she is pleased, call an old woman a witch and she is indignant. Call a girl a kitten, and she will look at you like a cat. Call a woman a cat and she will look at you like a woman.

"A woman's mouth may resemble a rose, but not a rosebud. A rosebud, you know, is closed."

The game is in your own hands. To play it well, you have to be a cat.

By Williams Endurance Plane Nearing 100 Hours

CHICAGO, Aug. 27, (AP)—The "Chicago-We Will" endurance plane out to beat the 17 1/2 day record of the "St. Louis Robin," was still circling the Sky Harbor airport early today with no indication that a descent was contemplated. The plane had been up 99 hours at 5:30 a. m. Chicago daylight time. Enough gasoline was taken on from the refueling plane "The Her" at 7:30 o'clock last night to last until noon today.

The "Chicago-We Will" is being piloted by C. E. Stolle and Truesdell Mossman.

AT THE THEATERS

Popular Screen Funsters In "Desert Song"

Quite the most delightful comedy screen in the history of the talking picture takes place between Louise Fazenda and Johnny Arthur, the two funsters in the all star cast in "The Desert Song" (The Warner Brothers Alhambra presentation which has made screen history as the first comedy to be transferred to film in its entirety, and which may be seen on the screen of the Arcade theatre, now).

The four Louise transformed into a rascaling blonde by means of a golden wig, plays the part of Susan, and Arthur is Benjamin Kidd, an eccentric newspaper correspondent who accompanied by a misreading, Bill, and under the leadership of the mysterious Red Shady, and who is refused to abscond before he is finally released on bail.

Other color combinations for the wooden necklaces are jade green and black, black and yellow, black and white.

The discs, thin as wafers and cut with fancy edges, are sold by Ford now in French department stores. Their inexpensive character and wide appeal smart women seem to be undisputed and go right on trying to evolve new color combinations and fancy effects.

Parisians Are Wearing Wooden Necklaces

By Diana Merwin (Associated Press Fashion Editor) PARIS, (AP)—This must be the wooden anniversary of costume jewelry.

That statement is inspired by the amount of brightly colored "junk" intrinsically speaking, which smart women are wearing draped around their necks.

A couple of yards of intertwined dark blue and natural colored wooden discs is a permissible ornament with the silk dresses and other Parisians are wearing for late summer.
