Breuning To Ask Leave of Absence

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 27 (AP)—Police Lieutenant William Breuning has announced that he will ask the city council for a 30-day leave of absence without pay so that he may be off duty when the case of Mrs. Anna Schrader, police detective, is arrested on a charge of assisting with intent to kill her husband in municipal court.

Breuning said he believes this move will eliminate the possibility of embarrassing the police department.

Following her arrest, Mrs. Schrader told Breuning's superior that she had been her ardent admirer for more than eight years. She declared she had not intended to kill Breuning but had merely carried her revolver for protection.

"Donovan Affair" To Open Run At Arcade

To be able to sit in at a "police grilling" is the ambition of many people. To hear the hand of the law cross-examine and ply the suspect with question after question relentlessly, hour upon hour, and then to see him turned over to another official for further questioning, is to the average man and woman a thrilling experience. This opportunity, which is often denied to newspapermen at the genuine grilling, is open to you when you see and hear "The Donovan Affair," Columbia's 100 per cent dialogue film showing at the Arcade theatre, three days starting Thursday.

Human Interest Note In "Trial Marriage"

There is a human interest note in "Trial Marriage," a Columbia production, which will be the attraction at the Star Theatre starting today. It reveals how a much married father passes the talent on to his daughters who regard matrimony as a lark, to thrill laden games. Against colorful backgrounds of jazz, passionate love and novel settings on a Long Island estate, and along the Parisian boulevard, a tense drama is enacted.

Clay, Naomi Childers, Rosemary They, and Gertrude Short.
