Boy Western Star Here As "Young Whirlwind"

Replete with thrills, pathos, romance and drama, "The Young Whirlwind," an unusual Western produced by FBO with Buzz Barton in the starring role, opens for a one day showing at the Colonial Saturday.

It is undoubtedly one of the best pictures the youthful little star has appeared in for it is full of spectacular and daring action, is off the beaten path of the usual Western melodrama, and as the plot of the story is concerned, and demonstrates to the fullest of the ability of the boy star as an all-around Westerner and capobastore.

The story revolves around the attempted theft of a $30,000 cash pay roll from a United States air mail plane by a gang of bandits who terrorize a small western town where the plane is refueled.

Plenty Of Comedy In Film At Arcade

"Comedy, usually more or less neglected or at best forced in the average mystery picture, is well represented in Columbia's 100 per cent talking thriller, "The Donovan Affair," now playing at the Arcade Theatre. This detective story, one of the best to reach the screen, is full of amusing incidents that develop logically as part of the action.

Much of the comedy is supplied by Hank Mann and Ethel Wales as the Dr. and Mrs. Lindsey. Hank Mann is one of the original Keystone Kops of Mack Sennett comedies. In addition, he served in the capacity of gag man for such well-known comedians as Eddie Cantor, W. C. Fields and Chester Conklin.

Tiffany-Stahl's special production featuring Richard Talmadge, Barbara Bedford and David Torrence, which is the attraction today at the Star theatre.

El Caballero in his disguise as Taki the gentle sheep herder, joins Lucia's caravan from the seacoast to the Torrence hacienda, her future home and the scene of her dreaded wedding, and the flowering of their romance adds beauty and tender-
