DUCK SLUGGERS
BOMBARD ANGELS

Portland Team Back at Top After Slugfest with Los Angeles Nine.

By The Associated Press
The Portland Ducks, foremost contenders these last few weeks for the second half pennant of the 1929 season, once more claimed the Pacific Coast league lead today, with a game margin over the second place Los Angeles Angels, their rivals this week.

The battle the Ducks won yesterday from the Angels was a slugfest match from start to finish. Portland banged 17 hits and won by a score of 12 to 7. The Angels used five hurlers, and the Ducks two. The northern team smashed out a 4 to 1 lead in the first inning off Barfoot and Phil, battering out two more in the second, but the Angels pared down the lead to three by the sixth inning.

Hollywood hit Sacramento's pitchers hard, but the Senators came back stronger and won a 10 to 5 victory. It was a free for all slugfest at Wrigley field, Los Angeles, with the Angels leading 3 to 0 in the ninth inning to get on base.

Oakland nosed out the Missions in a tight game at Recreation park, 2 to 0. The Oaks reached Reuther for tallies in the sixth and seventh frames, although the veteran left hander was sitting with his fists. He allowed six hits, one a home run by Fenton.

KAY IMPROVES SLIGHTLY
SALEM, Ore., Aug. 31 (AP)—Although the condition of State Treasurer T. B. Kay is little changed, it is said by his physician to be "more favorable than unfavorable." He has been sitting up daily this week and it is said he may have overdone the privilege.

Course Record
At Pebble Beach
Broken by Bobby

By Alan J. Gould
(Associated Press Sports Editor)
DOL, MONTE, Aug. 31, (AP)—America or England, New York or California—it's all the same to Bobby Jones.

The well known alumnus at Georgia Tech, seemingly bent upon causing more disturbance in the Golden West than the whole Tech eleven did last New Year's day on the gridiron, was already stolen the rehearsal for the National amateur golf championship. He seems destined to steal the main show that begins Monday.

The four-time American amateur king and three-time open champion brought his practice week to a climax yesterday on the Pebble Beach course with a scintillating 67, beating his best 68 strokes and his own course record by three shots.

In substituting the widely hailed "terrors of this famous course" with its chasms and cliffs, bunkers and its fabled skirting the sparkling ocean blue, Jones hit one of the greatest rounds of his career. Nothing in particular was at stake beyond the battle between the world's greatest golfer and the formidable layout that previously had resisted all attempts to crack it. Jones had already weakened its endurance, perhaps, by scoring that figure three days ago. Yesterday he landed the knockout.

Cubs For Total
Of 12 Out of 20

By William J. Chipman
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The Cubs almost certainly will become champions of the National league within the next fortnight, for they never can be champions of the Pirates of 1929. The Pirates attended to this small detail in person at Forbes field yesterday when they took Mr. Guy Bush and the Bruins by the surprising score of 12 to 9 on the twelfth. Pittsburgh victory over Chicago this season and the fourth in three days. The Cubs have won only eight games from the Buccaneers with two more to go, one today in Philadelphia and one on the final day of the season in Chicago.

Burling Grimes was groomed to meet Sheriff Fred Bluke this afternoon in the final game of the current series which the Cubs had upon as "lightning" four straight Pittsburgh victories had reduced the Chicago lead only from 14-12 to 10-12, and another success for the Cubs at Forbes today would give Joe Mott's party good reason to worry. It seems impossible that such a lead could be blown, but the moral effect of a fifth straight reverse upon the Cubs might leave a slim possibility for surprising loss.

Corsairs Rampage
The mules at Forbes field yesterday marked the fourth straight of the season for Guy Bush, for whom the Pirates impermissibly refused to show any respect whatever.

Emceed by Bush's eighteen victories, the rapid Corsairs assured him as early as the fourth inning that he could have to wait for his nineteenth. By that time Bush had been driven to cover by a barrage of ten hits and eight earned runs, and Art Nuh had come out to absorb the rest of the leading, which totaled twenty-two strikes.

Carl Hubbell got a hot break when a fumble by Travis Jackson caused him to drop a 2 to 1 decision to Henry Vines and the Bruins, but then, the Giants were fortunate in a way that the tenth inning was played at all. They hit only four hits off the dealer but one of these was a drive by Fred Louch to the top of the ninth that

Reinforced
"Chuck Klein's thirty-fourth home run sent him into the National league lead over Babe Ruth and Melvin Ott, and incidentally helped the Phillies down the Braves by 8 to 5 at Boston, 24, Louis and Cincinnati were not scheduled.

With the western club enjoying an open date and with the Yankees and the Senators raised out of the Athletics and the Red Sox had the American league to themselves. The Marks celebrated by permitting Jack Russell to hold them to seven hits in the final time. The Moose, Barnshaw and Rounnel to win a close game by 4 to 2.

Sport
Slants
by ALAN J. GOULD

Babe Ruth has set up a few marks for world's series slants that will take a little time and quite a little slugging to remove from the books.

For instance, the big fellow has on two occasions smacked three home runs in a single game, with the outer reaches of Sportman's Park, St. Louis, as his target each time.

No, without two of the hardest and longest hitters in the game, Babe Ruth and Hank Wilson, it does well, will have a chance of knocking the Babe's record this October at Shibe Park and Wrigley field.

At Simmons and Rogers Hornsby may be the most valuable all-around hitters, the most consistent in the lineups of the prospective pennant winners, but there is little question that Fox and Wilson hit "em" earlier, on the average, I have that, at least, on the word of two observers who happen to know considerable about it—Connie Mack and Joe McCarthy.

"Foxy gets astonishing distances," Mack told me. "Naturally possessed of a good, easy swing, he seems to get more into his drives than any player on the team. When he gets hold of one squarely, it continues to rise long after you expect it to drop. Some of our players hit just as hard without clearing any barriers, but when Foxy rides one, the first thing you know it is out of the park."

The answer is that Foxy gets "over-spin" on the ball to produce extra distance. That is one reason why Wilson's drives usually out-carry those of Hornsby and Stephenson, in the opinion of Joe McCarthy, the Cub boss.

"All are terrific hitters," said Joe, "but Mack clears fences that none of the others reach. The average adds to the carry. Wilson's hardest drives continue to rise when balls hit just as hard by other hitters drop into some outfield, or the hands."

Wilson, who got his nickname from resemblance to the former "Hudson Lion," Hackenschmidt, puts plenty of weight into his drives. Mack is built closer to the ground than Foxy, a rascally youth with the sort of shoulders a football fullback would envy.

Labor Day will be just that for the members of Army's football team. It will be the opening day of practice for Red Eagle and his mates in preparation for one of the biggest spectacles the Coast ever faced, involving trips to Harvard, Yale, Illinois, Stanford and New York, to play Notre Dame.

Louis Angel Pizzo quite frankly spent his spare time figuring up earnings, looked over the "house" before entering the ring. Now his successor in the ring, his heavy weight boxing honors, Victorio, Mart Campolo, insists money is not his main object. Campolo, son of a wealthy cattleman, prefers poetry. He translated Shelly's Ode to the Skylark for a diary he keeps for the benefit of his mother.

AGED CONTRACTOR SHOT
SEATTLE, Aug. 31 (AP)—While J. T. Twoby, 65-year-old contractor was in a serious condition with three bullet wounds in his body, city authorities were today investigating the delay to the appearance of ambulances on the scene of the shooting last night.

Twoby was shot when he refused to put up his hands at the command of a holdup man while he and Mrs. Twoby were waiting for a street car.

Ed Keating Wins
15-Mile Swim In Lake Ontario

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 31 (AP)—Conqueror of Lake Ontario's ice waters and of 247 rivals as well, Edward F. Keating of New York, was satisfied today for he had evened an old score with Ernest Vierkötter, German biker now living in Toronto.

Victory in the fourth annual Wrigley 15-mile swimming marathon here yesterday netted Keating a cash award of $25,000 but he seemed to take more satisfaction out of the fact that he had forced Vierkötter to be content with second place and $5,000.

"There has been bad feeling between Keating and Vierkötter ever since 1927 when the German charged Keating had been 'towed' by his escorting boat in the Lake George swim that year.

Keating's first question as he clambered out of the water at the end of yesterday's 15-mile grind was: "Where is Vierkötter?"

Assured that the German was far behind, Keating smiled. Later he expressed the hope that Vierkötter would apologize for what he said about the Lake George swim."

Keating, swimming the 15 miles in 3 hours 18 minutes, 13.4 seconds, finished about 500 yards ahead of Vierkötter. Keating swept into the lead on the seventh lap, passing Norman Ross, of Chicago, with three-quarters of that lap completed. After that he was in no danger. At the time he took the lead he was 500 yards in front of Vierkötter, who held third place, and the German's best efforts from then on to the finish could narrow the gap by only a hundred yards. Ross, who weakened badly in the closing stages of the race, finished third to win prize money of $2,000.

New Orleans Wins

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 31, (AP)—New Orleans, with a boys team playing with a game of baseball, won the all-western championship of the American Legion junior tournament here yesterday, noting out Portland, Ore., 6 to 5. Rain held up the game twice.
