AT THE THEATERS

"Scandal" At Star on Tuesday

A brilliant and sophisticated picture of society at Santa Barbara, California's millionaire colony, is Universal's stirring drama, "Scandal," which has been booked as the next attraction at the Star theater to play Tuesday.

Imagine a woman who knows that a man convicted of murder is innocent, but that if she tells the truth she will lose the love of her husband and become an object of scandal.

That is the position of Laura La Plante in the starring role. Huntley Gordon is the husband and John Nolan the alleged murderer.

"Scandal" first appeared in "The Hounded Lady," a short story in the Metropolitan magazine, written by Adele Rogers St. Johns. It is based on a real situation occurring a short time ago in New York. It is said to be one of the most absorbing society dramas brought to the screen.

The picture has Santa Barbara as background. Polo games, polo parties, social affairs and the other pleasures of the colony in which Santa Barbara amuses itself are featured in the story. Wesley Ruggles directed.

"Trial of Mary Dugan" Now Arcade Feature

Actress who walks up and down, feverishly talking to themselves, directors with sleeves rolled up, dramatically pouring over "notes" of dialogue and song writers here and there "fin-tuning" some new theme number—these were the strange sights seen at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio during the filming of "The Trial of Mary Dugan" Howard Vellie's all-ringing
