Dinner Party Is Complimentary To Mr. and Mrs. Moon

A delightful dinner party of ten covers was given at the Sagaween hotel last evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moon, recent bride and bridegroom. It was also in celebration of the year spent by the tenants in the Grace building. A year ago the same tenants held a dinner party, just before occupying the new building.

Mrs. Grace Snyder was hostess at the four-course dinner. On the table was a mixed bouquet of flowers. After the dinner, the guests spent a social evening at the home of Mrs. Snyder.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moon; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Moon; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hodson; Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Hester; Mr. Stevens, and the hostess.

Episcopal Guild Opens Fall Season

The first fall meeting of the Episcopal Guild was held yesterday afternoon at the Riverside park. Mrs. Hazel McDonald had charge of the devotional and mission hour from eleven until lunch.

The luncheon was a pot luck affair under the spreading trees of the park. About 25 members were present.

In the business meeting during the afternoon, at which Mrs. Hubert Anderson presided, two matters of special importance were decided. The first was a reception for the normal school students which will be given the third week of this month. This also moved to have a rummage sale Saturday, Sept. 14.

This is one of many church meetings which are being held this week which are making plans for the coming winter months.

Mrs. L. E. Wendenbarger is chairman of the committee for the reception of normal school students. Those on the committee are: Mrs. H. N. Astby, Mrs. D. H. Jones, Mrs. Harry Zorlick, and Mrs. George T. Cochran.

MENUS

By Sister Mary

The woman who serves simple, wholesome meals to her family day by day does much to insure their general good health. The whole day's menu should be planned in advance, each meal being considered singly and also as a part of the three in order that a balanced diet shall be maintained.

The following menu is inexpensive but varied and interesting. It is seasonable for this time of year, but cannot fruit and vegetables could be substituted for winter ones.

Breakfast—Ripe pears, ready-to-serve cereal, cream, scrambled eggs, with dried beef, crisp toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Chamberole of vegetables, brown bread, cottage cheese, nut cookies, lemonade.

Dinner—Rolled flank of beef, ten-minute cabbage, banana and tomato salad, steamed elderberry pudding, milk, coffee.

Steamed Elderberry Pudding.

One cup molasses, 1-2 teaspoon soda, 1-2 cups flour, 1-2 teaspoon grated nutmeg, 1-2 teaspoon baking powder, 2 cups shelled elderberries, 2 tablespoons melted butter, 1 egg, 3/4 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon vinegar, 1-4 teaspoon salt.

Dissolve soda in a little warm water and stir into molasses. Add flour mixed and sifted with sugar, salt, baking powder and nutmeg. Mix until perfectly smooth and add berries, vinegar, melted butter. Stir well and add egg beaten until very light. Turn into a well buttered mold and steam three hours. Serve warm with lemon sauce.

Elderberries are always plentiful and cheap. If they are carefully selected with salt and vinegar when used, they will prove quite likable for many desserts.

SEPTEMBER

How dear to my heart is golden September—
The melons, the peaches, the green waving corn,
And scarlet tomatoes that glow like an ember,
Reflecting the flame of the red-dawning morn.
Mellow with thoughts of the days we remember,
Bright with the promise of coming good cheer—
Colorful, comforting, kindly September,
Golden September, the crown of the year!

Teacher: "Napoleon once said there was no such word as 'can't'." Voice from the back of the class: "Please, Miss Walton, I wonder what he would have said if he had tried to strike a match on a piece of soap?"

Young Thing: "I have brought this book back; mother says it isn't fit for me to read." Librarian: "I think your mother must be mistaken." Young Thing: "Oh, no, she isn't. I've read it all through."

PUTMAN'S

La Grande's Exclusive Ready-to-Wear and Millinery

The United States produces about 500,000,000 pounds of cheese annually and this amount the state of Wisconsin manufactures three-fourths. Wisconsin's cheese industry started back in 1815 when a little band of 198 Swiss immigrants settled in Green county. Since then the industry has grown to the extent that there are now 120 cheese factories and a number of creameries in the 24 square miles of Green county. Ex-President Coolidge is shown here eating a slice of the famed Swiss cheese presented him by a "delegation when he vacationed on the Brule river a year ago."
