

Local News In Brief

First Real Visit in 10 Years—
Mrs. Slim Collins, of Glenns Ferry, and Mrs. Frank Pike, of La Grande, had the opportunity for the first time in forty years to recall memories of their childhood days recently, when Mrs. Collins visited at Mrs. Pike's residence on her way home from a trip to San Francisco, where Mrs. Collins is attending school this winter. Many years ago when they were children Mrs. Collins' father was employed by the reason Short line, and Mrs. Pike's mother owned a hotel. This was some time in 1853, when there were few children in Eastern Oregon, so the girls became good friends and were together until Mrs. Pike was married. Since then they have merely had time to greet each other until this recent visit.

Returned Home—
Miss Gertrude Wagener, children's librarian, has recently returned from Spokane where she attended the 29th annual conference of the Pacific Northwest Library association from August 29 to 31. The conference, which was held in the Davenport hotel, was attended by delegates from California, Utah, Washington, Montana, British Columbia and Oregon, as well as one delegate from Transvaal, South Africa. "The keynote of the meeting was county libraries," said Miss Wagener. "It was firmly impressed upon the delegates present that every progressive county should have a county library. It made me feel more keenly the loss of our own county library."

At the Hotel—
Registered at a local hotel are the following persons: C. E. Anderson, from Boise; E. K. Quinn, wife, from Pendleton; W. S. Van, wife and two children, from Yakima; S. O. Voorhis, from Enterprise; I. H. Small, from Baker; L. W. Harnish and wife, of Caldwell; C. G. Chadwick, of Baker; D. C. Sherwood, Walla Walla; Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Leavitt; Clyde D. Smith and wife, E. L. Wilkins, from Spokane.

Going to School—
Miss Bertha Janta, formerly a violinist of La Grande, returned to Portland Tuesday night. This winter she will attend the Ellsboro White conservatory where she won a scholarship for a year. She has been taking instructions from Mr. Hurlmann, director of the Junior Symphony orchestra in Portland. When she is back here, Miss Janta gave several concerts and conducted some musicals.

At the Hotel—
Those registered at the local hotel recently are: E. J. Rands and John Rands, of Fruitland, Ida.; M. H. Moran, Huntington; Dan Morgan and L. L. Hoppers, of Eugene; Luke Truitt, of Jerome; C. C. Chawwater, Enterprise; Mr. and Mrs. H. Gerstman, from The Dalles; and Paul R. Sadler, from Elgin.

On Vacation—
Miss Lenore Gibson, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gibson, left this morning for Home where they will visit Mr. Gibson's sister, Mrs. A. E. Goley, and family. From there they expect to go to Klamath Falls and Crescent City, Cal. They will be gone about ten days.

Trip to the Lake—
Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hedden and family, Harold Rogers, his mother, Mrs. W. L. Rogers, Ella May Wright, niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hedden, and Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Shaden went to Walla Walla lake Sunday and returned Monday evening. The men especially enjoyed the fishing at the resort.

Goes to Pullman—
Miss Geneva Coltrill left by car Saturday for Pullman, Wash., where she will attend high school this year. Miss Coltrill attended school here last year, completing her freshman work. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Coltrill.

Manager of Ward—
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Parise are at the Grande Ronde Apartments, their new home. Mr. Parise is the new manager of the Montgomery Ward company here. His former home was in Boise, where he held the same position in the company.

Former Master Mechanic—
P. A. Leavitt, former master mechanic of the C. & W., was visiting here this morning, saying hello to many of his old friends in the railroad office.

To Salem—
Clifford Carter went to Salem.

DEPARTMENT STORES
C. J. Breier Co.
IN THE WEST

Store No. 12 La Grande, Ore.

Corduroys
in young men's sizes for school wear. Novelty stripe—
$3.98

Plain Cream in conservative cut yesterday where he will visit relatives. Mrs. Carter has been there part of the summer. They will return together.
$3.48

Here from Portland—
Mrs. W. J. Richmond and Mrs. J. A. McCarty, of Portland, are in La Grande today with their husbands, who are attending the Chevrolet convention in this city.

Will attend Normal—
Edward Rogers, employee of the Grande Ronde Meat company, is planning to attend Eastern Oregon Normal school this fall. The first term begins Sept. 22.

Auditing Bills—
The county court was still occupied with the routine task of auditing bills with the second day of the September session fast over. All three members of the court were in attendance.

Returned—
Mrs. Otto Williams returned from Portland yesterday morning. She has been visiting there a week. The conference, which was held in the Davenport hotel, was attended by delegates from California, Utah, Washington, Montana, British Columbia and Oregon, as well as one delegate from Transvaal, South Africa. "The keynote of the meeting was county libraries," said Miss Wagener. "It was firmly impressed upon the delegates present that every progressive county should have a county library. It made me feel more keenly the loss of our own county library."

Return from Walla Walla—
Misses Georgia Ware and Lucille Taylor returned yesterday morning from Portland. They left La Grande last Saturday. While in Portland they visited friends.

Visitors from Walla Walla—
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hane and children and Carl Sittsburg, of Walla Walla, spent last week visiting at the home of Mrs. Zephia Carline on Z avenue.

Accident—
Earl Holmes, employee of the Bowman Hicks mill, lost his left little finger yesterday when his hand slipped under a planer knife. He was treated at the Dr. Wandersbeck hospital.

From Portland—
Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Carbine have returned from Portland where they attended the wedding of their daughter, Eva, and Linsey Arlin, of Portland. Mr. Arlin plays in an orchestra there.

To Oakland, Cal.—
Mrs. Mary Brown-Jewell left La Grande last night on her way to Oakland, Cal., where she will take charge of an Oakland hospital. She was once superintendent of the Grande Ronde hospital.

From Western—
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gordon and Mrs. Frank Pomeroy, of Weston, Ore., were here on business over the weekend. They also visited friends.

From Baker—
Leo Falk and family, of Falk's store, is in La Grande today. Their home is in Baker. They will return to Baker tomorrow after a three week's vacation.

Come in from Cabin—
Mr. and Mrs. Lester Stoddard and family are moving into town from their cabin on Catherine Creek. They have been there since the first of July.

To Baker—
E. Russell Scott, boy scout executive, went to Baker today.

Stolen Car—
A car, reported stolen last night from Francis Goodrich, was discovered by the police on Spruce street south of Adams avenue later in the night.

New Policeman—
Martin Swanson has accepted a position as a member of the La Grande police force. He began work Wednesday on the night force.

Trip to Idaho—
Mrs. D. B. Kendrick and Jay

COLONIAL
Big Shows at Small Prices

To-day
Last Day
John Gilbert in "Cossacks"

Love! Passion! Hate and Drama! Russia two land of terror and adventure!

The Screen's Greatest Lover!

Also Short Subjects
100% Entertainment

He's New Chief of Civil Aeronautics

Here the new government aviation head, Major Clarence M. Young, above, of Des Moines, Ia., has been appointed Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Aeronautics, succeeding William P. McCracken, resigned. Young has been director of the Bureau of Civil Aeronautics.

Wisconsin, are visiting J. A. Gately for a few days. They went fishing yesterday.

Few Days in Portland—
Mrs. Saxon Bruce and daughter, Evelyn, have gone to Portland. They expect to remain there for several days visiting friends.

From Walla Walla—
Mrs. O. W. Choate, Mrs. Ray McKenna and Mrs. J. W. McKenna, of Walla Walla, were in La Grande on business today.

Operation Successful—
Pat Fitzgerald is up and around now, and his operation is reported to be successful.

Improving—
Jack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McGowan, is reported to be doing nicely after his recent operation.

Marriage License—
A marriage license was recently issued to Samuel H. O'Brien to Lela L. Youngs, both of North Powder.

Returned from Enterprise—
Mrs. William Gable returned to La Grande from visiting her parents in Enterprise.

Recovered—
Mrs. Herbert Patterson who has been ill at her home during the past five days, is able to be out again.

From Elgin—
W. E. Moore was in town on business. His home is in Elgin.

To Walla Walla—
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones spent Labor day in Walla Walla.

Called Away—
Mrs. George L. Lyman was called to Baker by the serious illness of her nephew, Lorenzo MacGregor.

Trip to Portland—
Mrs. Bertha Wallinger and Miss Marjorie Wallinger returned Tuesday night from a motor trip to Portland. They left Sunday.

Wildest of The Wild
CAPTURED ALIVE
"MAWAS"
(WILD MAN OF THE JUNGLES)

Tigers -- Leopards
Cobras
Great Herds of Wild Elephants

Look Out!
Its Fierce
Thrilling & Exciting

THE "SISTER" PICTURE TO
"Simba"
It is Educational — Don't Miss It

FRIDAY & SAT.
STAR

Now Playing
"Scandal"
Laura La Plante

Alice White
in Broadway Babies
Oh Boy!
What Lines

She has 'em—
You'll see 'em!
She says 'em—
You'll hear 'em!

100% Talking
Singing -- Dancing

STARTING TODAY
ARCADE

All Talking Comedy
Fox Movietone News

School Shoe Week
Real Values in School Shoes

NEW FALL CHILDREN'S SHOES
All sizes from which to choose. Specially priced from $2.25 to $3.95
All Styles

BOYS' STURDY OXFORDS
Black and tan, brogue type, heavy soles, pebble grain leather—
$4.75
Sizes 2 1/2 to 5 1/2

GIRLS' OXFORDS
TIES, STRAPS
All sizes—all styles.
$1.95 to $6.50
1 Special lot, broken sizes
$3.95

BURNETT SHOE CO.
Quality Shoes Economy Prices

Drive to Portland—
Charles Karther and George Brace drove to Portland Tuesday night. They are expected to return today.

To Portland—
Mrs. Albert Hunter went to Portland to visit her daughter, Mrs. G. L. Dutton. She plans to stay there a week.

Robbery—
It was reported that the home of Roy Wale was robbed recently. A traveling bag and some clothes were taken.

Operation—
Clifford Blokland recently underwent an operation in the Grande Ronde hospital. Mr. Blok-land plays in the La Grande band.

Expected to Return—
Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Dixon and family are expected to return tomorrow morning after spending a week in Portland visiting Mrs. Dixon's sister.

Baby Boy—
A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Halbert Rollin, of Imbler, at the Grande Ronde hospital this morning.

From Union—
Mrs. L. E. Myers, of Union, is in La Grande today on business.

Moved to Home—
Melvin Blanchard was moved to his home at 1208 K avenue, after being in the Grande Ronde hospital for an appendix operation.

Baby Born—
Mr. and Mrs. Lemie Shiels are the parents of a baby boy, born Sept. 1.

Left Yesterday—
Mr. and Mrs. John Smartt and daughter, Josephine, left yesterday morning for a town near Pendleton where Mrs. Smartt teaches school.

False Alarm—
The fire department was called to box 42 at 9:45 o'clock by a false alarm.

ROME Quality
WE SELL
"DeLuxe"
The Bedspring Luxurious
W. H. BOHNENKAMP CO.

GENERAL VIOLET RAY
ANTI-KNOCK GASOLINE

Smoothness assured
... no knocks

For writing best 400 word letter telling "Why 50 Degrees is the Danger Point", you can win first prize
MODEL HOME

Why is 50 Degrees the "Danger Point" in the preservation of perishable food products? Why do fluctuating temperatures—too high or too low—cause these perishables to endanger the health of your family?

To set the nation thinking about the vitally important problem of proper food preservation, the National Food Preservation Council is sponsoring a nation-wide essay contest with $35 awards totaling $25,000 in cash value. The first award, a model home, electrically equipped, throughout; the second a new Cadillac Coupe, delivered to your door; the third, $2,000 in gold—and so on down the long list.

Determine now to enter this contest and gain one of these well-worth-winning awards. As a first step come in and get the explanatory booklet, "How to Safeguard Your Family's Health" with detailed rules and regulations.

But you must act at once. This contest is short and snappy. It closes September 30th. Come in today!

ENTER PRIZE CONTEST AND SHARE IN AWARDS TOTALING $25,000.00
cash value

Eastern Oregon Light & Power Co.
Rosenbaum Electric Shop
Carr Furniture Co., Inc.
Bohnenkamp's

NATIONAL FOOD PRESERVATION PROGRAM
SEPT. 1929