

Local News In Brief

Boy Scout Trip—Boy Scout Troop No. 14 enjoyed an outdoor feast last evening at their camp at Five Points. Dr. Clarence L. Gilstrap, Dr. E. G. Kirby, Dr. R. F. Murphy, Charles L. Reynolds and Norman Press were present and partook of the dinner, prepared by themselves and the boys.

Trial Begun—Trial has been begun in the circuit court of the case of J. L. Foster against James W. Clay. It is a suit about the specific performance of a contract to sell land. Testimony was taken under advisement by Judge J. W. Knowles. Decision will be made later.

Passed Through—Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Forcut, of Portland, stopped here Thursday evening while on their motor trip to New York. They are former residents of La Grande. They expect to return from the east the first of October.

Camping Trip—Mr. and Mrs. H. K. O'Brien and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ravenhill and family will drive up Wallawa canyon this weekend where they will meet some friends from Wallawa, and picnic together.

Returned from Los Angeles—Leo Cullen Bryant has returned from Los Angeles where he has been coaching skills in a celebrated auto teacher and studying piano class methods. Mr. Bryant is a violin and piano instructor at the Eastern Oregon School of Music.

Traffic Accident—Care driven by Mrs. Ed Gitter and Bernice Lamb figured in a minor traffic accident at Adams and Depot at 2:10 o'clock yesterday afternoon, according to a report made to the police.

Marrriages—Last evening in Judge U. G. Conroy's office in the court house a marriage ceremony was performed for Miss Gladys Christian House and Harold Matson.

Short Visit—Austin Dunn left on his return trip to Portland after a few days visit in La Grande with friends. He graduated from La Grande High school several years ago.

After Prisoner—Police Chief Clint Haynes left yesterday for Wednesday, Wash., to bring a prisoner back to La Grande. He is expected to return to this city tonight or tomorrow.

Here for the Winter—Virginia Hampton, niece of Mrs. Walter Ledman, arrived in La Grande recently. She will remain here this winter to attend school.

Expect Sister—Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bennett in expecting his sister Mrs. H. A. Wilson from Missouri to arrive here today.

From Klamath Falls—Joseph Shetter was expected to return today from Klamath Falls where he has been visiting.

Visit Huntington—Miss Doris Bellon will visit her father in Huntington today. She plans to return tomorrow.

Returns from Portland—David Hunt returned Thursday night from Portland where he has been for several days.

To Spokane—Mr. and Mrs. Murphy returned from Spokane where they spent the first few days of the week.

From Elgin—Mrs. J. C. Rice from Elgin, was in La Grande yesterday.

Fire Stolen—A five year stolen last night from M. L. Hopkins 1928 V. a. v. which he reported to the police.

To Enterprise—Mrs. Robert Reese will visit her sister in Enterprise today.

Weekend at Wallawa—Miss Jane Ravenscroft has been spending the weekend at Wallawa with Miss Catherine McKenna.

Left This Morning—Mrs. L. E. Kinnel and Mrs. Fred H. Linnell left this morning on a trip to Wisconsin.

Baker Woman To Visit Wallawa Eastern Star

By Mrs. E. K. Hunter (Observer Correspondent) (Special)—Mrs. Carrie Jackson, of Baker, who is so well known as a worthy patron and friend of the Eastern Star of Wallawa county next week, being in Enterprise Tuesday night, leaving Wednesday night and Wallawa Thursday night. Special plans are being made for her portrayal of the degree of the order.

Mrs. Margaret McDonald and Captain E. C. Brown drove through Wallawa Tuesday on their way to La Grande where Captain Brown took the train for his home in Portland. He has been spending a week visiting at Wallawa lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Banks, of Elgin, were expected to arrive in Wallawa Friday, bringing with them their daughter, Olive, who will teach in Wallawa High school this winter. Mr. and Mrs. Banks also will visit a few days with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hunter before returning home. Mr. Banks is a member of the Elgin church.

Autumn flowers were arranged about the room, delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Miss Humphreys' engagement was announced by July at an entertainment party given by her cousin, Miss Thelma Barrett, in Portland. She and her fiancé, Elton Deather, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Deather of Portland, will be married in Portland in a few days.

Mr. Deather is a telephone engineer for the Bell Telephone company. They will make their home in Portland, but until Christmas Mr. Deather's occupation will keep them in Eugene, most of the time.

These present at the affair were: Miss Myrtle Wilson, Miss Dean Wray, Miss Jeanette Nelson, Miss Ruth Harrison, Miss Corinne Baker, Miss Ethel Baker, Miss Thelma Barrett, Miss Margaret Parker, Miss Virginia and Lois Brown, Miss Grace Cook, Miss Irene Spencer, Miss Lucile Green, Miss Phyllis Dean, Miss Charlene Paris, the music, piano and the hostesses.

The second ward M. E. A. meeting held their first social meeting of the season last night. The principal feature of the evening was the magazine reading of the two publications, "The Improvement Era" and the "Young Women's Journal" which are now one publication. Miss Erma Turner was the bride and Tava Hendrickson the bridesmaid.

During the evening refreshments were served, and the crowd of young people danced. They learned the steps to a new folk dance, "I Want to be Happy."

During the afternoon a two-course luncheon was served. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. I. M. Dolan.

The Parkdale club met at the home of Mrs. Henry Young with Mrs. J. H. Thacker and Mrs. Fred Young as assistant hostesses.

The rooms were attractively decorated with fall flowers. At the close of the business meeting a program was enjoyed. Later the hostesses served dainty refreshments.

Mrs. C. E. Duffey was hostess at a party at the home of Mrs. R. J. Kitchin yesterday afternoon.

Two tables of bridge were at play. Mrs. J. P. Caldwell receiving the prize for high score. Garden flowers decorated the home. Delicious refreshments were served.

The Pythian Sisters lodge met last night in their P. hall in the first full business meeting.

A committee was appointed for the next social meeting which will be held the third meeting this month.

Society News

Shower Given As Compliment To Miss Humphreys

A delightful shower complimenting Miss Catherine Humphreys for which Miss Mildred Bradshaw, Miss Mary Vaughan Hendrickson, and Miss Naomi Twidwell were hostesses, was given last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bradshaw.

About 20 girls were present at the event and spent a jolly evening playing games and singing.

Mrs. Dortha Glenn gave an unusual reading, which was well received. Another interesting reading was given by Miss Mary Vaughan Hendrickson. Miss Myrtle Wilson sang several lovely popular songs accompanied by Miss Mildred Bradshaw.

Autumn flowers were arranged about the room, delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Miss Humphreys' engagement was announced by July at an entertainment party given by her cousin, Miss Thelma Barrett, in Portland. She and her fiancé, Elton Deather, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Deather of Portland, will be married in Portland in a few days.

Mr. Deather is a telephone engineer for the Bell Telephone company. They will make their home in Portland, but until Christmas Mr. Deather's occupation will keep them in Eugene, most of the time.

These present at the affair were: Miss Myrtle Wilson, Miss Dean Wray, Miss Jeanette Nelson, Miss Ruth Harrison, Miss Corinne Baker, Miss Ethel Baker, Miss Thelma Barrett, Miss Margaret Parker, Miss Virginia and Lois Brown, Miss Grace Cook, Miss Irene Spencer, Miss Lucile Green, Miss Phyllis Dean, Miss Charlene Paris, the music, piano and the hostesses.

The Pythian Sisters lodge met last night in their P. hall in the first full business meeting.

A committee was appointed for the next social meeting which will be held the third meeting this month.

Bridge Club Meets At L. M. Hoyt Home

Mrs. L. M. Hoyt was hostess yesterday afternoon to the Island City Bridge club at her home. Mrs. Homer Wilson was the high score prize.

During the afternoon a two-course luncheon was served. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. I. M. Dolan.

Parkdale Club Is Entertained

The Parkdale club met at the home of Mrs. Henry Young with Mrs. J. H. Thacker and Mrs. Fred Young as assistant hostesses.

The rooms were attractively decorated with fall flowers. At the close of the business meeting a program was enjoyed. Later the hostesses served dainty refreshments.

Mrs. C. E. Duffey Is Hostess at Bridge

Mrs. C. E. Duffey was hostess at a party at the home of Mrs. R. J. Kitchin yesterday afternoon.

Two tables of bridge were at play. Mrs. J. P. Caldwell receiving the prize for high score. Garden flowers decorated the home. Delicious refreshments were served.

Pythian Sisters Resume Meetings

The Pythian Sisters lodge met last night in their P. hall in the first full business meeting.

A committee was appointed for the next social meeting which will be held the third meeting this month.

Women Preparing For Winter Bazaar

The Baptist Women's society met Friday at the home of Mrs. Grand Wilson, with Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Arnold Grulapp as hostesses.

The bazaar and dinner to be held Dec. 5, were discussed. Committees for them will be appointed at the next meeting.

During the afternoon the members sewed on Indian blankets which will be sold at the bazaar. The hostess served refreshments.

IMBLER PERSONALS

By Mrs. C. M. Hale (Observer Correspondent) (Special)—Mrs. E. M. McCoy and Mrs. Charles McCall were guests Tuesday of Mrs. Jesse Patrick, of the Pleasant Grove district.

Dr. Lawrence Martin, of Enterprise, spent Wednesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Martin, in honor of his mother's birthday. Mrs. Walter Young and children, of La Grande, were also guests of the Martin home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Geiseler and daughter, Dorothy, and Mrs. E. L. Perin, of Elgin, were dinner guests Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hale. Mrs. Perin came to move her household goods to Elgin, having rented her house here to Andrew Paroz, mechanic at the Red Head garage. Mr. Paroz made a trip to Idaho after his household goods.

Mrs. Sam Touts, Mrs. Charles Keisler and Mrs. Tom Briggs, of La Grande, were guests one day last week at the J. W. Fisher home.

The Priscilla club enjoyed a picnic dinner at the La Grande park recently, spending the afternoon swimming at the Crystal Plunge in La Grande.

Mrs. Ross Perry and small son are spending some time on the coast.

The primary class of the L. D. S. church of Imbler met at the Elgin Primary class at the Elgin park recently for a joint picnic.

Recently 24 women of the L. D. S. churches of Elgin and Imbler met with Mr. Doring's mother, Mrs. Rose Garn. Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Westenslow and children have returned from Utah where they spent the summer. Mr. Westenslow built a home for Mr. and Mrs. McBride while there. They are now moving into the Haskell Andrew House here.

PUTMAN'S
La Grande's Exclusive Ready-to-Wear and Millinery

Joe Lloyd and two daughters of Enterprise, were visiting at the William Collins home, August 23. They were on their way home from Caldwell, Ida., where they had attended a revival meeting of the Church of God.

Hazel Martin spent the weekend in Portland, taking advantage of the Labor Day excursion.

Recently the women of the Union Sunday school gave a party in honor of Mrs. Frank Martin's birthday. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Martin's daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Doring, of The Dalles, have been visiting

Biltwell
WITH THE STURDE POINT

few pens have received a welcome so sincere and emphatic

The ultimate in a standardized pen at a price you've never thought possible—achievement of quantity production without extravagant advertising costs.

You'll appreciate its generous, full size, 14k. point, tipped with smooth iridium; and be delighted with its beautiful barrels of unbreakable Duratex colored in—oriental jade orange red mahogany and jet black

The cost is—
$1.50 Nickel Trim
$2.00 Gold Trim

A new standard of value for School and College use—builtwell and beautifully. We urge you to see them.

We Hold IT

Our pleasurable duty to inform our readers that we believe matrimony is a license to tell your Bridge Partner just what you think of his or her dumbbell plays. It is also our pleasurable duty to inform you that our rough dry service cuts the work you are required to do to a minimum conversant with the rates charged. We iron all flat work and starch the balance if necessary as well as fluff dry the clothes.

Phone Main 56
Standard Laundry Co.
"Wife Saving Station."

Red Cross Drug Store

East Oregon Fast Freight, Inc.

Over Night Express Service at Freight Rates

Insured Carrier

Auto Freight Terminal

Phone Main 673 1413 Jefferson Ave.

SVE STEVENS VAN ENGELN CO STORES

Pretty Girl School Hose
DERBY RIBBED
Black, Honey, Beige, Peach
Only 19c pair

FAMILY WASH

Send your family wash Ruff Dry—flat pieces ironed—garments ready to dampen. Any and every garment 7c. You can't do them at home for that price.

MODERN LAUNDRY
Phone Main 77.

SUNDAY MONDAY

STAR

WILLIAM FOX PRESENTS

JOY STREET

PUTS THE WOOD IN WOODS

LOIS MORAN NICK STUART SEX CELL SALLY DEMPSEY

Collecting in "CROSS RIVER" COUNTRY NEWS

TODAY The Wild Man of the Jungles

"MAWAS"

Starting SUNDAY

William Haines in "TELLING THE WORLD"

From an under-world narrow to a far-East revelation lead on to romance and entertainment.

Today Last Day Ken Maynard in "CHEYENNE"

ARCADÉ

4 Days Starting SUNDAY

100% TALKIE
A First National Picture

Richard A. Rowland presents

"THE SQUALL"

JOYCE TUCKER MYRNA LOY ZAZU PITTS LOREY YOUNG

Subl. she's an ill wind that blows no man good. Born of the man hurricane takes love where she will— from old— from young— from father, from son—

Selected Viaphone Acts & Pathé Sound News

TODAY
Alice White "BROADWAY BABIES" All Talking