Building Work Under Way This Month At Cove

By Mrs. A. G. Conklin (Observer Correspondent) COVE, Ore. (Special)—There is some building going on in Cove. Mr. and Mrs. Duncan are making several changes in their home. A basement has been put under the entire house and the roof has been raised and an addition put on the south and a porch on the west side. It is a bungalow type of building and will make a very charming country residence when completed. A large stone fireplace will be put in the living room, the interior will be finished in the natural woods.

Division Of Aid Planning Dinner

R. T. Barker has been making some very important changes in the interior of his home and is now building a new garage. C. M. Stackland is adding a large enclosed porch to the east side of his house. The paneled windows on each side and the end add much to its attraction. This place is becoming one of the beauty spots of Cove, their shabby and bowers being placed to set off the charm of their cottage. Mrs. L. E. Anderson has her plans all made for a sun room to be built on the south side of her house. It will be 12 feet in width and 16 feet in length with groups of windows and French doors along the south side. It will catch all the sun rays and light up the interior. The dairymen are now engaged

ZEPPELIN CRIPPLED AT JOURNEY'S END

A damaged rodder didn't impede the progress of the Graf Zeppelin in crossing the United States on the last leg of its world cruise. Upper left is a close-up of the smashed fin, taken on the dirigible's arrival at Lakehurst, N. J., showing the fabric which was ripped by contact with wires as the immense craft took off from Mines Field, Los Angeles. Upper right is Commander Hugo Eckener, twentieth century Magellan of the air, who temporarily relinquished command of the big dirigible to remain in the United States on business. Round-the-world passengers aboard the Zeppelin are pictured below as they left the ship at Lakehurst. Right to left: Austin Kandler, Dr. T. Megias, H. Von Perkhammer, Heinz von Eschwege-Liechbert, Lieut. Col. Christoph Iselin, L. Gerville-Beache and Sir Hubert Wilkins.

In filling silos. The silo at Mrs. Mattie Brazill's place was filled early in the week and T. R. Conklin filled his Wednesday and Thursday, the machine going to P. Paige Friday morning. The corn shows the result of the hail storm on August 1. It was damaged severely at that time and the corn attained one-half its growth and consequently silos that should have been full are only about half full. F. Paige has a large acreage of corn and will fill the silo on his own place and also the one on the John Allen place. The village cutters are now an important piece of the farm machinery and are usually owned by a group of men, who work together in filling several silos.

The Rev. W. A. Winters, of Joseph, has been assigned to the Methodist church in Cove. The Rev. H. J. Hansen, of Island City, who was located in Cove a few years ago, will remain another year in Island City. The Rev. H. E. Graham, who has been in Cove for a year is leaving for a new location. Wallace Nelson, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nelson, is ill of typhoid fever. He has been ill for several days and his illness is pronounced typhoid by the attending physician. The family reside well up Mill Creek canyon. Miss Dorothy Mills and Miss Lucy Egan, of Walla Walla, Wash., who have been house guests of Miss Mills for the past month, left Monday for Walla Walla where they will both enter Whitman college. Mrs. Claire Smith, who was taken to Hot Lake sanatorium a few days ago for an appendicitis operation is slowly recovering. Mrs. Smith has a young baby who is being cared for by Mr. Smith's mother, Mrs. C. A. Smith. Miss Jean Webster, who has

Eleven Attending Catherine Creek School This Fall

By E. H. Miles (Observer Correspondent) CATHERINE CREEK (Special)—School is progressing nicely under the management of Miss Porter, the attendance at present being eleven pupils. S. P. Kingsbury has been hauling wood to Union the past week. Mrs. Arthur Moody was in Union last Saturday visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Godsey. Mrs. Milda Swiger, of Little Creek neighborhood, was called to Eagle Valley last Monday on account of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. DeBorde. A farewell dance was held at the home of Will Snively last Saturday night. Those attending from this neighborhood were: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fickle, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Swiger, Elmer Swiger, Burl Swiger and Gaylord Prather. All report a fine time. Mr. Snively will shortly move to a farm near Muddy Creek, which he has recently purchased. Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Avery and daughters, Kathryn and Harriet, were visiting at the Ed Miles home on Monday of last week. The fish hatchery is busy sending out fish to Union and Wallawa counties at present. On last Friday Mr. Bonney and Mr. Cornell made a trip to Haines with fish, which were taken on pack horses to Lost Lake, then on Sunday Mr. Bonney took a load to Wallawa county, where he was joined by Geo. Rogers and Max Wilson, who took the fish again on horses to various lakes in that county. Frank Honney on Tuesday took a truck load of fish to Baker where he was joined by Dr. Follows, who accompanied him to Malheur county where the fish were placed in the Little Malheur river. Mrs. Sessions, of Hot Lake, and Mrs. Lee, of Union, were visiting at the Miles home last Sunday.
