Communist Meet Winds Up In Riot

NEW YORK, Sept. 12 (AP)—A negro speaker at an open air Communist meeting in the Brooklyn section of Brooklyn precipitated a riot early today, in which 2,000 persons participated. Police reserves quitted the disorder after a strenuous tussle with the crowd. Twelve youths were arrested. The trouble started, according to the police, when Harold Williams, a negro and uninvited speaker, mounted a soap box and outlined his views on the abject situation. Thousands of Jewish families reside in the section. Williams had not talked long before some one cried out: "He's an Arab." Two men leaped forward and dragged him from the soap box.

Mr. Rosenbaum Wins First In West Division

Jesse Rosenbaum, of La Grande, left yesterday for Spokane and on Saturday he, with other winners in the recent Prigidaire altitude contest, will be given an airplane ride to Portland in the air-motored plane "West Wind" piloted by Nick Manner. Mr. Rosenbaum was victorious in the western division of the Spokane district, having secured 244 per cent of his quota.

The contest started Aug. 1 and ended Sept. 2. Others who won in this contest and who will accompany Mr. Rosenbaum on his trip follow: J. M. Stork, city sales manager of Spokane, who won the division's honors with 174 per cent of his quota; K. W. Helman, high salesman in the Spokane division; S. V. Arneson, high man in the Montana district, having secured 304 per cent of his quota, and William Becker, Spokane household supervisor. The trip is scheduled for Saturday morning. Before leaving Spokane the winners will be entertained at an early morning breakfast at the Davenport by the executives of the P. E. Dickette Co.

The Prigidaire sales branch of Portland has informed Mr. Rosenbaum that its executives will be at the Swan Island airport to meet the winners, and all arrangements have been made to entertain the "West Wind" crew, who won the division's honor. Nick Manner, their famous pilot.

a quarter of a mile from home. Leona said Spurrer suddenly appeared in the ferns at the side of the trail, leveled a rifle at them and fired. The bullet entered Helen's right shoulder and emerged from her left shoulder. Leona rushed home and when her father reached home and when her father reached Helen she was lifeless. A sheriff's posse was formed and led by the dead girl's father, found Spurrer dead, nearby, just off the trail.

The dead girl was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. McClaine, Lyne river ranchers. The dead boy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Spurrer, ranchers of the same district. The bodies were brought to an undertaker's establishment here.
