

HILLS DEPT. STORE A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE

Own Store

Sport Slants

By ALAN J. GOULD

There are at least a half dozen stores that have opened in the last few months at 121st and 1st streets, near the corner of 1st street, between 1st and 2nd streets, in the building which was formerly the site of the old bank building. One of these is the Hills Dept. Store, which is a good place to trade.

In a day and a half when the city is in a fever of excitement over the coming of the Hills Dept. Store, it is not surprising to find that the Hills Dept. Store is a good place to trade.

One of the most interesting features of the Hills Dept. Store is the fact that it is a good place to trade.

Marked in the retail price of the Hills Dept. Store is the fact that it is a good place to trade.

Greetings Pacific Northwest and the Pendleton Round-Up

Hollywood POMO Dry

and Hollywood POMO Dry was there in all its glory. Thirty boys from Western colleges vied with the elite of the world in proclaiming this marvelous new beverage an overnight sensation. The POMO booth was the most popular... and little wonder! Made from the fresh juice of California grapefruit, to which is added a bit of pure cane sugar and carbonated water, and the entire product pasteurized. Nothing like it has ever before been attempted... it has met with the approval of the most discriminating under every condition possible. Obtainable practically everywhere. Hollywood POMO Dry is rapidly assuming leadership in the beverage markets of this country... buy a bottle, try a bottle... and you will want it by the case.
