Grid Rules Meeting is Wednesday; Changes in Football Book Explained

In order to familiarize fans and players with changes in football rules, a meeting of coaches, officials and administrators of Eastern Oregon schools will be held at the La Grande high school Wednesday evening. The purpose is to explain and interpret changes so that all teams in this locality follow the same system.

In connection with rules changes, Jimmy Hinesham, veteran referee, has explained several of them for The Observer, as follows:

A ball which has been kicked or fumbled and then recovered by the opponent after striking the ground, may not be advanced but is dead automatically at the point of recovery.

The try-point after touchdown is to be made from the two-yard line instead of the three-yard line.

After a touchdown is made from the two-yard line, a kick anywhere on the field is legal.

When a player is tackled by the opposing team, the ball is dead at the spot where he is tackled. If he is tackled by the opposing team, the ball is dead at the spot where he is tackled.

Two Big Fights Scheduled For Week In Gotham

NEW YORK, Sept. 22 (AP)—Two bouts of heavyweight will be on display at Ebbets Field and the Yankee Stadium during the next four days.

Starting with Victoria Campolo's ten-round bout with Phil Seitz, champion of England, at Ebbets Field tonight, the week's climactic encounter will bring together Tommy Loughran, erstwhile ruler of the light heavyweight, and Jack Sharkey, of Boston, in a 12-round bout at the Yankee Stadium Thursday night.

These two heavyweight shows have overshadowed the featherweight championship bouts at Ebbets Field tonight between Adley Douthett of France and Ray Baralton. At Chicago on Friday night, Tony Canzoneri, former featherweight champion, meets Eddie Mark of Mexico in the feature rounder. Tommy Ross, Philadelphia junior lightweight, faces Johnny Davis, Cleveland, in the semi-final.

At Philadelphia tomorrow night, George Courtney, Oklahoma, and Billy James, Philadelphia, light heavyweights, battle it out over a ten-round bout.

Miller Huggins Is Ill Of Influenza

NEW YORK, Sept. 22 (AP)—Miller Huggins, manager of the Yankees, was in a hospital today suffering from influenza and an infection of the face. A second round of operations was called for today.

STATE COLLEGE WINS FIRST TILT

Union County Players Help O. S. C. Subdue Willamette U. 37 to 6.

COVINGTON, Ore., Sept. 22 (Special)—After an even first half, with each team scoring one touchdown, the Oregon State college football squad found itself in the second half and walloped Willamette university here 37 to 6 Saturday.

Two of the Orange backfield men looked especially sweet in action. Cecil Sherwood was the big ground gainer of the Scholastic tussle. He scored three of their six touchdowns out of a total of 59 yards. Henry Hughes, the versatile Hawaiian, was the other outstanding ball carrier in the Oregon State backfield, though two entirely new "dark horses" also came to light.

Gilmore Plunges Across

Gilmore plunged across for the first Orange touchdown, after 12 minutes of play in the first quarter, when he hit the line for a needed two-yard smash. Just previously Sherwood had broken loose in the first of a series of long gains by his nimble half for 16 yards. Hughes kicked the goal, the only one of six Oregon State college tries that succeeded.

In the second half Sherwood was back in action, and he had a touchdown within five minutes. The scoring play was an 11-yard dash around left end.

Rowdy Kerr Goes Over

Just four plays following the next kickoff, Willamette fumbling on her first attempt to advance, Sherwood had another. This time he slipped past the Willamette right end for 27 yards.

The Aggies had the ball on the Willamette two-yard line at the quarter and Sherwood put his head down and plunged the distance on the first play of the new period. Then he gave some of the other athletes a chance.

Rowdy Kerr, formerly of Commerce high of Portland, after one two-yard run, crashed three more for the fifth touchdown.

Two Larson, who with Sherwood, Kerr and Gilmore, hails from Union county, played part of the game at guard.

Other football scores Saturday follow:

Stanford 45, West Coast Army 6. Montana State college 28, Conventry Independents 6. Montana university 13, Anaconda Anodes 7. Olympic club 27, U. S. Marines 6. West Virginia 18, West Virginia Wesleyan 6.

Rhode Island State 17, Arnold 9. V. M. I. 19, Hampden-Sydney 9. Clemson 48, Newberry 6. Southern Methodist 12, Henson Teachers 3.

PORTLAND CLIMBS TO THIRD PLACE

Double Bill Split Leaves Ducks Tied With Seals Win Series Easily.

By The Associated Press

With four games out of seven to their credit for the week's series against Los Angeles, Hollywood today led the Pacific coast league holding a full game's margin over the second place San Francisco Mission Reds. The Seals, who for a couple of days backed in the top position by winning three of the seven games from the Reds, were back in third place, tied with Portland.

Only two weeks remain before the coast league season ends and the second half season champions are named. Meanwhile, the five clubs in the first division were still bunched closely at the top, and the winning suggestion remained as much of a problem as ever.

Stars Win Two

The Hollywood team won both games of their doubleheader with the Angels at Wrigley field yesterday. In the first game Shellenback and Hollings slotted two homers, each with two men on bases. Carlyle and Jacobs also turned in circuit hits. The score of the first game was 12 to 4. In the second game the Stars won 5 to 2. Buzz Watal blanked the Angels with four hits in the seven inning nightcap.

Pounding early to collect four runs in the first three frames, the Mission Reds won the first game against the Seals at Recreation park 14 to 5, and in the afternoon they repeated the process with a score of 12 to 3. Boone of the Missions slotted out two homers, one in the fifth and one in the sixth. The double victory put the Missions back as chief contenders for the league lead which they have held several times this season.

Ducks Break Even

Portland broke even in a double header with Sacramento but took the series six games to two. Junk Walters of the home team, formerly from San Francisco, defeated the Senators in the first game 5 to 3. In the second game he failed to duplicate the feat and the California boys won 5 to 5.

Hazy weather at Seattle caused postponement of the Seattle-Oakland double header.

COAST LEAGUE RESULTS

At Portland

SECOND GAME: R. H. F. Missions 12, San Francisco 6. Batteries: Carter, Cole and Hoffmann; Gomez, Jacobs, Glyn and McIsaac, O'Connell.

At Seattle

Oakland-Seattle, 2 games postponed, cold weather.

NON-SWIMMER HERO

PLANKPORT-ON-MAIN (AP)—Ernest Rapp, 9, could not swim, but when a four-year-old boy fell into the river, Rapp grabbed a life belt off a dock, put it on and jumped into the stream. He reached the younger boy and "dog paddled" with him to the shore.

COSTLY HOSPITALITY

PARIS (AP)—Hospitality at the French embassy in Washington costs $48,000 a year and in London $42,000. The French ambassador to Turkey gets along with an entertainment allowance of $40,000. Appropriations for legations vary: the younger boy and "dog paddled" with him to the shore.

Cubs, Mackmen Both Beaten In Sunday Games

By William J. Chipman (Associated Press Sports Writer)

Big hearted baseball magnates are about to begin payment to the bidder for a two week's dope through open dates toward two crowded weekends which may or may not entice sufficient fans to the parks to pay the aches. William Wrigley, of course, is sitting pretty, but the rest of the business is a 40-40 split estimated in the aggregate at anywhere between $25,000 and $50,000.

If anything can bring a magnate to his senses, it is a deficit, and for this reason alone it may be authoritatively stated that the schedule for 1929 will make use of the time-saving opportunities offered by Sunday baseball in Boston. With a few regularly scheduled doubleheaders placed upon the chart for Philadelphia, a full week could easily be cut from the 1929 program, which covered 22 weeks of 174 playing days.

Lopsided Race Case

The pair business being transacted at the turnstiles at this moment is largely due, of course, to the two run-away races, about which the magnates can do nothing. But if a race is going to be lopsided anyway, the club owners certainly will lose less by moving toward them with a minimum of open dates.

After attracting some 500 fans to their park one day last week, the Yankees did manage to muster 20,000 clients on the banks of the Harlem with a bargain bill yesterday, but if G. Harrow would sell the rest of his home dates from now until October 6 at strictly bargain prices, the double-header was divided, the White Sox winning the opener by 7 to 4, and the Yanks the shutout by 3 to 1. Red Faber outpitched Herb Pennock, but Roy Sherid turned the tables on Al Thomas.

At the end of the race, Carl O'Leary excused several players for the rest of the season, with full pay, the Braves, Newark, Hog, Van Pelt, Byrd, Mousert, Grabowski and Jurgens.

Hoggett Wins in Debut

Elin Hoggett, the 140-pound Detroit recruit from Montreal, made his first home start andouth-pitched the Tigers to a 3 to 0 victory over Sammy Gray and the Browns. St. Louis drove only three safe hits to the outfield.

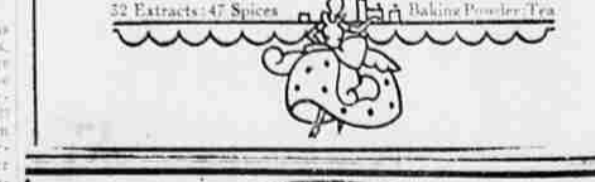

Wesley Everett pitched the Indians to a 2 to 4 victory over the Red Sox in ten innings. Green, Earnshaw and Walberg all had a hand in a game at Washington which the Senators won from the Athletics by 7 to 6 in ten rounds. It was the fourth Senators triumph over the Nats in 78 games this season.

Ducky Vance featured the National League afternoon with a five-run game at St. Louis, which came by 7 to 2. Eddie Ryzek came in the ninth, a 4 to 3 victory for St. Louis.
