Study of Egypt Is Featured At Art Club Session

The Art club of the Neighborhood held its first fall meeting at the home of Mrs. H. H. Cleaver when members began the year's study of ancient architecture. Mrs. C. E. Hapworth had charge of the program which told of the different phases of Egyptian architecture. Her subject was "Egyptian Temples."

A talk about the history of Egyptian architecture was given by Mrs. R. S. Fleming.

Mrs. W. D. McAdory related some of her experiences in Egypt, and displayed specimens of their art which she brought from there. She explained that each design on these devices were so backed by history and mythology that the story of each would be an afternoon's lecture.

The entire program was very interesting, attended by many members of the club.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. S. R. Morgan on Sixth street the third Thursday in October. The subject will concern Greek architecture, with Mrs. E. E. Hurley in charge of the program.

MENUS

By Sister Mary

Nearly every old garden has its bed of dill and other sweet herbs, and from these pungent plants various vinegars were made which gave unusual zest to the housewife's pickles.

Dill particularly was popular for pickles and was often dried for use during the winter months when greens were scarce.

Today dill pickles are popular in club or weiner sandwiches. They make a delicious sweet pickle cut in thin slices, sprinkled with sugar and allowed to stand over night. Use one cup granulated sugar for six good sized pickles.

While there are excellent bottled pickles on the market, many housekeepers like to make their own. The cucumbers can be put into brine as gathered, a few at a time, until the crock containing them is full. Then cover with grape leaves to keep crisp.

Dill Pickles

One peck four to six-inch cucumbers, 4 quarts water, 4 cups coarse salt, 4 more quarts water, 1 1/2 quarts vinegar, 3 cups salt, dill.

Wash cucumbers and wipe dry. Make a brine by adding salt to water and bringing to the boiling point. Skim. Put cucumbers in brine, cover with a weight and let stand over night. Remove from brine. Put a layer of dill in the bottom of a deep crock, add a layer of cucumbers and continue layer for layer until all cucumbers are used. Weight with a plate and McNary inquired whether the board required cooperatives to exhaust their own sources of credit before $500,000,000 farm relief fund would be used.

Legge said no such rule had been definitely laid down, but at the present time all the board felt it could do was to make supplemental loans except in a few cases.

Senator Garaway, democrat, Arkansas, took issue with this view, saying he thought that was not the intent of congress, while Legge said he understood the farm bill intended the fund to be used as supplemental financing and not primary.

"If you want us to finance all agriculture you will have to give us $10,000,000,000, instead of $500,000,000," Legge said. He added that many parts of the farm act were not understandable to the board.

Garaway then asked the witness if the board expected to establish stabilization corporations.

"We hope to in time," Legge said, adding that the board's first effort was to organize a strong commodity body on which to build

Phil Scott Wins From Campolo In New York Scrap

By Alan J. Gould
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, Sept. 24 (AP)—The shuffling shifty figure of Phil Scott, British champion, today occupied the heavy-weight contender's position that most of the experts had reserved for the galloping Gaucha from the Argentine, Victoria Marco Campolo.

Scott won the ten-round decision from Campolo last night at Ebbetts Field and, as a result, must be reckoned with in the heavy-weight derby, regardless of the outcome of the 15-round elimination match Thursday night between Jack Sharkey and Tommy Laughlin at the Yankee stadium.

It was a great come-back for Scott, who was knocked out in one round at Madison Square Garden in 1927 by Knute Hansen, floored for the count by Paulino in Europe and close to being knocked out again in the first round by Campolo last evening.

Scott's margin was so close that it took a 2 to 1 decision to give him the victory. He received the vote of the two judges but Referee Arthur Donovan cast his ballot for Campolo.

FORWARD RESOLUTIONS

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 24 (AP)—Two resolutions, one asking the interstate commerce commission for lower freight rates on export wheat from the Pacific northwest and another approving a wheat growers' co-operative marketing association were in the mails today on route to Washington after adoption by the Oregon Co-operative council, composed of representatives of 1 co-operative organizations in the state.

its stabilization efforts. He said this was already under way for wheat.

The senate committee then was told by Legge that no effort had yet been made by the board to set up advisory councils for wheat so that the stabilization of that commodity could be initiated. He added that the machinery under the farm act did not permit stabilization to be accomplished faster than is now being attempted.

The chairman explained that of four were now under way to prepare the grain industry for stabilization but that this can be put into practice only by request of the commodity itself.

Pressed by Senator Wheeler, democrat, Montana, for an explanation as to why a more aggressive effort had not been made to handle this year's wheat situation, Chairman Legge said:

"Senator, you spent eight years up here getting a farm bill. For heavens sake give us a little chance. We've had only two months, we've got to do the best we can."

The Twentieth Century MOLOCH

Moloch was a fire god. Ages ago parents cast their children into his lap—hoping thus to gain the favor of this deity.

Inhuman! Ghastly! But no more so than today's mad sacrifice to fire—that carries not even the hope of reward the pagans had. About half a billion dollars a year direct loss; a yearly toll of more than 10,000 lives to make the record gruesome. The Presidential proclamation preceding is sufficient evidence of the seriousness of the country's avoidable fire waste.

The solution to this problem is a community matter. More than six hundred cities and towns have committees on fire prevention and control. These function effectively all year.

Stimulated by the President's proclamation, thousands of communities, through civic bodies, business organizations, schools and other means, observe Fire Prevention Week.

In support of such movements the Stock Fire Insurance companies, through the National Board of Fire Underwriters and affiliated organizations, have long maintained staffs of engineers and experts in fire prevention. These facilities are offered free to any community, that the spirit of Fire Prevention Week may be further promoted year by year.

Public co-operation with the Stock Fire Insurance companies has already effected a reduction in the annual fire waste, and continuous reductions in the cost of fire insurance for practically twenty years.

The House Detective

The younger brother is just naturally an inquisitive individual. He wants to get all the facts about a case—and he goes about it in a systematic manner.

Think what a whale of an insurance buyer he'll be! He won't spend his insurance money sight unseen when he's got some property to protect.

But you'd be surprised how many men do just that—buy fire insurance without knowing one thing about the company behind the policy—their resources, their service record—anything!

It pays to investigate—read the Underwriters' advertisement next to this—analyze your insurance. Then you'll want our service.
