OFFICE CAT

Some gowns have those sterilizing effects but you can't feel a week chat.

The modern girl does the things her grandmother was dying to do, but didn't dare.

THE LIMIT

What is your son taking at college?

Even the most modern woman doesn't object to using an iron on the golf course.

Traveling man to the conductor: "Is this a fast train?"

Conductor, with an injured air: "Of course it is."

Traveling man: "I thought so. Would you mind finding out what it is fast to?"

An old timer is one who can remember when, if a girl watered her garden, the garden hose was the only kind that could be seen.

Bees' Short Lives

Queen bees live from four to six years, the workers about six weeks.

OUT OUR WAY

RECREATION.

By Williams

Abe Martin

OPENS SEPT. 1ST

Some one has walked off with Andy Moon's wife after her talkin' so big about never fallin' in love with another man unless he owned a car. "Firstest back" contests are the latest thing, an' if his beauty business don't stop right where it is it's bound to go too far.

Self-Help

It's right to trust in God; but, if you don't stand to your faith, your faith'll miss stays and your faith'll be blown out of the belt ropes in the turn of a marlin spike.

Whiskered, Indeed

It was written in Greek poetry 2,000 years ago that when the swal lows fly low it will rain. Farmers throughout New England say the same today.

HARVESTING OF APPLES UNDER WAY AT IMBLER

By Mrs. C. M. Hale (Observer Correspondent)

IMBLER, Ore. (Special)—Work in the apples began here this week when the growers began picking and packing the Hanna apples.

Some of the apples that are now being packed will go to the market in Norway.

La Verne Thompson is reported to be recovering quite satisfactorily from the injuries which he received when a log rolled on him.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Billings and family are visiting in Udon with relatives. A part of the time will be spent with Mr. Billings' mother, who for so many years made her home in Imbler.

Ray West has lately moved his family into town and is occupying the Jesse Berry home. Dorothy has entered school here.

Mrs. Frank Martin and son, Austin, Mrs. Edna Conklin and Mrs. Flora L. Barrie motored to Baker Thursday. Mrs. Barrie, who makes her home in La Grande, is now visiting at the Martin home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Welch motored to Union on business Friday. Dr. C. S. Moore addressed the P. T. A. meeting at the Wade hall Thursday evening on the prevention of diphtheria. The nature of the remainder of the program was musical. Howard Wilson and Adeline Zwickel gave some piano solos.

Happy Thought

If men would only take the chances of doing right because it is right, instead of the immediate certainty of the advantage of doing wrong, how much happier would their lives be.—R. H. Hayden.

Horse Measurement

A "hand" is a unit of measure supposed to be equal to the breadth of a grown person's hand. As a rule, three hands make a foot, the hand, when officially adopted as a unit of measure of a horse, being four inches.

Only One Kind

Rightness expresses of actions what straightness does of lines; and there can no more be two kinds of right action than there can be two kinds of straight lines.—Herbert Spencer.

THIS SKETCH suggests a new way of handling the fur collar. This Eton collar with erasable tie is youthful and particularly effective in broadtail.

AT THE THEATERS

Dane-Arthur Comedy Team In Colonial Picture

Life is just one laugh after another to Karl Dane and George K. Arthur, co-stars in "China Bound," their new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer feature which is now playing at the Colonial Theater.

"China Bound" is the first of the Dane-Arthur comedies that doesn't present them as enemies and rivals in love.

The story is an original for the screen, written by Sylvia Thalhara and Frank Butler.

"Thunderbolt" At Arcade Is All Talking Film

Front pages of the daily newspapers provide endless stories for motion pictures according to Charles Furtmann, Hollywood author and adapter of many screen plays.

"Thunderbolt," starring George Bancroft, which will show at the Arcade theater starting Tuesday for three days, starts a series of these front page events into a gripping dramatic story of the underworld of New York's Harlem.

One of the biggest motion picture successes of 1929, Furtmann says, "was first written on the pages of Chicago newspapers. The plot of 'Thunderbolt' written by Jules Furtmann and myself, had a similar origin. A newspaper story of an adventuresome who posed

Inherent Ambition

Every child born in Oloof-Ammer-gan is bred up in the tradition of the Passion play. From the time that it begins to speak it looks forward to the time when it shall be one of the 500 or 600 chosen to perform.

Famous Scottish Cave

Fingal's cave is situated on the west of Staffa, one of the Inner Hebrides, off the coast of Scotland. It is not a particularly large cave, but is noted for the beauty of its natural architecture and attracts many tourists.
