Nathan has a home and 19 acres of land near Modesto and works in a chemical factory there. He lived here for several years when a boy and young man and this was his first visit here for nine years.

Mr. Potter and Harold Carper spent Tuesday hunting near the river for Mr. Potter's cattle.

Two Shot During Liquor Quarrel In Wallowa Co.

Because of lack of dormitories, girls houses of normal school students in La Grande are organizing, so that the school will be more unified, and better acquainted. Several of the houses have elected officers, and others will in the near future. These organizations are expected to establish higher standards of scholarship and social life.

House presidents will meet periodically in the form of a council, and in such a way be brought in closer contact with the school.

The girls in Mrs. Mary Blanchard's home on 1204 N. avenue have elected Eitel Swift, of Athena, as president; Mary Young, of Echo, vice president, and Elsa Boque, of North Powder, as secretary.

At the home of Mrs. Daisy Knotts, at 701 N. avenue, Helen Knotts, of Pilot Rock, was elected president; Miss Hazel Lemons, of Mt. Vernon, vice president; and Arlene Byrd, of Pilot Rock, secretary.

Marvel Akers from Eightmile has been chosen as president of the organization at Mrs. W. H. Russell's home on 1705 Cedar street. Gertrude Johnson, of Hood River, and Esther Wittly, of Elgin, are vice president and secretary, respectively.

Lucy Williams, of Heppner, president; Helen Gilkison, Haines, vice president; Irma Taylor, Haines, secretary, are the house officers at 707 Fourth street, the home of Mrs. Ira Aldrich.

Girls at Mrs. E. P. Mossman's home on 1104 Spring street, selected Bethmyr Miller, of Boardman, for their president; Jean Raeburn, of Weston, vice president; Irene Pottratz, of Spokane, as secretary.

Houses where there are less than four girls will form in groups and have inter-house organizations. It is expected that there will be about twelve groups.

was killing of the guards. The warden refused the demand. Subsequent demands were also refused. Meaningless, bodies of guards were thrown from the cell house where the five men and their captives were barricaded. After four guards had been so slain, and the warden was still firm his refusal to give the men transportation and freedom, Daniels realized he had spilled all that blood in vain. "We will never hang," he said several times.

Daniels kills Others, Suicides
Pardue, wounded by a guard in the first skirmish at noon, a few hours later was shot through the stomach by Daniels to "put him out of his misery." Early Friday morning, Daniels shot and killed his three captives. He told one of the three remaining guards to notify authorities they were giving up. The guard doubted, but later crept to the cell where the men were. He struck a match and saw he was in a tomb—Daniels had ended his own life and lay dead among the others.

The guard, O. A. Earl notified the authorities and other convicts who were crowded in the cellhouse with the five mutineers, fled out, unresisting, hands high in the air. The mutiny was over.

FEW HUNTERS BAG ANIMALS NEAR IMBLER

By Mrs. C. M. Hale (Observer Correspondent)
IMBLER, Ore. (Special)—Many hunters have been in the hills the last week and a few have been successful in getting game. Ross Ferry brought home a deer and Bob Keeman a bear.

Mrs. Ella Welch spent last Wednesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Standley. Mrs. Lizzie McAdister, of North Powder, also a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Standley, spent the day with them.

J. E. Woods, who has been visiting for the last two months near Lostine at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Elmer, returned to Imbler Tuesday. He says that the hail storm which went through that section earlier in the season thrashed out at least half of the grain in some places. Mr. Elmer's grain was damaged heavily by the storm.

Mrs. William Truckman was hostess to several guests last Sunday when she entertained at her home south of town in honor of her husband's birthday.

C. M. Hale's car was damaged quite badly last Saturday when another car ran into his near Island City, while he was returning from La Grande.

The Ladies Aid society met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Cleaver with 18 members present. The report of the time was taken up planning for the bazaar which will be held October 20.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Richards, of La Grande, were calling in Imbler last Sunday evening. They had spent the day visiting on Cricket Flat.

P. E. O. Meets At Kiddle Home For Enjoyable Session

Mrs. Ed Kiddle and Mrs. E. J. Blockland were hostesses last night at Mrs. Kiddle's home to the members of Chapter 1 of P. E. O. at a delightful evening featuring a program.

An interesting book review of the drama, "Strange Interlude," by Eugene O'Neill was given by Mrs. F. R. Appleby. Following this dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses to the large attendance of members present. Bouquets of fall flowers were attractively arranged about the home.

Out-of-town guests were Miss Pauline Hood and Miss Helen Hall, both of Union, and Mrs. Hall K. Wallis, of Enterprise. Mrs. Wallis is a guest at the home of Mrs. Kiddle.

A brief business session was held at the home of Mrs. George S. Birnie in the afternoon, Mrs. Birnie presiding.

Church Members Greet Students

Members of the Presbyterian church were hosts yesterday evening at a charming reception to the students of the normal school at the church.

Guests were received in the community room, where several welcomes were given by church members, and a musical program presented. Lee Reynolds, Dr. J. L. Ingle, and the Rev. J. George Walz spoke to the students, the themes of their speeches being a greeting to the newcomers.

A pleasing organ selection by Miss Gladys Miller was followed by an entertaining vocal duet by Misses Grace Giebel and Myrtle Wilcock. Harvey Hanscomb concluded the program with two well-received organ numbers.

The group spent a jolly time playing games in the basement, where the school idea was part of the plan. E. E. Hurley was in charge of the games. The church members and the students grouped against each other in one contest.

Dainty refreshments were served in the community room, by members of the refreshment committee.

Lucky Dozen Club Entertained Friday

A pleasant afternoon was spent Friday when the members of the Lucky Dozen club met at the home of Mrs. Ralph Trill on Adams avenue. The club welcomed Mrs. D. G. French who has had an extended illness.

The afternoon was spent sewing and in pleasant social hours. Several delightful vocal selections by Miss Bethel Trill entertained the club.

Bouquets of asters and fall flowers were attractively arranged about the home.

The hostess assisted by her daughter, Miss Bethel Trill served delicious refreshments to their guests.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Ernest Neal on Second street, Friday, October 15.

"Shake-down" Held At M. E. Church

Two hundred and twenty-five people attended the annual "Shake-down" last evening held in the social hall of the First Methodist Episcopal, as the opening act of the series of church nights which the people of this denomination held during the year. Special guests last evening were the students at the Eastern Oregon Normal school who had given the Methodist as the church of the local school system who are also identified here. Throughout the entire evening, the reputation for cleverness and originality in programs was sustained, the committee, Miss Mabel Doty, Miss Helen Williams and Miss Minna Cooper having worked out a full evening, staged after the newcomers in our city had been introduced to prominent business enterprises, and had carefully perused the La Grande business directory. After the opening "shake-down," a stunt was put on by the club, one by the Epworth League, the inverted quartet sang, Mrs. Will Adler and Miss Bertha Waldinger gave the balcony scene from Romeo and Juliet, the Epworth League Snowballs—Ruth Margaret and William Hall, appeared in a clever

Students Guests At Reception

Many of the students of the Normal school called last night at the home of Mrs. R. E. Westenhaver when an informal reception was given in their honor by the members of the Episcopal church. This is one of several affairs given by the churches last evening honoring the new students to La Grande.

Dainty refreshments were served in rooms decorated with bouquets of pink and lavender asters.

Those who served on the reception committee are: Mrs. R. H. N. Ashby, Mrs. George T. Cochran, Mrs. George Gray, Mrs. Dwight Jesse, Mrs. H. A. Zurbick, Mrs. George Birnie, Mrs. H. H. Anderson, Mrs. Charles Dochni, Mrs. Oscar Warnock, Miss Helen Moor, and Mrs. Warren Gilbert.

Announcements

The Degree of Honor society will hold a special meeting Tuesday at 8 o'clock in the Eagles hall. Mrs. Lois A. Getser will be present.

The Good Times Dancing club will resume its series of pleasant evenings Tuesday evening, October 8, in the ball room of the La Grande hotel. The committee in charge for the first dance is: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spueh; Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Reynolds; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gable, and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Heasler.

The La Grande City Council of the Parent-Teacher association will meet Monday afternoon at 2:45 in the Central school building. The membership committee urges that all delegates be present so the membership list may be completed at this meeting.

The Neighborhood literature club will meet in the La Grande public library at 7:20 Monday evening, October 7, and not Wednesday as previously announced. This date was changed at the meeting of the club last Wednesday night.

There's a Pair of Us

There's a pair of us that will probably agree that this Mr. Henpeck was about half right; after he had been married about a year and the matrimonial bark had not sailed smoothly, he asked the clerk who had issued the license whether it was a marriage license or a dog license, because he had led a dog's life ever since. If you want to be certain to enjoy life, it is firstly necessary to abolish wash day. Every housewife shuns that day because of its worrying and tiring duties. Our rough dry service makes washday a holiday for you now. All fine work treated, bath towels fluffed, underwear ready to wear—balance starched if necessary and dried.
