Charming Dinner Complimentary To Mr. and Mrs. Loney

At a charming dinner Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Loney, the Rev. and Mrs. M. G. Tompkins were host and hostess in their home.

The table was attractively centered with tall pink tapers and a bouquet of pink asters. The diversion of the evening following dinner was bridge.

Benefit Tea Held At Sacajawea Inn

A delightful benefit tea occurred Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the Classroom Teachers association in the tea room of the Sacajawea Inn, with Miss Iona H. Harriman, hostess for the afternoon. Visitors called from 2:30 to 5 o'clock.

Striking color scheme featuring autumn was presented in orange marigolds standing in a black bowl, and orange candles held in black on the tea table.

Those serving during the afternoon were: Mrs. Herbert Evans, Mrs. E. A. Wilkerson, Mrs. Evelyn Bennett, Mrs. Stella Ingbe, Miss Blanche L. Spores and Mrs. Elsworth (Gable). Ladies to whom the wished their fortunes were served by Miss Ruth Garrick, with Mrs. Beatrice Young disclosing the mysteries in the cup.

Clever musical numbers and readings formed an interesting program. Marion Chausse's and Donette Brace's clown dance was entertaining. Another one of Miss Helen Willard's ever popular selections was "Polonaise."

Miss Wilma Hansell gave a clever reading, "Powder the Nose." Misses Effie Blanchard and Jennie Nilsen accompanied by Mrs. Ross Anderson played "Love and Flowers," by one of their pleasing violin duets. They responded with an encore.

This is an annual tea given by this organization.

Bible Class Will Resume Meetings

The Community Womens Bible class is reopening for the winter. This organization is entering its sixteenth year here and has for its objects the study of the deeper spiritual sense of the Bible.

This class does not take the place of any of the church Bible classes but only supplements them. In the past it has brought together promoting a spirit of spiritual neighborliness. It is interdenominational and the only club of its kind in the city. Concentrated study and memorizing of short passages of scripture is a part of the work. After the study hour, some recent book conspicuous in religious literature is read and discussed. It meets twice a month on Tuesday and is under the direction of Mrs. Harriet MacDonald.

All women, whether a member of a church or not, are invited by the officers to attend the class meetings.

The opening session will be held at the La Grande hotel, Tuesday at 2:15 o'clock, according to Mrs. MacDonald.

Creston Corps Is Guest at Luncheon

The Creston Relief corps No. 22 was the guest of the Oliver P. Morton Relief Corps No. 37 at the regular monthly luncheon here Saturday noon.

The singing of "America" was the opening feature of the program. An entertaining reading by Mrs. Lyle Hill, of Elgin, was presented. A delightful vocal solo was rendered by Miss Bethel Teitel. J. W. Oliver gave an interesting address to the assemblage.

An interesting vocal duet was presented by Mary Elizabeth Cooper and Alice Jeanette Cooper.

The ritualistic work following luncheon was presided over by the president, Mrs. Laura Braden.

At a quiet wedding ceremony the marriage of Miss Pauline Ware to C. C. Parker was solemnized last week at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Guy Smith by the Rev. R. L. Putnam.

Miss Peggy Dal was the maid of honor, and Beatrice Smith attended the bridegroom.

Following the services dainty refreshments were served. Only near relatives attended the nuptials.

Village Destroyed By Violent Storm

LISBON, Portugal, Oct. 7 (AP)—Large tracts of land were under water and thousands of olive groves ruined in central Portugal today after a violent storm passed through that section during the weekend.

The village of Hiteira was destroyed.

Many villages were isolated and no trains were running.

RELIGION BASED ON SPIRITUAL THINGS SURVIVES

Disappointment to the one who had failed to produce the harvest. So within the human soul reside possibilities of eternal life and development, but without the vitalizing power of the Holy Spirit the soul will remain undeveloped, dead, unfitted for God's use in His eternal plan, he said. There is an opportune time for the grain and

New Bridge Club Is Organized Here

One of the new bridge clubs forming this winter, was the "Bid'em and Lose'em," a club of two tables recently organized, which held its first meeting at the home of Miss Elleen Morelock.

The members will meet every two weeks on Friday evenings, and the next meeting is planned at Miss Myrtle Hoyt's home on Main avenue.

Bridge is becoming more popular each year and more clubs are forming with the younger set becoming interested.

chadrezar's dream as recorded in the book of Daniel as the conception from a monarch's view point, of government—the head of gold, absolute despotism; the silver, limited monarchy; the brass, dictatorship held in check by a democratic army; iron and clay, the mixture of monarchy and democracy; these exemplified in the Babylonian, Medo-Persian, Grecian, and Roman world powers. The prophet, in the seventh chapter of Daniel, saw these powers from God's viewpoint as ferocious beasts: a lion, a bear, a leopard, and a nondescript beast, all devouring, crushing, destroying,—man utterly failing in governing himself and his fellows. He briefly reviewed the various tests to which man had been subjected by his Creator, and showed that he had failed in all to come up to the standard which God required of him. There was no place before God but humility, penitence, and acceptance of grace by faith in the work done by another, the Son of God, Mr. Godwin said.

Big Sunday School Attendance

Following upon the successful rally Sunday, September 29, the Presbyterian Sunday school set a splendid pace yesterday for large attendance during the year. Teachers and officers were on time to welcome those who came, the classes were placed for the year's work and all gave assurance of a growing school.

The pastor, J. George Walk, at the morning service, led the thought of the large congregation to "The Man Discovered." Beginning with the finding of Saul, the apostle, by Barnabas and what this discovery has meant to the Christian church and world, he said, "I wonder if there are not some men and women who are just waiting to be discovered in our church, in our neighborhood, in our home perhaps. May it not be possible that some great man may be discovered among our Sunday school boys? All about us are young men and women with unimagined powers, and gifts that do not now even suspect, waiting to be discovered. What a blessing to the world they might be."

He also said that "the church has discovered the really great Man—the Man Christ Jesus, a discovery that has brought unmeasurable blessing to humanity." And as the minister led up to the Holy Communion, he said, "The discovery of the Christ has been honored, monuments have been erected, but He himself has established a memorial that none can belittle, depreciate, criticize. When He said 'This do in remembrance of Me' he set up a memorial that shall last for all time."

The music by the organist, the quartet and the solo by Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp Jr., were all much appreciated. Mrs. Ashby played the evening service to the satisfaction of the entire congregation.

In his announcements, Mr. Walk called attention to the chamber music concert to be given in the La Grande hotel ballroom Wednesday evening, stating that tickets are on sale at Glass Drugs.

M. E. Church Still Continues
Large attendance still continues at the M. E. Church South, with an increase of seven in the Sunday school yesterday and four more in the Epworth league. Miss Hazel Wendt lead in the league's devotional and study meeting. W. A. Eham, superintendent of the Sunday school, announced several propositions.

Announcements

The So-Ne-He club will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Snydman, 2911 Oak street.

W. B. A. will meet tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Odd Fellows hall. There will be initiation and entertainment. Mrs. Adelaide Packard, of Pendleton, will be here to prepare for the anniversary meeting that will be an event of the next meeting. All guards are requested to be present. Mrs. Ida Charbon, in charge, will host in La Grande from Kameka to arrange for the team.

The Neighborhood Literature club will meet tonight in the children's room of the La Grande public library at 7:30. Miss Mahel Doty will give a review of one of Madame Schurman Heink's books.

The Greenwood Parent-Teacher association will hold a night meeting Wednesday Oct. 9, at 7:30 in the L. D. S. hall on North Fir near Y avenue to honor and welcome the new members of the association. This is held in the evening so that fathers and mothers who work during the day may attend.

The Y. W. E. A. will hold its second fall meeting tomorrow evening in the M. E. church with Mrs. R. P. Tyler in charge and her Camp Fire group presenting the program.

Young business women of La Grande who have not attended these meetings before are especially welcome.

motions among the classes, with the appointment of Mrs. Webber as superintendent of the Beginner's department. Albert Hopkins takes the place of teacher in the class of boys, Mrs. Webber formerly taught.

"The Holy Ghost" was the subject of the fourth discourse in a series of sermons on "The God of the Bible" by the pastor, the Rev. Frank Hopkins, during the morning service. The sermon time was shorter than usual, and he announced that he would present the same subject later.

"The House on the Rock, and on the Sand" was the subject in the evening. "Many clergymen, as well as laymen, shall stand condemned in the judgment, according to the words of Christ in this scripture," he declared. "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity," he declared.

That both ministers and laymen were included in this scripture, "the many wonderful works, and even the casting out of devils, may be the works of laymen as well as the clergy, but laymen do not 'prophesy' in the sense of this text," the pastor said. "To be a Christian means more than mere church membership or even orders in the Christian ministry. We must be 'doers of the word' as well as hearers."

The M. E. Church South will begin its revival meetings next Sunday morning, and these meetings may continue two weeks. The pastor will do the preaching.

Many other church services yesterday were of especial interest, and the attendance was generally large. At the Central Church of Christ the Sunday school enrollment was very encouraging.

Interest in the church today is centered in the conference being held at the First M. E. church.

Tomorrow at 10 o'clock the La Grande Ministerial association will meet in the Presbyterian church. The Rev. H. I. Hansen will review Bruce Barton's book, "The Man Nobody Knows."

At the English Lutheran church Sunday morning, several were received into membership. The pastor, the Rev. Leif H. Axen, spoke about "The Christian as Interpreter of the Forging Spirit in God."

MINOT, N. D. (AP)—Experts estimate that 516,000,000 tons of coal, enough to last the United States 10 centuries, lie under North Dakota's rolling wheat fields and ranch land.

Electric generating plants, built at the mines, are converting the fuel into power for transmission over high voltage lines to industrial plants in North Dakota and neighboring states.

The start was made by Elmer Trux at Columbus, in the northwest part of the state. He found the strip mining so profitable that he opened another mine at Velva. Eastern investors were attracted and amalgamated his holdings. Now power companies are rapidly buying up the choice properties. Estimated cost of the lignite for plants at the mines is 90 cents a ton. With rapid extension of power lines business men see an industrial era looming for the farm country.

PILOTS TEACH BOYS, 12, HOW TO GUIDE PLANES

WACO, Tex., (AP)—At an age when most youngsters envy firemen and policemen two 12-year-old Waco youths already have begun flying aerobics. Each has nearly an hour of flying time to his credit.

G. Godwin and Woodrow Eason spent their spare time at Waco's airport. When visiting pilots alight, one of the boys frequently climbs in, "gives her the gun," and taxis the ship to a gas pump for services.

Both boys have ridden planes since they were eight. Pilots say they will be ready for license long before reaching the required age of 17.

MENUS

By Sister Mary

Desert, usually means much to children. If other foods are properly eaten, there is no reason why the sweet should be denied. Much food value can be found in a simple pudding. An easily digested pudding that is suitable for children cannot be harmful for adults and should not be distasteful to them.

The pudding should be planned to be a definite part of the menu and not merely an addition to it. Mild puddings of agreeable texture can be made in varied forms to be acceptable to almost everyone. Eggs, cornstarch, rice, tapioca, bread crumbs and gelatine can be used with milk singly or in combinations. These puddings offer much nourishment for growing bodies.

Long Cooking Necessary
Whenever corn starch or tapioca are used, long cooking is imperative. This means that they must be pre-cooked before combining with eggs, for all egg dishes must be cooked at a low temperature.

Gelatine is good combined with fruit juices or milk. There is a rice pudding stiffened with gelatine that is unusually inexpensive and good. No eggs are used in the recipe. This gives a pudding of excellent food value when eggs are high.

Rich steamed puddings should never be given to children. They are difficult to digest and have no place in a child's diet.

Stewed fruits sweetened with just enough sugar to bring out the natural flavor of the fruit make desirable accompaniments for plain puddings.

Whipped cream, slightly sweetened, glorifies any plain pudding and is easy to digest.

Use Bavarian Cream
Three tablespoons rice, 1 cup milk, 1 tablespoon granulated gelatine, 4 tablespoons cold water, 1-2 cup sugar, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1-2 cup whipping cream.

Cook rice in milk in double boiler until milk is absorbed. Soak gelatine in cold water for five minutes and add to rice. Add sugar and salt and heat over hot water for one minute. Cool and add vanilla. When cold, fold in cream whipped until firm. Turn into a mold and let stand on ice several hours to chill and become firm. Unmold and serve with stewed and chilled fruit.

WHAT'S A FRIEND GOOD FOR ANYHOW?

Someone said once that a friend is one who knows all your faults and is still your friend. We think too, that a friend is someone who likes you well enough and is interested in you enough to hear all your troubles and joys and help you or congratulate you as the case may require.

When you have financial success no one is more pleased to hear about it than your banker. When you have financial difficulty, no one is more eager to give friendly counsel and aid than your banker. He's your financial friend. If you cannot go to him with money difficulties or success and immediately secure his friendly attention and interest, something must be wrong with him—or possibly, with you.

He's not only glad but anxious to be your financial counsellor. It's his reason for being—it's what he's good for, if he's good for anything.

Give your banker a chance to be a valuable friend of yours. He may not always be able to lend you all of the money you want all the time, but he'll be able to tell you in good business reasons why, for your benefit as well as the bank's, he thinks it shouldn't be done. And he'll always be able to give you the benefit of long financial experience, of business counsel that should prove very much worthwhile. He is truly anxious to help you realize your financial ambitions in a way that will be safe, honorable, and enduring.
