Junior Bridge Club Opens Fall Season Yesterday

At a delightful party the members of the Junior Bridge club held their first fall meeting last weekend at the home of Mrs. Leo Miller on Oak street.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Andrew Loney for highest tally, and to Mrs. Hill Templeton, as consolation. A guest prize was presented to Mrs. Stanley Hill. Four tables were at play.

Clusters of fall flowers added gay colors to the home. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be Friday, October 18 at the home of Mrs. William Heughan.

Officials Visit Here Wednesday

Two prominent organizations of La Grande are to be honored tomorrow by official visitors and each has arranged a program of unusual importance. Probably the most pretentious of the two affairs will be that of Hope Chapter No. 13, Order of The Eastern Star who honors Mrs. Carrie Jackson, of Baker, associate grand matron who comes as deputy for the worthy grand matron of the grand chapter of Oregon. Mrs. Jackson will conduct a school of instruction in the afternoon at two o'clock at the Masonic hall. At six-thirty o'clock a banquet will be served at the La Grande hotel to which members of the order have been invited. The regular meeting will be held at the hall at eight o'clock at which Mrs. Jackson will also be honored as special guest.

Tomorrow, also, the Grande Ronde chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will have as their guest the state regent, Mrs. E. C. Apperson of McMinnville, who is making her annual visit to this chapter. Mrs. Apperson will be honor guest at a luncheon to be served at one o'clock at the La Grande hotel, and to this all daughters are invited. Following the luncheon the group will go to the home of Mrs. Robert S. Eakin, 1812 Walnut street at 2:30 o'clock for the meeting to be addressed by the distinguished visitor.

Literature Club In Second Meeting

The Neighborhood Literature club held its second meeting last night with an interesting book review of an interview with Madame Schumann Heink written by Mary Lawton. Miss Mabel Doty told a very interesting account of this gifted singer's life from a childhood in poverty to a successful operatic career, with many amusing incidents along the way.

Before the principal review, members were called upon to tell of a book they had read and liked. Mrs. E. E. Hurley took charge of the session.

Next Monday evening the club will meet at the home of Mrs. H. H. Cleaver on O avenue.

Mossman House Girls Entertain

Among the recent social affairs given by the Eastern Oregon Normal girls at the Mossman house was the dinner at which Miss Bethmyrl Miller and Miss Jean Raeburn were the hostesses. The group numbering about 16 was seated at six o'clock at a prettily appointed table and a lovely dinner served. After dinner the girls of the house gave a short program of music and readings. Special guests were Miss Helen Moor, Miss Amanda Zabel and Miss Mabel Morton.

Wakelita Bridge Club Entertained

The Wakelita Bridge club spent an enjoyable afternoon with Mrs. W. E. McClure in her country home.

Three tables were at play with Mrs. A. E. Hug winning high score. Mrs. James Oneal was presented with an award for second honors.

During the afternoon a delicious luncheon was served.

P.-T. City Council In Business Meet

An interesting talk, committee reports and a motion that the P.-T. A. regional conference of the eastern section of the state meet in La Grande in the fall of 1930 featured the meeting of the La Grande City Council of Parent-Teacher association in the Central school building.

The Rev. Lief H. Awes of the Lutheran church gave the invocation. Dr. Clarence Gilstrap spoke about the prevention of several diseases, diphtheria, small pox, scarlet fever, and gave some information concerning infantile paralysis.

It was announced that Mrs. E. D. Towler, as president of the La Grande city council, had received her delegate credentials to the state convention at Grants Pass. Mrs. C. F. McPherson, district vice president of Baker, Union and Wallowa counties has also received her credentials.

Mrs. L. Faus, public welfare chairman, reported what the committee had accomplished this summer and fall. She explained ways in which members of the organization could cooperate with city officials in law enforcement.

Mrs. J. K. Charlton, chairman of the county library committee of the La Grande city council told of the meeting of her committee last week, when the county council committee, of which Mrs. T. W. Bates of Willow school is chairman, was invited to attend.

A large attendance met at the La Grande public library and another meeting has been called for this week when the committees hope to complete the plans for regaining the county library.

An information desk to be established in the hall of the normal school during the teachers institute, Thursday and Friday, is sponsored by the La Grande City Council of Parent-Teacher associations and the La Grande Classroom Teacher's department of the N. E. A. Its purpose will be to provide information desired by the visiting teachers, from Wallowa, Baker and other sections of Union county.

Miss Blank And Mr. Puckett Wed

At a quiet but impressive ring ceremony the nuptial services for Miss Stella Blank and Dean Puckett, of Cove, were performed in the Baptist parsonage Saturday evening by the Rev. B. Marcus Godwin.

Accompanying the bride and bridegroom were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Puckett, of La Grande, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

Their friends will find them at home at 2761 First street.

Shower In Honor Of Mrs. Townsend

A charming shower was given in honor of Mrs. Guy Townsend, (Iva Hug) yesterday evening at the home of Mrs. Elton Barron on Thirteenth street. The recent bride received many beautiful presents from her fellow employes in the local telephone office.

The evening was spent in jolly social hours, and playing games. Lovely bouquets of Indian summer asters were arranged about the home. The hostess served a delicious buffet luncheon to the guests.

Announcements

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church will meet at the home of Mrs. E. B. Kendrick, 1802 Cove avenue Wednesday, at 2 o'clock.

LOW FARES TO P. I. SHOW

The Pacific International Livestock Exposition will be held in Portland for the nineteenth year, October 26 to November 2 inclusive. This great show which stamps the northwest as a progressive leader in the livestock world will be the occasion of special low fares on the Union Pacific to Portland and return.

A round trip rate of fare and one-third will be put in effect by the Union Pacific from all points on the O. S. L. unit in Utah, Nevada, Idaho, Wyoming, Montana and Oregon to Portland and return likewise from all points on the O.-W. R. R. & N. unit in Oregon, Washington and Western Idaho. The special fare will be available on the O.-W. R. R. & N. lines from October 24 to November 2 inclusive.

It is reported Colonel Lindbergh plans to buy Anne a sport model monoplane. That would be a big saving on fenders, anyway.

Wheat Higher At Opening Of Trade

CHICAGO, Oct. 8 (AP)— With export demand for North American wheat apparently increasing, and with pressure of wheat from Argentina reported diminishing, wheat prices here averaged higher today. Upturns in quotations were in the face of assertions that stocks of wheat were mounting abroad. Opening unchanged to ¾ higher, Chicago wheat reacted a little, and then scored gains all around. Corn, oats and provisions were easy, with corn starting ⅜ off to ⅛ up and later holding near the initial range.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 8 (AP) —Police today were endeavoring to locate relatives of Paul Scott, 44, transient, who after tearing the picture of a woman in two, shot himself in the head in a downtown rooming house. Physicians said he probably will die.

TIME AND TIDE
wait for no man!

—which, we suppose, is the old-fashioned way of saying that opportunity knocks but once, or "you never can tell."

Just take the sweet young things pictured above in the moon light, for example. You never can tell but it's possibly they might get married.

If they do, they have to start housekeeping—buy furniture. And maybe they'll get title to a nice little bungalow before long, too.

"Time and Tide wait for no man." And they can't really expect Fire to do any better, can they? Who ever heard of a fire waiting until a man was able to stand the loss or until he had taken out plenty of insurance before it started burning?

We never did either. The time to insure is the minute you've got something to protect. The way to insure is in a safe company. Read the Fire Underwriters ad adjoining this. Then ask Jack Ferris to tell you more about this better class of insurance.
