BANQUET WILL BE EVENING FEATURE

Institute Will Continue Through Friday, With Attendance of 525 Expected.

The joint annual teachers' institute of Baker, Wallowa and Union counties, which will be attended by 525 educators, is to open tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock in the Eastern Oregon Normal school building, sponsored by the superintendents of the schools of the three counties. J. C. Conley, of Wallowa, will be unable to attend, however, because of the death of his father this morning. Mrs. Maybelle H. Romig, of Baker, and E. A. Sayre, of La Grande, will be present.

The program this year includes a large number of well known instructors and speakers, from the University of Oregon, Oregon State college, Cornell university, Whitman university and the Eastern Oregon Normal school as well as from the state, county and city school systems, headed by C. A. Howard, superintendent of public instruction in Oregon.

Features of the two-day institute will include an institute program and banquet tomorrow evening at the La Grande hotel, beginning at 6:30 o'clock. Accommodations have been arranged for 300 and many reservations have already been made.

The program for the opening day of the institute follows:

Thursday Forenoon

Friday Game To Make History Is Belief At L. H. S.

Nampa and La Grande to Clash on Local Gridiron, Rousing Pep Rally is Held.

In anticipation of a football game that La Grande High school expects will go down in local history as one of the "gridiron classics," the student body held a rousing pep assembly in the high school auditorium this morning. Talks were made by Supt. J. T. Longfellow and Coach Ira Woodie, and a demonstration was given on the stage by the linesmen. Enthusiasm reached a high pitch during a series of yells that punctuated the assembly.

In preparation for the game, which will be played here Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock against the strong Nampa high team, Coach Woodie will run his squad through light practices both tonight and tomorrow. Usually scrimmage with the E. O. N. team is held on Wednesday night but it was moved up a day this week, and the maroon and blue shock troops clashed last night. Most of the scrimmage was spent on forward passing, and observers at the field last night predict that Nampa will find the air full of football more than once during the interstate tiff.

Both Teams Heavy

Local fans are expecting a "battle of giants" Friday. Both teams are larger than the average high school squad, and both have an assortment of power plays that will

String Quartet Here Today For Evening Concert

Arriving this morning, the members of the Portland Chamber Music society string quartet were in a round of entertainment today. This evening at 8:15 o'clock they will appear in concert in the La Grande hotel ballroom.

The three men, Hubert Sorenson, Alexander Vdovin and Ferdinand Konrad, were guests at the Rotary club today at noon and Susie Fennell Pipes was entertained at a luncheon during the noon hour, to be followed by a sightseeing trip. A reception for the sponsors of the programs and the artists is to be held tonight following the concert.

It was announced today that the sale of tickets for the concert has already resulted in a surplus of $25, which will be given to the Camp Fire Girls here.

The program for the concert follows:

Mozart ..... Quartet in D Major
Allegretto
Andante
Menuetto
Allegretto
Bridge, Frank ..... An Irish Melody
Glazounow ..... Value from "Five Novellettes"
Dvorak ..... Quartet Op 96 (Negro)
Allegro ma non tropo
Lento
Molto vivace
Finale vivace ma non tropo

While in La Grande, Mrs. Pipes will be the guest of Mrs. A. L. Richardson.

Sentencing Is Postponed When Motion Is Filed

Sentencing of Harold Williams, convicted in circuit court Monday on a statutory charge, has been postponed because of the filing yesterday of a motion for a new trial. Action is to be taken on the motion some time next week, it is reported.

The circuit court jury in the civil case of Hiatt vs. Crossen found for the defendant. Testimony was completed yesterday afternoon and the jury retired at 5 o'clock. The case involved suit over some hay.

The civil case of Zeugg vs. the O.-W. company was started this morning and taking of testimony began about 10 o'clock.

The next case to be tried is that of the state of Oregon vs. Jack Bush, scheduled for tomorrow.

Elks To Initiate Class Tomorrow

With members of the B. P. O. Elks lodges from Baker and Pendleton in attendance, local Elks are preparing for one of the most interesting meetings in several months tomorrow night. At that time a class of candidates will be initiated into the lodge, with the Baker lodge to stage the initiatory work and the Pendleton lodge to stage the second degree work.

About 7 o'clock tomorrow evening the candidates will be paraded through the business section, and local Elks declared that they will also have a "Manchurian" band to perform.

EARNSHAW

BOY WITNESS IN PANTAGES TRIAL

Prosecution Springs Surprise—Tells of Attack on Eunice Pringle.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 9 (AP)—The trial of Alexander Pantages, multimillionaire theater man, on a statutory charge, was thrown into a sensation today by a surprise state witness, Jay Sheridan, who related an alleged attempt of the defendant to produce false testimony.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 9 (AP)—With testimony of three of the prosecution's principal witnesses now in the court records, and the intimation by a member of the district attorney's staff that a "mystery witness" will be called to corroborate the story of Eunice Pringle, 17-year-old co-ed dancer, that she was the victim of an attack by Alexander Pantages, theater magnate, the state today expected further to strengthen its case against the wealthy showman being tried in superior court on a statutory charge.

The most colorful testimony yet presented at the trial came yesterday when Louis Fisher, 16-year-old copy boy for a Los Angeles newspaper, took the stand as a surprise prosecution witness. Fisher told the court that on the afternoon of August 3, the date of the alleged attack, he was in the office of William Jobleman, publicity

COWBOY TENOR SINGS TODAY FOR ROTARIANS

An address by City Manager W. F. Crews featured the Rotary club luncheon today at noon at the La Grande hotel with a large attendance. Mr. Crews went into the finances of the city in his interesting talk and also spoke of the water situation. He explained that the use of water is increasing enormously here, also the fact that the La Grande water tests extremely high in quality.

The club was given a rare treat by the unexpected appearance of Arnold Ilois, the cowboy tenor, formerly on the broadcasting staff of WEAF, New York, National Broadcasting company radio station. He was accompanied at the piano by Mr. Ellsworth, who is accompanying Mr. Rob on a pleasure trip through the northwest. Members of the club heartily applauded the numbers.

Hagen and Smith Not Coming Here

Walter Hagen and Horton Smith two of the leading professional golfers of the world, who are playing in the Pacific northwest late this month, will not be able to appear in La Grande, it was announced today. The two men asked for a guarantee of $500 for a match here and could not accept an offer for less.

Hagen and Smith, who along with many other internationally known stars, are to play in the Oregon open tournament in Portland on Oct. 31, Nov. 1 and 2. On October 19, they will play in Boise and on October 21, in Walla Walla.

TOMMY GARDNER WINS

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 9 (AP)—Knocking his opponent down for a count of nine in the second round with a wicked right cross to the jaw, Tommy Gardner, of Walla Walla, Wash., won a six-round decision over Jacky Caston, of Seattle, here last night. They are bantams.

Recess In Fall Trial Because Of His Illness

Former Cabinet Member to be Examined by Physician Before Case is Resumed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9 (AP)—A recess in the trial of Albert B. Fall until tomorrow was announced today by Justice William Ritz, who said he would have a physician examine Fall before deciding on his course in the case halted by the defendant's illness.

Fall, charged with bribery, was taken ill in the courtroom yesterday and Frank Hogan, his chief counsel, announced this morning that his client was unable to appear.

Dr. Sterling Ruffin, one of the physicians who attended former president Wilson, was named by Justice Hitz to examine the former secretary of the interior. He will confer with Fall's physician, Dr. H. T. Safford, before making the examination.

Fall, charged with accepting a bribe of $100,000 from Edward L. Doheny, oil magnate, in connection with the lease of the Elk Hill, Cal., naval oil reserve lease, appeared in court Monday against the advice of his physician and over the protest of his family. He seemed barely able to get to his seat, and yesterday afternoon was compelled to leave when his temperature went up, his pulse increased and he began coughing blood.

Scout Executive Board Nominees Are Determined

Officers for 1930 of the executive board of Eastern Oregon council, Boy Scouts of America, were nominated last evening at its meeting at Hot Lake. Dr. W. T. Phy was nominated for president. Vice presidents nominated were: Dr. R. F. Murphy, La Grande; N. J. Billings, Wallowa; Victor Ahrens, Baker. Dr. C. L. Blakely, of Baker, was nominated for commissioner and H. E. Coolidge for treasurer.

John Piper, regional scout executive from Spokane, was present at the dinner meeting at which there were places for 17. E. Russell Scott, scout executive, gave a report on the Scout executives conference held at Hayden Lake, Sept. 16 to 22.

Some interesting facts reported from the local office about the Eastern Oregon council are that it is the most intensely organized council in region eleven which includes Oregon, Washington, Idaho and part of Montana. It has more Scouts per 10,000 people than any council in the region, and an attendance of 98 per cent at board meetings which also ranks best. As far as reports are concerned regarding the report to the national and regional office, it again ranks first.

Those present at last night's meeting were: A. F. Kerr, Baker; Frank Hunt Jr., Baker; J. C. Kuhns, Baker; H. E. Coolidge, La Grande; Sherwood Williams, La Grande; A. W. Nelson, La Grande; Geo. S. Birnie, La Grande; W. C. Perkins, La Grande; Dr. Murphy, La Grande; Charles Reynolds, La Grande; F. L. Meyers, La Grande; Chas. Bingher, La Grande; R. V. Copsey, La Grande.

BRITISH AND AMERICANS GRIP HANDS

MacDonald and Hoover Conversations Helps to Remove Friction.

VISIT REGARDED AS SUCCESSFUL

Prime Minister Accepts Honorary Degree From George Washington University.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9 (AP) Secretary Stimson today said the conversations with Prime Minister MacDonald "have been most successful and have met with all our anticipations."

He said as a result both the British and American governments would be greatly benefited by the removal of friction.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9. (AP) Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald said today in accepting the honorary degree of doctor of laws from George Washington university that on ecould never acquire anything in this world without purchasing it by "one's own effort, own will, and own sacrifice."

The degree was conferred and the premier's words uttered in Continental Memorial hall, where seven years ago the five great naval powers of the world signed the first agreement for limitation of naval armaments.

The furtherance of that agreement as well as other steps for world peace is the purpose of the visit of the premier to this nation.

Distinguished Gathering

Today a distinguished gathering assembled in the hall for the ceremony of conferring the degree. It included members of the diplomat-

Union Prune Dryer Destroyed By Fire

By Mrs. L. Z. Terrall
(Observer Correspondent)

UNION, Ore., Oct. 9 (Special)—Last evening at about 8 o'clock the prune dryer owned by Remington on the place commonly known as the Van Scoyk place, was destroyed by fire. This building has been idle for several years but Mrs. Myers had rented the property for drying her prune crop this year, and had expected to start work the last of this week.

The fire had not been started as yet in the dryer and the origin of the blaze is not known. There was insurance on the building.

Rain Is Predicted For Chicago Today

CHICAGO, Oct. 9 (AP)—Rain before night was forecast at 7:59 o'clock this morning by the United States weather bureau.

"The weather is threatening—on the borderline of rain conditions," stated C. A. Donnel, weather forecaster. "There will probably be rain before night with possibly light rain this afternoon, but hard ly enough to cause postponement of the baseball game."

The wind would be southeasterly, he said, with temperature in the low 50's, several degrees cooler than yesterday.

Much Accomplished By Children In E. O. N. Model Elementary School

"I wish I was only six," the interviewer remarked, "so I could go to school again," and most anyone would when they see the fun the little first grade students have in the E. O. N. model elementary school. There they learn, not by memorizing, or listening to someone else talk to them, but by their own experience. They find what they want to do, and the instructor assists them in doing it. Of course behind it all there is direction and organization, but there is such a spirit of freedom about going to school, that yesterday when the noon hour ticked around, none of them wanted to go home, and the teacher had to persuade them to go home to lunch.

The reason that they didn't want to leave, was because they were making a house for Billy and Sally, two dolls that they are caring for. The girls are making clothes for the dollies. The children decide they want to do these things, and the teacher helps them.

In hours of free conversation they make stories to read later. On the wall is their story about some new balls they have. This way they learn to read the words, they use, and the instructor finds new words, gradually leading them into reading.

It's just like the grandmother says, "They never did that when I went to school." They don't sit at stiff unmoveable desks all day long, they have their own little table and chair, that can be moved anywhere. Everyone can take their chairs and group together or they can all sit at their tables and draw pictures.

Organize Club

They have a good citizen's club, to which everyone who is a good citizen can belong.

The third grade was a step higher, but they still had the same movable equipment and learn by experience. They read stories, not in part, but entirely through, for the thought, and then try to answer questions written on the board about the story. Isn't that training for concentration?

In all the grades they construct articles, and develop the things in which the child is interested.

"Thought Reading"

The fourth grade was studying the Arabs and the desert. The children have a reading table, where they go to do "thought" reading to discover subjects written on the board. Posters had been made, about the cycle of life of a butterfly, and a few weeks ago, they studied grass hoppers.

The sixth grade were making

HIS CHANCE

EHMKE

Howard Ehmke waited many long years for "his chance" and he got it yesterday—and pitched the Athletics to a win in the opening game of the world series. But it was a close shave, as Ehmke was nearly released during the regular season. Every team in both Pagues signed waivers, but Connie Mack finally gave him another chance. Today the entire world knows how the 35-year-old veteran with a sore arm made good.

EHMKE N O HERO DURING SEASON

Man Who Won for Athletics Yesterday Nearly Made Trip to Bushes.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9 (AP)—Howard Ehmke, hero of the Mackmen today because of his victory over the Cubs in the opening world series game, was scarcely a hero to his team mates during the regular season when his showing with the A's was only mediocre.

A sore arm that refused to respond to every known treatment kept the veteran on the bench most of the time, and his starting games were few and far between. Even the patient Connie Mack, who has long regarded Ehmke as one of the great pitchers, when his arm is normal, began to realize as the season wore on that the pitcher's days of usefulness to his club were nearing the end. Mack, hoping against hope, waited for the educated arm to mend, then he, too, reached the conclusion that Ehmke was through under the big top.

One morning two months ago as the story was recalled today, Mack sat in his tower in Shibe park, waiting. He had sent for the pitcher whose sore arm was of little use to the pennant-aspiring Athletics.

Ehmke mounted the stairs to the turret slowly, aware, perhaps, of the reason why he had been summoned, and stood beside his chief. Mack looked up from his papers.

On the desk they lay, those 15 tell-tale omens that Ehmke was "going," waived out of the majors, an outcast and discard.

"Howard," said Mack in that kindly, friendly tone he uses in speaking to his men, "I am going to let you go. I am sorry."

The blow struck Ehmke like a bullet. In a voice little more than

FLIERS ALOFT IN TENTH DAY OVER CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Oct. 9 (AP) The endurance plane "Chicago—We Will" soared into its tenth day at 6:52 a. m. today with word from its two mysterious pilots that both plane and pilots were capable of remaining at least 10 more days in the air. At 10:52 o'clock, the plane had been aloft 220 hours and had passed by five and one-half hours the halfway mark of the 421-hour refueling endurance record of the "St. Louis Robin."

Three Killed In Freak Explosion

BREMEN, Germany, Oct. 9 (AP) Three persons were killed and many injured today, and glass in all windows in the vicinity were broken when a kaiser bridge pontoon exploded. It was thrown several hundred feet into the air, falling on the stern of the motor yacht, City of Bremen, and crushing it.

The lunge compartments of the pontoon had been newly painted with a paint producing an explosive gas while drying. It was reported that a man who was among the killed, lit a cigar and accidentally ignited this gas.

A fourth body, that of a 14-year-old boy, was later found in the Weser river.

Police Seeking Four More Cult Members Today

Death Suspected With Authorities in Los Angeles Eager to Learn of Disposal of Bodies.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 9 (AP)—Los Angeles city and county authorities today were endeavoring to discover if four members of a religious cult, "The Divine Order of the Royal Arm of the Great Seal," reported missing, were dead, and if so, what caused their deaths and what disposal had been made of their bodies.

The body of 16-year-old Willa Rhoads, described as a priestess of the sect, was found last Sunday in a casket under the flooring of a house occupied by her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rhoads, cult members. Investigation of the circumstances of her death and burial had not developed that she died of other than natural causes. Chemical analysis of the body had not been completed.

Questioning Followers

Members of a colony maintained by the religious order in the Santa Susanna hills north of here, were being questioned regarding the reported deaths of Frances Turner, Harlene Sartoris, Katherine Bolz and Eddie McGuffin. Investigators said they had evidence to indicate the women were dead, and were bending their efforts to learn in what manner they had died and where they were buried.

Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Sartoris were said by investigators probably to have been buried in Ventura, Cal. Receipt of a death certificate for Mrs. Turner, on file in Sacramento, was being awaited.

Mrs. McGuffin, a 66-year-old widow, was reported to have left the colony three weeks ago. Police said they had found no trace of her alive. Mrs. Bolz apparently had left no record since 1927.

Head of Cult in Jail

Mrs. Otis Blackburn, head of the cult, her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Angeline Weiland-Rizzio, and Mr. and Mrs. Rhoads were held in the Los Angeles county jail pending completion of the investigation of the reported deaths, the burial of

No Drinks, No Flag Up on New Trade Building

CHICAGO, Oct. 9 (AP)—The reason no American flag flattered from the steel skeleton of the Board of Trade building today was the 18th amendment to the constitution.

The flag was to have been hoisted yesterday, marking the place of the last beams in the structure. Henry A. Rumsey, broker, clubman, and chairman of the building committee, watched for hours yesterday for the flag to rise.

A workman came to tell him all was in readiness and that the men were waiting for the drinks. Mr. Rumsey wanted to know what drinks.

"Just before the flag is raised, the firm always sends up a round of drinks for everybody," the workman said. "The men wouldn't think of raising the flag without the usual toast."

"You go back and tell them that this time the flag goes up without drinks," said Mr. Rumsey. "There's a law against it. I'll send up coffee and sandwiches, but I'll certainly be no party to breaking the prohibition law."

The workman went back and reported. Mr. Rumsey went back to his window to watch. Dusk settled upon the city. Word came back that without drinks there would be no flag.

There were no drinks. And when the sun arose this morning there still was no flag.

Policeman "Fired" By Mayor Baker

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 9 (AP)—R. A. Butler, who was accused of peeping Tom activities in the Portland jail and with annoying girls in the detention ward, was discharged by Mayor George Baker yesterday after witnesses told of how Butler made improper advances to a 15-year-old girl in the ward.

The policeman has the right to appeal to civil service.

Butler waived testimony on the part of the two girls he is said to have annoyed to "save them the embarrassment."

Now It's The Hit And Run Pedestrian

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 9 (AP)—Now it's the hit and run pedestrian.

Russell Eddy, Eugene, university freshman, minus a raincoat in a rain, dashed headon into an automobile. The driver saw Eddy rebound after the impact. But that was all.

Eddy continued his marathon for shelter.

He was unhurt.

BIG BATS OF A'S DEFEAT CUB HURLERS

Foxx Hits Homer Early in Game With Two Men on Bases.

SIMMONS DRIVES OUT CIRCUIT HIT

Grove and Earnshaw Tame Chicago While McCarthy Has Regular Parade of Pitchers.

WRIGLEY FIELD, Chicago, Oct. 9 (AP)—With the big bats of Al Simmons and Jimmy Foxx beating a tattoo against the fences, the Athletics crushed the Cubs today 9 to 3, to score their second straight victory and the tenth in a row for the American league in world's series competition.

Earnshaw started for the Athletics, pitching an excellent game until the Cubs got to him after the first few innings for a group of hits and scores. Lefty Grove replaced Earnshaw, holding the Chicago team in check while his teammates added more runs.

Two Homers, Five Scores

Foxx hit a homer with two on early in the game and Simmons homed with Cochrane scoring ahead of him.

A drop of around 15 degrees in temperature, plus the after effects of the opening day downfall of the home team, had a distinctly chilling effect upon the enthusiasm of the crowd that turned out today for the second game of the world's series between the Cubs and Athletics.

The cool snap was accompanied by a stiff breeze off Lake Michigan and it took the hardy courage more typical of football then baseball fans for the outfield bleachers to be fairly well filled by noon time.

The following play by play description is by Brian Bell, Associated Press sports writer.

WRIGLEY FIELD, Chicago, Oct. 9 (AP)—Connie Mack had no surprise for the crowd gathered on a cold gray afternoon for the second world series game, sending big George Earnshaw, one of his regular pitchers, to the mound.
