OUT OUR WAY By Williams

AT THE THEATERS

William Haines At Colonial In "A Man's Man"

William Haines—in a serious role, a far different Williams Haines from the usually debonnair youngster who "kids" here slang and disports himself in festive attitudes at the Colonial theater, where he is now appearing in "A Man's Man," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production.

It's a charming little satire, rich in human interest and with a beautiful little love story. The star in just the opposite of his usual role. Instead of being a "smart aleck," he's an earnest young man, so earnest in fact that others with "smart" ideas can tell him anything and get away with it. He "falls" for the chatter of an assistant film director and even gives up his money for phoney stock. He buys every book and correspondence school course that foxy book agents can sell him.

But he enacts a very appealing character, and does what is perhaps one of the greatest characterizations in his whole career. The result is intensely entertaining and interesting.

"Great White North" Coming To Colonial

Thrills gathered over thousands of miles of ice floes, scenes showing the hardships General Nobile and his rescuers must have encountered after the wrecking of the Italia, battles with the brave animals of the Polar regions are crowded into the Fox picture, "The Great White North," which is scheduled to open an engagement at the Colonial theater Friday and Saturday.

The picture was made by H. A. Snow, who went into the Arctic for two purposes—to learn the fate of four members of Vilhjalmur Stefansson's expedition, who had disappeared ten years before. He not only found the remains of the men and their camp on Herald Island, but he also secured a pictorial record never before equalled.

The famous "Black Beach," near Hilo, Hawaii, where the sand is as black as coal and the breaking of the surf over it is whiter than surf any place else in the world, is one of the beautiful and romantic backgrounds for "His Captive Woman," the new First National picture co-featuring Dorothy Mackaill and Milton Sills at the Aranda theater now.

Director George Fitzmaurice and the rest of the company traveled to the Hawaiian Islands to make scenes for this highly dramatic story, adapted from the story "Changeling," from the pen of Dana Byrne. In the remote islands of the Hawaiian group they found some of the most beautiful settings ever used as background for a film.

"His Captive Woman" is a George Fitzmaurice production, and is the dramatic story of a New York "jazz baby" who murders a millionaire and flees to the South Seas on the yacht of another admirer.

Miss Mackaill plays the pursued woman and Sills the policeman.

A fine cast includes George Fawcett, Frank Reicher, Sidney Bracey, Gladden James, Marion Byron, Jed Prouty and many others.

UNION SCHOOL CLOSES DOWN FOR INSTITUTE

By W. V. Connor
(Observer Correspondent)

UNION (Special)—Local schools closed down this afternoon for the annual institute which is being held in La Grande this week. The entire teaching force of the Union schools will attend the institute and will also be 100 percent in joining the state teachers' association when the sessions begin. Several Union teachers are planning to attend the banquet at the La Grande hotel Thursday evening.

An auto load of members of Grande Ronde Encampment were in La Grande Monday evening to attend the joint meeting with the latter camp when the state officer paid the lodges an official visit. Those who went from Union were Giles Van Housen, Morrie Jones, J. J. Stills, Rex Gamble and William Kielblock.

Mrs. Cecil Griggs and Miss Kathryn Kielblock started a kindergarten at the home of the latter this week.

Mrs. Ellis Hess met with a painful accident Monday when the auto door closed on her hand crushing two fingers. The flesh was torn and bruised and it was thought that the bones of the fingers were also injured.

Fat Girls! Here's A Tip For You

All over the world Kruschen Salts is appealing to girls and women who strive for an attractive, free from fat figure that cannot fail to win admiration.

Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into bloom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses.

Every morning take one half teaspoon of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast.

Be sure and do this every morning for "It's the little daily dose that takes off the fat."—Don't miss a morning. The Kruschen habit means that every particle of poisonous waste matter and harmful acids and gases are expelled from the system.

At the same time the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are toned up and the pure, fresh blood containing nature's six life-giving salts are carried to every organ, gland, nerve and fibre of the body and this is followed by "that Kruschen feeling" of energetic health and sprightly that is reflected in bright eyes, clear skin, cheerful vivacity and charming figure.

Get an 85c bottle of Kruschen Salts at the Red Cross Drug store or any drug store (lasts 2 months) with the distinct understanding that you must be satisfied with results or money back.—Adv.
