

Grange To Give Play Saturday Night, Oct. 12

By Mrs. Charles Spencer (Observer Correspondent)
GRANGE (HALL, Special)
Wolf Creek grange will bring its play "Bashful Mr. Rogers" to Blue Mt. grange hall, next Saturday night, Oct. 12. The cast follows: Katherine Henderson, a young wife; Coloma, Mrs. Frederick Henderson, her husband; Mrs. Wiggins, the landlady; Barbara Hartman, Obadiah Stump, a fresh country product; Charles, Mrs. Frances Whitaker, an athletic girl; Evelyn Bowman, Itouale Oils, a society lady; Olive Graham, Mr. Robert Bobbs, the bashful one; Eugene Bowman, Jean Graham, a Delaware ranch; Edna, Mrs. Marion Hobbs, anything but bashful; Lee George, Celesta Vanderpool, of the "movie"; Ruby, Mrs. Julie, her French maid from Paris, Ky.; Mattie, Mrs. Act I—Was he a burglar? Act 2—Was he in June. Act 3—A human butterfly. Act 4—Thieves and bridegrooms. That night (as they say in the movies).

The door receipts will be added to the building fund. Blue Mt. grange started last spring. "Incidents of Travel" is the subject of Mrs. Walter Pierce's short lecture Friday evening at the Blue Mountain grange hall when a fair-sized audience assembled at the hall to enjoy a program arranged by Mrs. Bert Grout, lecturer of the grange. Mrs. Pierce told in her usual delightful manner amusing personal experiences and happenings that took place while in Jerusalem, Holland, Italy, China and Japan. Ex-Governor Pierce also gave an instructive discourse in which he reviewed the history of the conquerors of Central Asia in medieval times. Boy Scouts, troop 16, sponsored by the Christian church of La Grande, put on a skit demonstration their first aid work. The boys who took part were Carl Johnson, Robert Wether, Harold Glasecock and Paul Walker. Other program numbers that were appreciated were a violin solo by Anita Hermann, piano numbers by Kelly Gray and by Clara Norris and a reading in dialect by Juanita Spencer Wilcock.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Lindsay enjoyed a visit from their daughter, Mrs. C. W. Stoop, of Santa Anna, Cal., a few days ago. Mr. and Mrs. Stoop were called to Ontario by the illness of Mr. Stoop's father and while there Mrs. Stoop took the occasion to run down and spend a couple of days with her parents. Mrs. Stoop was formerly Miss Winifred Lindsay.

Mrs. Thomas Macomb is making regular trips to Hot Lake to visit her mother, Mrs. Frank Siders, who is there for medical treatment. Mrs. Siders' home is in Webster, Ida.

Mrs. Joe Schofield and daughter of near North Powder and Mrs. James Amos of Tulelake attended the grange fair Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Bailey of Baker spent Wednesday afternoon and evening with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gekeler. Mrs. Bailey is a former teacher of Baker county grammar and Mr. Bailey is a member of the state grange legislative committee.

Nathan Fleishman of Madelon, Cal., spent last week at the home of his brother, O. C. Fleishman. Mr. Fleishman formerly lived in this locality, having lived where his brother is now located. It has been 11 years since he moved to California and eight years since he has seen any of his folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Art McCall and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spencer motored to Elgin Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. Sara Gekeler.

Mrs. Stuart French of Cove was a grange fair visitor Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Dora Carr and Miss Vivian Johnson, teachers in the Wolf Creek school, attended the grange fair Saturday. Mrs. Carr has many friends in this locality, having taught the school here for several terms. Miss Johnson's home is in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Haggin of Kennewick, Wash., who were here last week to attend the funeral of their son-in-law, George Gekeler, left for home Saturday.

Emil Tipp, who is in charge of the co-operative creamery at Haines was a grange fair visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Gekeler, who is quite ill, is improving satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Smith have moved to the Hermann-Carr ranch where Mr. Smith will be in charge for the coming year. Mr. and Mrs. Smith recently arrived from Twin Falls, Ida., where they have been living since last spring. They formerly lived on the Zundel place here, leaving in April for Idaho.

A few plans for the year were discussed when Liberty Parent-Teacher association recently held its first meeting of the year at the school house. Mrs. Bert Grout, president, will appoint her committee and other matters will be taken care of at the next meeting, the evening of Oct. 25.

A. O. Winday of Salt Lake arrived Monday morning by motorbus to visit for some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Lindsay. Mr. Lindsay is here for a rest as he has had quite a strenuous year as salesman for a woolen mill in Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nice and son, Glen, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Nice of Wolf Creek, were here last Saturday at the grange fair. Mr. Nice is a teacher at the school and Mrs. C. W. Bond is president of the association.

Members of the Birthday Dinner club were entertained recently by Mrs. Charles Spencer at her home. There were 14 present for the chicken dinner served at one o'clock. Guests besides the club members included Mrs. Bert Spencer and Mrs. Claud Wilcock of La Grande and Mrs. George Hughes. Mrs. Bert Spencer and Mrs. Hughes will entertain the club at the home of the former at its next meeting.

Among Friday's visitors at the grange fair were R. W. Sowers and J. B. Lavo of Cove.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Haggin and daughter, Edith, and son, Kenneth, who were called here by the death of George Gekeler, left for their home at Creswell, near Eugene.
