Unusual Church Services To Be Held On Sunday

Worshippers in La Grande and this county are looking forward to Sunday's services with more than usual interest this week, due to the number of special programs arranged. Included among them are the ordination of the Rev. M. G. Tompkins, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church, the missionary meetings to be held by the Methodist churches in Island City and La Grande, the opening of a revival meeting at the M. E. Church South, and other excellent programs.

The Rev. H. L. Hansen and members of the Island City Community church and the Rev. V. E. Hall and members of the First M. E. church, are planning to attend one or more of a series of missionary meetings to be held in Idaho and Oregon communities from Oct. 13 to 15, under the auspices of the Board of Foreign Missions of the church. The meetings are being arranged by the pastors and district superintendents and by Bishop Wallace F. Brown, of Helena. The series of meetings include two Sunday mornings at the Island City and Union churches and one Sunday evening in the La Grande church.

At Island City Sunday school will meet at 10 a. m. There will be no evening services.

At the 11 a. m. service at St. Peter's Episcopal church the Rev. M. G. Tompkins will be ordained to the diaconate and Holy Communion will be celebrated. The Ven. Rev. J. H. Thomas will deliver the ordination sermon. The Rt. Rev. W. P. Huntington, D. D., bishop of the Eastern Oregon diocese, will be in charge in the church.

A. B. Blackburn, the cowboy singer, will sing "Ava Maria" by Couss. Mrs. H. N. Ashby will render at the console "Vox Celestis" by Battisti for the prelude and "March Celeste" by Lacour for the postlude. The offertory will be a violin obligato by Florence Lynch Miller.

The services of the day will begin with Holy Communion at 8 a. m. The Young People's fellowship is at 4 p. m.

At the evening service at 7:30, candidates for confirmation will be presented to the bishop, and the bishop will deliver the evening sermon. Miss Gladys Miller will render "Avalanche Cantata" by Tchaikovsky for a prelude and "Postlude in D" by Sheppard. Mrs. H. N. Ashby will sing "The 91st Psalm" for the offertory.

First M. E. Church
The subject for the morning sermon in the M. E. church here will be "Jesus and Folks." The Sunday school has started out on its new year splendidly and the officers expect the members to carry on.

In the evening Professor Joyce Edwards, of Lakewood, Idaho, will speak on "Building the Indian Church." Dr. Howard A. Mueser, a former missionary, on "A New Day in Foreign Missions," and Dr. M. E. Gilbert, of Nebraska Wesleyan, on "Next Steps." Mr. Edwards is an Indian national. All are fine speakers.

The first quarterly conference of the year will be held in the church Friday evening of this week at 8 o'clock.

M. E. Church South
A revival meeting will begin at the M. E. Church South, 2161 North Fifth street, next Sunday morning, and probably continue ten weeks. The church has made elaborate preparations for the meeting. The Rev. Frank Hopkins, the pastor, will do the preaching, assisted by his son, Albert B. Hopkins.

Mr. Hopkins has had extensive experience in the evangelist field, having held meetings in eleven different states, as follows: Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Illinois, Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, Montana, Washington and Oregon. He finished his fourth year as conference evangelist of the West Oklahoma conference before coming to La Grande. In addition he has served seven other years as evangelist, making eleven years experience altogether, besides seventeen years as pastor. He served as pastor in the Little Rock, East and West Oklahoma and Northwest conferences, in the states of Arkansas, Oklahoma, Montana and Oregon. He has conducted more than 150 revivals.

His son, Albert B., who will assist his father in this revival, has

2 cups sifted flour 1 well-beaten egg
4 large teaspoons 1 cup milk
1/2 cup raisins 2 tablespoons oil
2 tablespoons melted shortening
1/2 cup brown sugar 1 teaspoon salt

Sift dry ingredients into mixing bowl. Beat egg well, add milk. Gradually add this mixture to dry ingredients, beating until smooth. Add shortening. Half fill well-greased muffin pans and bake about 20 minutes in a hot oven (425°).

To Ambitious Men of La Grande

THE Adeox Schools of Aviation and Automotive Engineering at Portland have more calls for graduates than they can fill. Good jobs are going begging because the demand for skilled men exceeds the supply.

In order to give the men of La Grande opportunity further information about the opportunities that exist in the auto and aviation fields, also information about part time employment while attending school, positions at graduation, credit arrangements, etc., Captain C. H. Jensen, field representative of the Adeox Schools, is now at the Hotel La Grande, Room 302. He will be in La Grande over Sunday, Oct. 13th, and will be glad to talk to anyone interested in a successful well-paid career in either automobile or aviation mechanics.

Lord is victorious in all his ways, and holy in all his works." (Psalms 145:17).

The lesson-sermon will also include the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Rejoice and Rejoice with Joy to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Everything good or worthy, God makes. Whatever is valueless or baneful, He did not make—hence its unreality. Sin, sickness and death must be deemed as devoid of reality as they are of good." (p. 325).

Sunday school is held at 9:45 o'clock where children up to the age of twenty years are lovingly received.

The Wednesday evening meeting which includes testimonies of healing is at 8 o'clock.

The reading room in the West-Jacobson building is open every day except Sundays and legal holidays from noon to 4:50 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend the church services and visit and use the reading room.

First Presbyterian Church
Henry Van Dyke said: "The root path to Peace, is to think seldom of your enemies, often of your friends, and every day of Christ." This Christ said: "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto you." This peace is the essence of "National Religion," the subject of the morning sermon by the Presbyterian pastor, J. George Watz. This service at 11:00 o'clock will be featured also by organ music by Mrs. H. G. McCall, playing the prelude "A Memory" by Armstrong, offertory "Evening" by Martin, and postlude "Festal March" by Gault. The quartet will sing the beautiful anthem "Be Still, Then, and Know That He is God" by Dudley Buck, whose compositions are of the finest.

At 7:30 in the evening the pastor will speak on "Evolution and Religion," and Mrs. H. N. Ashby will play the prelude "Rustic Serenade" by Baudette, offertory "Homage" by Korsakoff, and the postlude "Festal March" by Williams. Those who attend these services will be welcome.
