EDUCATION IS PANACEA, MOORE SAYS

Cornell University Instructor Speaks During Teachers Institute.

TWO-DAY MEETING ENDED YESTERDAY

C. A. Howard, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Gives Talk on Oregon Schools.

Yesterday was the final day of the Joint Annual Teachers' Institute of Baker, Wallowa and Union counties, which has proven to be an interesting and helpful time, concerning school subjects, health, education, good citizenship, and education in general. Much of the time was spent in observation in small groups. There was also several instructive lectures, given by prominent men, authorities on their subjects.

The principal addresses Friday afternoon were given by Dr. I. N. Madsen of the Lewiston Normal school, Dr. C. E. Moore of Cornell university, and Mrs. Cornelia Marvin Pierce, formerly state librarian.

Faith in Education

"Our Faith in Education," is the title of Dr. Moore's address. He stressed especially the idea that the solution to the problems of today rested very largely in education. Education would improve in its usefulness if more people were able to take advantage of it, he said, adding that he happed that some day it would be extended to all classes.

The teaching profession should continue to have that faith in education which the educators who have given us our public school systems had, he asserted. On these standards of faith we should continue to make education more vital to the needs of the people, was Dr. Moore's opinion.

Mrs. Pierce Speaks

Mrs. Cornelia Marvin Pierce spoke about the values of reading to the teacher, stressing the many ways in which the state library wished to be of assistance to teachers in the selection of books.

An educational lecture concerning "The Individual Differences and Progress in School," dealt with intelligence tests and measurements illustrated by a set of charts. The variations of children ages in the junior year in high school was from 13 to 21 years, and he said that in practically every grade there is a difference of seven years between the oldest and youngest members.

Contrasting two high schools in Omaha, one a classical school and the other an industrial one, intelligence tests show that of those attending both schools of average ages, the ones attending the classical subjects could do more difficult handling thoughtful and scientific work, than the others. A 13-year-old in the school dealing with classical subjects could more more difficult mental work than one of the same age in the other institution, he said.

Seventeen-year-old students are found in all four grades of high schools. He spent much of his time speaking of the frequency curve, the apearance of which he illustrated by charts made in several different subjects.

State Superintedent C. A. Howard listed six objectives that are being stressed in the Oregon schools

TWO MEXICANS ARRESTED ON OPEN CHARGE

Two Mexicans, T. Martinez and V. Fonto, are being held in the city jail today on an open charge following their arrest last night.

Police found five suitcases in a room on Madison street last night, three of which were identified as having been purchased in local stores. No dresses were found, however, but the men who occupied the room were taken into custody.

This afternoon a tea for wives of visiting Lions is being given in the hotel, with Mrs. E. D. Towler in charge of the local committe.

The program for this evening, with Carl K. Helm as toastmaster, will open with the singing of "America," followed by invocation by the Rev. M. G. Tennyson. Jack R. Ferris, president of the local club, will give the address of welcome.

Speakers include A. T. Hill, president of the La Grande city commission; W. W. Rosebraugh of Salem; Mr. Reynolds of Salem, and the acceptance of the charter by Mr. Ferris. The program will close with the Lions song.

Nearly 100 visiting Lions and their wives, from Baker, Milton-Freewater, Enterprise, Walla Walla and western Oregon cities, were expected to attend, having informed the local club previously as to the approximate number of reservations desired.

O. F. Tate, executive secretary of the Lions International, district 36, arrived here last night to attend the charter banquet. Besides being Lions secretary, he is also secretary of the Oregon Retail Merchants association.

Speaking of the Lions club, he points out that the organization is the youngest of the service clubs, although it now has nearly 2000 clubs and a membership of more than 80,000 in the United States. In regon it has made a tremendous growth in the last year. Mr. Tate says that La Grande is outstanding as one of the newer clubs because before it was chartered it had sponsored four new clubs. This is a record not attained by any other club in the International organization.

TIGERS DOWN NAMPA HIGH FRIDAY, 7-0

First Victory in Interstate Play During Recent Years.

SCORE MADE ON 54-YARD MARCH

Gem State Team Turned Back Several Times When Within Striking Distance of Goal.

A rejuvenated Tiger eleven clawed its way to the first La Grande victory in an interstate clash in several years here yesterday, trouncing the Nampa, Ida., high school team 7 to 0.

By winning, La Grande not only remained undefeated for the season, but kept her goal line untarnished, having won previously from Wallowa 31 to 0.

Both elevens demonstrated much offensive strength, but the Tigers uncorked the punch in the pinches to ward off Idaho threats. Four times in the last quarter the big blue team from the Gem state drove down to within the 20-yard-line, and four times La Grande took the ball—three times on intercepted passes by Faus and Patten and once due to a fumble that was recovered after Nampa had completed a 20-yard forward pass.

Nampa Line Strong

The La Grande eleven, although showing considerable offensive strength yesterday, was prone to fumble and the line was not holding on the defense, the cangy Nampa forwards crushing through time after time with holes for the ballotters. Tiger tackling was high in many cases, losing some extra yards to Nampa backs, and on the offense, the interference disap-

NATION-WIDE SEARCH MADE FOR PECHTNER

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 12 (AP)—County officials today divided their efforts between assisting private detectives in a nation-wide search for one "H. C. Pechtner," self-styled bank teller, and the questioning of Howard Polly, former chief engineer of the American bank building here, in connection with the resurrection of an estimated $20,000 worth of bonds of the Interstate Utilities company, presumed to have been destroyed in a furnace of the bank building last June.

Henry Jackson, San Francisco bond broker, revealed last night that he purchased $2,000 worth of the supposedly destroyed bonds from "Mr. Pechtner," while Joseph Taufe, an attorney of that city, said a client had deposited $14,000 worth of the securities in a San Francisco bank for redemption.

"Pechtner" is believed by local authorities to have been the unidentified man who negotiated the sale of at least one other bond in Des Moines.

MacDonald Ends Peace Mission To This Nation

Tired From Efforts of Past Week, British Prime Minister Prepares for Canadian visit

By James L. West
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

NEW YORK, Oct. 12 (AP)—With a last appealing message not alone to the British and American people, but to all the nations of the earth, Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald has brought to an end his peace mission to the United States.

A very tired man after the efforts of the past week, the British statesman today began a two days' rest before going to Canada to begin there the stupendous task that lies ahead in working out the many problems to the solution of which he and President Hoover have pledged themselves.

Gives Intimate Details

In this talk, which continued for nearly an hour, the prime minister spoke with a feeling which was apparent alike in his voice and his gesture. He gave some intimate details of how he and the president carried on their personal negotiations in the wilderness of the Virginia mountains and the Lincoln study at the White House.

More than that, he undertook to again reassure the world that what took place was solely for the promotion of universal peace, and he appealed to the American people for patience, for understanding, for good will, while the British people are replacing the old furniture of their minds with the new and more modern furniture of naval limitation and parity.

Message to Others

His message to the other nations regarding the conversations between President Hoover and himself was briefly but earnestly delivered.

"I want to say quite definitely

Fall In Court Chambers Today Despite Illness

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (AP)—Appearing somewhat stronger, Albert B. Fall appeared in District of Columbia supreme court today as E. C. Finney, first assistant secretary of interior at the time Fall was secretary, took the witness stand to testify in the bribery charges against Fall growing out of the Elk Hills naval oil lease to Edward L. Doheny.

Fall's family said the former interior department head had rested well last night and apparently was none the worse for his presence at the trial, although four physicians have reported he would endanger his life if the case continued.

The cross-examination of Finney was directed by defense counsel toward testimony designed to show that seven companies had bid on the lease Fall awarded Doheny's company.

The defense also sought to show that all matters relating to naval oil reserves had been turned over to the naval department by Fall, thus making it impossible for Fall to have awarded Doheny the lease for $100,000, as charged by the government.

New Angle Shows Up In Shearer Case

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 12 (AP)—The Chemawa Indians threw a dazzling offensive against the Oregon State freshmen today, but failed to stop the rook power and lost, 40 to 7.

Hoise scored the lone touchdown for the visitors on a combined forward lateral pass. Coach Newman used some 25 players, of which McDonald, Davis, Canova and Ramponi scored touchdowns each. Tom Ward of The Dalles, two.

U. S. Prohi Agent Slain In Georgia

AIMEE FACES CHARGES BY HER PASTORS

PANTAGES FAMILY ENTERS SITUATION

Officials Scanning Books of Church to Determine Whether Accounts Are Correct.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 12 (AP)—Investigation of the monetary affairs of Angelus temple and of Aimee Semple McPherson's disposal of temple funds was under way by the Los Angeles district attorney's office today as the result of charges of misappropriation brought by five pastors of the evangelist's Four Square Gospel Lighthouse churches. Two of the complaining pastors had been dismissed by Mrs. McPherson within the past week.

Chief among the complaining pastors was the Rev. John Goben, ousted as assistant pastor of Angelus Temple in a disagreement over policies with Mrs. McPherson. Dr. Goben appeared at the district attorney's office yesterday with books covering receipts and expenditures from August, 1927, to September, 1928, and said the alleged fraud would be revealed in the entries.

Others File Accusations

Other pastors who accuse the temple leader are the Rev. H. E. Alford of Los Angeles; the Rev. Willard Pope of Pomona, Cal., dismissed recently; the Rev. R. L. Larson of Hollywood, and the Rev. J. H. Stilton of Del Monte, Cal.

Deputy District Attorney Daniel Beecher, into whose care the books were placed, and his aides were busy scanning the accounts for alleged irregularities. Beecher announced also that the district attorney's office is seeking two women who were said to know what disposal was made of the funds which complaining pastors assert were misused. The names of the two women were withheld.

SIMMONS STARTED IT AND MOSES GROVE FINISHED IT

Mr. Cornelius McGillicuddy, known also as Connie Mack, glows with pleasure when he thinks of these boys—Lefty Grove and Simmons. The slugging left fielder rapped out a homer in the seventh inning today, starting a terrific rally, and Mr. Grove held the Cubs impotent in the last two innings to keep the two-run lead on ice.

CUB LEAD IS DWARFED IN ONE INNING

Philadelphia Needs Only One More Victory to Clinch Series.

SIMMONS, HAAS HOME IN SEVENTH

Chicago's "One-Sided Win" Fades Into Oblivion as Athletic Bat Barrage Opens.

SHIBE PARK, Philadelphia, Oct. 12 (AP)—Overhauling the Chicago Cubs with an amazing ten run rally in the seventh inning, the Greatest world's series history, the Philadelphia Athletics today battered their way to victory, 10 to 8, before an hysterical home town crowd of 30,000.

It gave the American league champions their third triumph in four games.

Leading by 3 to 1, the men of Mack now need only one more victory to win the world's baseball championship.

May Settle It Monday

They can settle it in the fifth game, scheduled here Monday. Trailing by eight runs going into the seventh, with the Cubs seemingly headed for a one-sided win that would even the series count, the Athletics let loose an attack that dwarfed anything in series records.

They battered four pitchers for ten hits, including home runs by Al Simmons and George Haas as 15 men went to the plate in an orgy that had the crowd wild.

The following play by play is by Brian Bell, Associated Press sports writer.

SHIBE PARK, Philadelphia, Oct. 12 (AP)—The players ran out with zest for the fourth game of the world's series. The enthusiasm was intensified by the bright warm sunshine flooding the field.

Old Jack Quinn, veteran of hundreds of ball games, warmed up until the last minute as did Charley Root, his younger rival from the Cub side.
