O'Doul Crowned National League Batting Champ

NEW YORK, Oct. 12 (AP) Frank O'Doul of Philadelphia won the national league batting crown by a margin of nine points over his nearest regular rival, Babe Herman of Brooklyn, according to final averages released today. The Phillies out-fielder made a new league record for hits in establishing his winning mark of .400. In his 636 times at bat he cracked out 254 safe blows, four more than the former record set by Rogers Hornsby in 1922. O'Doul also led in the number of singles with 183.

Hornsby set a new record by scoring 155 runs as well as leading the league in total bases with 408. The former run mark was 144, set by Hazen Cuyler in 1925. Hornsby finished third in the batting race with an average of .380.

A third modern national league record went to Johnny Frederick of Brooklyn, who collected 53 doubles, three more than Paul Waner made in 1928. The all-time record still belongs to Ed Delehanty of Philadelphia, who made 55 in 1899.

Lloyd Waner of Pittsburgh scored the most runs, getting 26 three-baggers. Chuck Klein, the Philly slugger, picked up the record breaking system again by getting 43 home runs. He beat Hornsby's old record, set in 1922, by one homer.

Another of the Rajah's marks set in his great 1922 season went down when Hack Wilson of Chicago compiled a record of 153 runs batted in. Hornsby drove home 152.

The final run producing crown went to Hazen Cuyler of Chicago who stole 43 bases.

Pacific Series Evened Friday When Stars Win

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 12 (AP) A pitcher's battle homed today for the fifth game in the coast league split season playoff, tied at two games all yesterday by a tenth inning home run off the bat of Frank Shellenback, pinch hitting hurler.

Shellenback, who won Thursday's game for the stars on the mound after he contributed a home run to the scoring, or Hank Hulvey, who was credited with yesterday's win because he pitched two innings in one of which Shellenback knocked the shell off the ball, were likely choices of Oscar Vitt. Bert Cole and Dutch Reuther, each credited with a win for the missions, were mentioned by Red Kelfefer as possible starters, with the emphasis placed on Cole.

George Hollerson, who took a shellacking at the hands of the Reds in San Francisco, also was a possible starter for Hollywood.

The Stars are confident that their home lot is their stronghold and in higher spirits than when they retreated from San Francisco the underdogs. As a result of yesterday's game, underbreath predictions that the series might end in Hollywood's favor in two more days were becoming audible.

Bill Rumler, Hollywood right fielder, who took a nasty crack on the head in the eighth inning yesterday, the frame in which Herb McQuaid went wild and was sent to the showers, probably will be out of uniform during the remaining games. He regained consciousness last night at a hospital, where attendants said his condition was not serious.

The Missions won the first game 7-2, the second 8-6, and lost the third and fourth 5-11 and 3-4.

Football Hopes Of Five Squads At Stake Today

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12 (AP) —Football hopes of five teams neither defeated nor tied in coast conference play will be carried into conference battles today.

Southern California's Trojans and Stanford's Cardinals, whose winning performances thus far have stamped them as the conference "bigwigs," were strong favorites to continue on their tour of triumph. Southern California had Washington as its opponent, while Stanford was to take on the University of California at Los Angeles team. Last week Washington was held to a 6-6 tie by Montana. U. C. L. A. already has been beaten by U. S. C., 76-0.

California's Bears and Washington State's Cougars, making first conference starts, were slated for the annual tussle at Berkeley, with indications of a bitter struggle.

The fourth conference tilt will match Idaho with Montana on the former's home field at Moscow. It is Idaho's opening conference test. Montana is reported to have its strongest team in years.

In games of non-conference standing, Oregon State will meet Columbia (Oregon) and Oregon plays Willamette.

Brooklyn Drops Carey, Bancroft

NEW YORK, Oct. 12 (AP) — Official announcement of the unconditional release of Max Carey and Dave Bancroft by Manager Wilbert Robinson of the Brooklyn Robins was made here at the office of the club.

Carey, veteran outfielder, had been with Brooklyn since 1926 when he was acquired from Pittsburgh. Of late he had been used chiefly in an advisory capacity and as coach.

Bancroft, one of the game's outstanding shortstops, came to the Robins in 1928 from Boston where he had managed the Braves for five years.

Jonah was a good man, they say, but he set a bad example for stowaways.
