Counsel for the Athletic baseball club said every member of the team would attend. Invitations will be sent to about 1200.

HERO OF SERIES HARD TO SELECT

Several Bid For Honors on Athletic Team—Bush Named for Cubs

By Alan Gould (Associated Press Sports Editor)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 15 (AP)—The task of picking the hero of the 1929 world's series seemed today as difficult as it was trying to guess Connie Mack's starting pitchers.

There was one heroic figure after another through the lineup of the triumphant Philadelphia Athletics. The three perhaps had stood out most completely, after an analysis of the five games, were Jimmy Foss, young first sacker, his bat mighty in three of the four victories; George (Mule) Haas, whose freak home run was a crucial blow in the historic "lucky seventh" of the fourth game and his second, man-sized homer the tying factor in the final contest; and Robert Moses (Lefty) Grove, whose southpaw speed saved two games and was ready for a third, only to have the distinction go to George (Duke) Walker, another pitcher.

Others Star

There was, also, the chunky figure of Jimmy Dykes, with the highest batting mark of any of his team-mates; Mickey Cochrane, who caught every game with marvellous skill; Al Simmons, the great left-fielder, potent in both critical rallies of the last two games; and last, but not least, Edmond (Babe) Miller, veteran, right-fielder, who knocked in the deciding runs in the first game and the winning run with a $50,000 blow in the last.

Grove unquestionably would have been the outstanding hero had he been delegated to relieve Howard Ehmke in the last game and succeeded as Walberg did. Ehmke's first game heroics were not repeated, or he might also have been the main bidder for the laurel wreath.

Perhaps, after all, Connie Mack was the real hero, for it was mostly by his hand that all these "lucky" as he calls them, were outstanding themselves.

Bush Hero for Cubs

The hero of the Cubs, from a pitching angle, was Guy Bush, the only winner and therefore the only candidate for the honor. Other-wise their greatest figure was undoubtedly Hack Wilson, mightiest of a "club slugging array that otherwise failed to live up to its reputation. Wilson led both teams at bat with .471. Yet Mack also was a "hero" for it was his diabolical performance in losing fly balls in the sun Saturday that contributed largely to the A's startling comeback. Charles Grimm, clever first baseman, played brilliantly throughout the series and also hit hard. The battling "lust" was Rogers Hornsby, the seven-time rajah of the National league hitters, who struck out eight times to lead the list of Cub strike-out victims. The fielding "goat" aside from Wilson, was Elwood English, with four errors.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 15 (AP)—"Ed 'Strangler' Lewis, former heavyweight wrestling champion of the world, scored two straight falls over Andre Adorze of France in the main event of a mat card here last night. The Frenchman was unable to stand his opponent's bulk. The final fall was taken with an arm and wrist hold.

Stanford Makes Ready For Game With Oregon '11

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Oct. 15 (AP)—All hands were engaged today in preparations for the Stanford-Oregon state battle here Saturday, with the Cardinals confident of a powerful attack and an adequate defense.

Coach Glenn Warner, just returned from scouting the U. S. C. and Washington teams last Saturday at Seattle had a double-barreled purpose in mind for this week's work. He not only intended to prepare his squad for the Oregon invaders, but also for what is expected to be a sterner foe—Southern California, a week from next Saturday.

Two of the Redshirts who played in the game against University of California at Los Angeles Saturday were added to the "quad" yesterday. They were Tom Hober, first string guard, and Harry Hillman, fullback. Their injuries will keep them out of the game until after the Oregon state meeting.

HACK WILSON STAR SLUGGER OF THE SERIES

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 15 (AP)—Hack Wilson, considered by many the best of the world series, was the leading slugger in the matches just concluded between the Athletics and Chicago Cubs.

Wilson, the center fielder, who lost three flies in the burning rays of the sun on Saturday which ruined the morale of the National league champions, batted .473, far surpassing every other player. He made eight hits in 17 trips to the plate, seven singles and a triple.

For the Athletics, third baseman Jimmy Dykes, the handy man of Connie Mack's ensemble, was the star. Jimmy batted .421 and many here consider him the luminary of the series, although the fans can never forget the thrill that Howard Ehmke's pitching gave them in that first game.

Nearly all the sluggers were up to par, with the exception of Rogers Hornsby who batted only .233. Hazen Cuyler hit .300 and Stephen batted .316.

Catcher Mickey Cochrane of the A's swatted a .400 clip and Al Simmons hit an even .300. The A's batted .281 in the series and the Cubs .255.

Oregon Team To Play Idaho In Portland Oct. 19

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 15 (Special)—The Oregon football team, after two weeks of preparation following the Stanford game at Palo Alto, will go into its second Pacific coast conference game at Portland Saturday, October 19.

The contest with the Vandals will be the first meeting of the teams since 1927, when Oregon was held to a scoreless tie by the northerners.

The Webfoots got off to a bad start this season and were decisively beaten by the Cardinals 35 to 7. Idaho has had two successful pre-season games and won from Montana State and from Whitman by large scores. The Vandals opened their conference season against Montana, October 12.

Paper Money Has Value!

AN ANCIENT PREJUDICE HAS BEEN REMOVED

An ancient prejudice nursed the ignorant fear and distrust of paper money. AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE inspires the faith which completely accepts the printed obligation. In the interest of convenience and safety, its use is universal.

"toasting did it"—

Gone is that ancient prejudice against cigarettes—Progress has been made. We removed the prejudice against cigarettes when we removed harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from the tobaccos.

YEARS ago, when cigarettes were made without the aid of modern science, there originated that ancient prejudice against all cigarettes. That criticism is no longer justified. LUCKY STRIKE, the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the choicest tobacco, properly aged and skillfully blended—"It's Toasted."

"TOASTING," the most modern step in cigarette manufacture, removes from LUCKY STRIKE harmful irritants which are present in cigarettes manufactured in the old-fashioned way.

Everyone knows that heat purifies, and so "TOASTING"—LUCKY STRIKE'S extra secret process—removes harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from LUCKIES which in the old-fashioned manufacture of cigarettes cause throat irritation and coughing. Thus "TOASTING" has destroyed that ancient prejudice against cigarette smoking by men and by women.

"It's toasted"

No Throat Irritation—No Cough.

EXCELLENCE
that is long-lived

Any comparison of the Dodge Six with other cars at its price reveals this truth: the Dodge Six is built to perform more capably—to serve more dependably—to last longer. Body construction is stancher. Its motor has greater piston displacement—finer pistons—more piston rings—more crankshaft bearings. It has a deeper frame with more cross members—longer springs—better brakes—bigger tires. In every detail that assures finer performance, safety, dependability and long-lived excellence, the Dodge Six excels.

RECORDS FALL IN SERIES; 21 ARE SURPASSED

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 15 (AP)—Despite the absence of Babe Ruth and his hindrance from the world series triumph last fall, 21 world series records were broken in the first game of the series between the Athletics and the Cubs.

Most of them went down when the Mackmen staged their record rally for ten runs in the seventh inning last Saturday to overcome an eight-run Chicago lead and pull the decision from the fire by 13 to 8. Thirty-old marks fell last fall.

Howard Ehmke, the elongated right hander, equaled the twenty-five four-run mark of Ed Walsh of the White Sox by rapping thirteen runs in the opening class at Chicago.

Walsh struck out twelve members of the same team in the Chicago intra-city world series at 1906.

Ehmke was admirably held up by Mickey Cochrane, star catcher of the Mackmen, and Micky who stepped into several new fielder niches. He broke the record for put outs with fourteen in the first game and added an assist to top the mark for chances accepted.
