

Society News

Bridge Luncheon Given Yesterday At Sacajawea Inn

At a charming bridge luncheon yesterday afternoon at the Sacajawea Inn, Mrs. Charles Pyle, Mrs. Turner Oliver, and Miss Margaret Anson were hostesses. Rich autumn shades formed the color scheme for the attractive decorations.

Mrs. Julius Roesech won high tally with 17 tables at play. An award was presented to Mrs. J. T. Richardson for second high score, and one to Mrs. F. S. Tramble for third high.

Out-of-town guests at the event were Mrs. Margaret MacDonald from Wallowa Lake, who was a house guest at the home of Miss Margaret Anson; Mrs. Elmer Stoddard, and Mrs. Earl Rosenbaum from Baker.

Mrs. John Hodgkin Tells of Journey

An interesting and pleasant evening was spent last night by the Past Matrons of the Order of Eastern Star when they met at the Masonic parlors with Mrs. C. R. Elford and Mrs. Etta Kiddle as hostesses.

Mrs. John Hodgkin told about her trip to Alaska this summer with the University of Oregon summer school, and illustrated it with slide pictures. She related many interesting things, telling of the Indians and their Totem poles. Most people imagine Alaska as a land of ice and snow, but Mrs. Hodgkin's pictures were more of trees and vegetation. Her scenes included views of the trip to Alaska, and of Alaska itself.

The evening was spent in pleasant social hours, nearing the close of which refreshments were served. A short business meeting was held preceding the interesting narration.

Mrs. G. Thompson Is Complimented

A delightful surprise, in the form of a bridge shower in honor of Mrs. Glen Thompson (Lois Davis) was given at the home of Mrs. Lee Hanford with Mrs. Cora Scott assisting as hostess.

A basket heaped high with sparkling crystalware and lovely gifts was presented to the recent bride.

Five tables of bridge were at play with Miss Bertha Wallinger winning high tally. Miss Mable Doty was presented with the consolation prize.

A dainty two-course luncheon was served to the guests. Unique decorations formed with clever arrangements of pastel shades, and clusters of fall flowers brightened the home with color.

Social Follows Business Session

An enjoyable evening was spent by the members of Crystal Rebekah lodge No. 50 last evening at a social following the business session. At the business meeting definite arrangements were made for the district convention of the lodge of Union county to be held at Elgin, Nov. 12.

Tables, games and dancing were the diversions of the evening, enjoyed by about 60 persons. Mrs. Ida Rhinehart, Mrs. Lou Robertson, and Mrs. Garnet Ruekman were in charge of the affair.

Bible Searchers Class In Meeting

The Bible Searchers' class of the Presbyterian church met yesterday afternoon at the church with Mrs. Harry R. Turner, president of the society, presiding.

The devotional was in charge of Mrs. W. S. Snook. Reports were made at the business meeting. The afternoon was spent piecing a quilt to be presented to a needy family.

Refreshments were served by a committee consisting of Mrs. Jessie Stiles, Mrs. Thomas Hodge, and Mrs. M. M. Miller. An interesting reading was presented by Miss Griedel Hussy.

The next meeting will be November 29, with Mrs. W. S. Snook, Mrs. Smart, and Mrs. C. M. Humphreys as hostesses.

Adopt Program At Meeting Of Club at Imbler

Mrs. C. M. Hale (Observer Correspondent)

IMBLER (Special)—A committee, composed of Mrs. E. Hazen, Mrs. Charles Cleaver, Mrs. Ray Wilson and Mrs. C. C. Welch, has prepared the following program for the coming year. This program has been adopted by the Women's club of Imbler, Wednesday, October 9.—Business and Social Meeting; Wednesday, October 23.—Kitchen help and favorite recipes; Wednesday November 13.—Suggestion for Christmas gifts, sewing and refreshments; Friday November 29.—History of Oregon; Wednesday, December 11.—Edgar A. Guest, His Life and Poems; Mrs. Ray Wilson leader; 2nd Wednesday in January.—Musical Program; Mrs. Etta Welch leader and hostess; 4th Wednesday in January.—Book review; Mrs. Charles Cleaver leader; 2nd Wednesday in Feb.—Our Birds; 4th Wednesday in February.—Health Talks, Sewing and refreshments; Mrs. J. A. Gaskill hostess; 2nd Wednesday in March.—Women's Action; Mrs. E. Hazen leader; 4th Wednesday in March.—Patriotic Program; Mrs. Lary Westenshaw and Mrs. Ruth Westenshaw leaders; 2nd Wednesday in April.—When Spring Flowers Glisten in the Blue Mountains; 4th Wednesday in April.—The Book of Job; Mrs. Jesse Berry leader; 2nd Wednesday in May.—Business Election of Officers; 4th Wednesday in May.—Social meeting and picnic.

Grandma Ruekman is quite sick at her home here. One of the members of the household found her last Thursday morning in her bed in a serious condition. Her condition has remained about the same.

Mary A. Elmer, of Wallowa,

Individual Cecos (For Children)

Three-fourths teaspoon cacao, 2 teaspoons sugar, 2 tablespoons boiling water, few grains salt, 1 cup milk.

Mix cacao and sugar in a small saucepan. Add boiling water and cook and stir until a thick syrup. Add milk and salt and heat, but do not let boil. Stir constantly while heating. Serve at once.

Chocolate and Cecos may often be used interchangeably, but cacao is better to digest and makes a better beverage for children especially.

Menus

By Sister Mary

Cool mornings make many mothers feel that children of school age should have a hot drink of some sort for breakfast. Coffee being taboo for growing boys and girls, just what to serve becomes more or less of a problem.

A cereal drink served with hot milk may appeal to older children, but young children from 6 to 10 or 12 years of age need a drink containing more actual food value than the cereal beverage unless it is made wholly of milk.

Coco, which is really chocolate with some of the fat extracted, makes an excellent flavoring for the cup of hot milk suitable for the juniors' breakfast.

Their Chemical Action

Although cacao does contain a substance which is related to the caffeine in tea and coffee, when it is used merely as a flavoring for milk there is not enough of this substance present to cause any stimulating effect.

Cocoa itself contains fat, starch and protein, and when whole milk is used and sugar is added, the result is a drink of high food value, nourishing and wholesome.

Since cacao contains starch, care

must be taken in the making of the drink. Thorough cooking is necessary for the starch, but undesirable for the milk, so it should not be boiled until this has been well cooked.

The "skin" which sometimes forms on top of cacao is the albumen of the milk coagulated by heat. Care in not overheating the milk does much to prevent this. Beating with a dandy beater after the milk is added increases the smoothness of the drink and removes the "skin" if the milk was allowed to scald.

Chocolate and cecos may often be used interchangeably, but cacao is better to digest and makes a better beverage for children especially.

Must be taken in the making of the drink. Thorough cooking is necessary for the starch, but undesirable for the milk, so it should not be boiled until this has been well cooked.

The teachers took up their duties again Monday morning with renewed interest after two days attendance at the teacher's institute.

Many of the older pupils spent the two days of vacation picking apples.

The first of the week Dan Brown brought in a 278-pound huck. Clifford Conrad was also among those to bring in a deer.

Mrs. Fran Osborn with her baby boy returned from the hospital Sunday. She is now at the Duvo Osborn home.

While on his way to Elgin last Saturday Andy Coe's car was struck by another car, causing it to leave the highway and go through the wire fence onto the railroad right of way. No one was hurt but the car was damaged considerably and the cream which he was taking to the creamery was overturned.

LaVerne Thompson who was badly hurt some time ago by a log rolling over his body, is so much improved he is able to return to school Monday of this week.

Mrs. Otis Golden left Monday for Portland where she had been sent by the Pethian Sisters as a delegate.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Anderson are the parents of a nine and a half pound girl born Monday, October 14.

John Ford, of Detroit, Mich., was

Spent the latter part of the week here visiting her sister, Bessie Hale.

Both Mrs. Elmer and Mrs. Hale attended the teacher's institute which was held in La Grande, Mrs. Elmer returned to her home Saturday, with a winter's supply of apples.

visiting here Monday with his cousin Mrs. Tom Page. Mr. Ford made the trip from Detroit by automobile.

The Union Sunday school is giving a pie social at the hall next Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Lyle Wilson is quite sick at her home here. Her mother, Mrs. Johnston is staying with her.

GOOD NAME, ANYHOW HANOVER, N. H., Oct. 17 (AP)

—If he fights like his illustrious ancestor, Robert E. Lee, halfback of the Dartmouth football team, should give Columbia plenty of trouble Saturday, Lee, a resident of Cincinnati, is a direct descendant of the famous Civil war general.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 17 (AP)

—Ticket sales to the concert to be given by Yehudi Menuhin, 12, California violin prodigy, was resumed here after Attorney General Van Winkle handed down a verdict yesterday that Yehudi's appearance did not break the child labor law.

THREE ARE INELIGIBLE EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 17 (AP)

Three freshmen football players have been lost to Coach Frank Carlson by the ineligibility route, and 13 others are wavering, according to an university announcement. Howard Dirks, fullback; Charles Hoag, half, and Herb Kessell, lineman are the ineligible. None were on the first team of Oregon fresh, though Dirks and Hoag were on the second squad.

A man we know gets up and writes verses when he can't sleep. Insomnia must be an awful thing.

MUSICIAN, 12, MAY APPEAR IN CONCERT

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 17 (AP)—Yehudi Menuhin, California musical prodigy 12 years old, can lawfully appear in an evening concert in Portland, notwithstanding his tender years, says an opinion by Attorney General Van Winkle to Stephen G. Smith of Portland, member of the board of inspectors of child labor. To do so the boy will have to get a permit from the judge of the juvenile court.

A statute of 1922, the opinion says, prohibits, in general terms, any employment of a child under 16 after 6 o'clock in the evening. A later statute, enacted in 1929, allows the appearance of children

Adopt Program At Meeting Of Club at Imbler

Mrs. C. M. Hale (Observer Correspondent)

IMBLER (Special)—A committee, composed of Mrs. E. Hazen, Mrs. Charles Cleaver, Mrs. Ray Wilson and Mrs. C. C. Welch, has prepared the following program for the coming year. This program has been adopted by the Women's club of Imbler, Wednesday, October 9.—Business and Social Meeting; Wednesday, October 23.—Kitchen help and favorite recipes; Wednesday November 13.—Suggestion for Christmas gifts, sewing and refreshments; Friday November 29.—History of Oregon; Wednesday, December 11.—Edgar A. Guest, His Life and Poems; Mrs. Ray Wilson leader; 2nd Wednesday in January.—Musical Program; Mrs. Etta Welch leader and hostess; 4th Wednesday in January.—Book review; Mrs. Charles Cleaver leader; 2nd Wednesday in Feb.—Our Birds; 4th Wednesday in February.—Health Talks, Sewing and refreshments; Mrs. J. A. Gaskill hostess; 2nd Wednesday in March.—Women's Action; Mrs. E. Hazen leader; 4th Wednesday in March.—Patriotic Program; Mrs. Lary Westenshaw and Mrs. Ruth Westenshaw leaders; 2nd Wednesday in April.—When Spring Flowers Glisten in the Blue Mountains; 4th Wednesday in April.—The Book of Job; Mrs. Jesse Berry leader; 2nd Wednesday in May.—Business Election of Officers; 4th Wednesday in May.—Social meeting and picnic.

Grandma Ruekman is quite sick at her home here. One of the members of the household found her last Thursday morning in her bed in a serious condition. Her condition has remained about the same.

Mary A. Elmer, of Wallowa,

Individual Cecos (For Children)

Three-fourths teaspoon cacao, 2 teaspoons sugar, 2 tablespoons boiling water, few grains salt, 1 cup milk.

Mix cacao and sugar in a small saucepan. Add boiling water and cook and stir until a thick syrup. Add milk and salt and heat, but do not let boil. Stir constantly while heating. Serve at once.

Chocolate and Cecos may often be used interchangeably, but cacao is better to digest and makes a better beverage for children especially.

Menus

By Sister Mary

Cool mornings make many mothers feel that children of school age should have a hot drink of some sort for breakfast. Coffee being taboo for growing boys and girls, just what to serve becomes more or less of a problem.

A cereal drink served with hot milk may appeal to older children, but young children from 6 to 10 or 12 years of age need a drink containing more actual food value than the cereal beverage unless it is made wholly of milk.

Coco, which is really chocolate with some of the fat extracted, makes an excellent flavoring for the cup of hot milk suitable for the juniors' breakfast.

Their Chemical Action

Although cacao does contain a substance which is related to the caffeine in tea and coffee, when it is used merely as a flavoring for milk there is not enough of this substance present to cause any stimulating effect.

Cocoa itself contains fat, starch and protein, and when whole milk is used and sugar is added, the result is a drink of high food value, nourishing and wholesome.

Since cacao contains starch, care

Must be taken in the making of the drink. Thorough cooking is necessary for the starch, but undesirable for the milk, so it should not be boiled until this has been well cooked.

The teachers took up their duties again Monday morning with renewed interest after two days attendance at the teacher's institute.

Many of the older pupils spent the two days of vacation picking apples.

The first of the week Dan Brown brought in a 278-pound huck. Clifford Conrad was also among those to bring in a deer.

Mrs. Fran Osborn with her baby boy returned from the hospital Sunday. She is now at the Duvo Osborn home.

While on his way to Elgin last Saturday Andy Coe's car was struck by another car, causing it to leave the highway and go through the wire fence onto the railroad right of way. No one was hurt but the car was damaged considerably and the cream which he was taking to the creamery was overturned.

LaVerne Thompson who was badly hurt some time ago by a log rolling over his body, is so much improved he is able to return to school Monday of this week.

Mrs. Otis Golden left Monday for Portland where she had been sent by the Pethian Sisters as a delegate.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Anderson are the parents of a nine and a half pound girl born Monday, October 14.

John Ford, of Detroit, Mich., was

GOOD NAME, ANYHOW HANOVER, N. H., Oct. 17 (AP)

—If he fights like his illustrious ancestor, Robert E. Lee, halfback of the Dartmouth football team, should give Columbia plenty of trouble Saturday, Lee, a resident of Cincinnati, is a direct descendant of the famous Civil war general.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 17 (AP)

—Ticket sales to the concert to be given by Yehudi Menuhin, 12, California violin prodigy, was resumed here after Attorney General Van Winkle handed down a verdict yesterday that Yehudi's appearance did not break the child labor law.

THREE ARE INELIGIBLE EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 17 (AP)

Three freshmen football players have been lost to Coach Frank Carlson by the ineligibility route, and 13 others are wavering, according to an university announcement. Howard Dirks, fullback; Charles Hoag, half, and Herb Kessell, lineman are the ineligible. None were on the first team of Oregon fresh, though Dirks and Hoag were on the second squad.

A man we know gets up and writes verses when he can't sleep. Insomnia must be an awful thing.

MUSICIAN, 12, MAY APPEAR IN CONCERT

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 17 (AP)—Yehudi Menuhin, California musical prodigy 12 years old, can lawfully appear in an evening concert in Portland, notwithstanding his tender years, says an opinion by Attorney General Van Winkle to Stephen G. Smith of Portland, member of the board of inspectors of child labor. To do so the boy will have to get a permit from the judge of the juvenile court.

A statute of 1922, the opinion says, prohibits, in general terms, any employment of a child under 16 after 6 o'clock in the evening. A later statute, enacted in 1929, allows the appearance of children

Adopt Program At Meeting Of Club at Imbler

Mrs. C. M. Hale (Observer Correspondent)

IMBLER (Special)—A committee, composed of Mrs. E. Hazen, Mrs. Charles Cleaver, Mrs. Ray Wilson and Mrs. C. C. Welch, has prepared the following program for the coming year. This program has been adopted by the Women's club of Imbler, Wednesday, October 9.—Business and Social Meeting; Wednesday, October 23.—Kitchen help and favorite recipes; Wednesday November 13.—Suggestion for Christmas gifts, sewing and refreshments; Friday November 29.—History of Oregon; Wednesday, December 11.—Edgar A. Guest, His Life and Poems; Mrs. Ray Wilson leader; 2nd Wednesday in January.—Musical Program; Mrs. Etta Welch leader and hostess; 4th Wednesday in January.—Book review; Mrs. Charles Cleaver leader; 2nd Wednesday in Feb.—Our Birds; 4th Wednesday in February.—Health Talks, Sewing and refreshments; Mrs. J. A. Gaskill hostess; 2nd Wednesday in March.—Women's Action; Mrs. E. Hazen leader; 4th Wednesday in March.—Patriotic Program; Mrs. Lary Westenshaw and Mrs. Ruth Westenshaw leaders; 2nd Wednesday in April.—When Spring Flowers Glisten in the Blue Mountains; 4th Wednesday in April.—The Book of Job; Mrs. Jesse Berry leader; 2nd Wednesday in May.—Business Election of Officers; 4th Wednesday in May.—Social meeting and picnic.

Grandma Ruekman is quite sick at her home here. One of the members of the household found her last Thursday morning in her bed in a serious condition. Her condition has remained about the same.

Mary A. Elmer, of Wallowa,

Individual Cecos (For Children)

Three-fourths teaspoon cacao, 2 teaspoons sugar, 2 tablespoons boiling water, few grains salt, 1 cup milk.

Mix cacao and sugar in a small saucepan. Add boiling water and cook and stir until a thick syrup. Add milk and salt and heat, but do not let boil. Stir constantly while heating. Serve at once.

Chocolate and Cecos may often be used interchangeably, but cacao is better to digest and makes a better beverage for children especially.

Menus

By Sister Mary

Cool mornings make many mothers feel that children of school age should have a hot drink of some sort for breakfast. Coffee being taboo for growing boys and girls, just what to serve becomes more or less of a problem.

A cereal drink served with hot milk may appeal to older children, but young children from 6 to 10 or 12 years of age need a drink containing more actual food value than the cereal beverage unless it is made wholly of milk.

Coco, which is really chocolate with some of the fat extracted, makes an excellent flavoring for the cup of hot milk suitable for the juniors' breakfast.

Their Chemical Action

Although cacao does contain a substance which is related to the caffeine in tea and coffee, when it is used merely as a flavoring for milk there is not enough of this substance present to cause any stimulating effect.

Cocoa itself contains fat, starch and protein, and when whole milk is used and sugar is added, the result is a drink of high food value, nourishing and wholesome.

Since cacao contains starch, care

Must be taken in the making of the drink. Thorough cooking is necessary for the starch, but undesirable for the milk, so it should not be boiled until this has been well cooked.

The teachers took up their duties again Monday morning with renewed interest after two days attendance at the teacher's institute.

Many of the older pupils spent the two days of vacation picking apples.

The first of the week Dan Brown brought in a 278-pound huck. Clifford Conrad was also among those to bring in a deer.

Mrs. Fran Osborn with her baby boy returned from the hospital Sunday. She is now at the Duvo Osborn home.

While on his way to Elgin last Saturday Andy Coe's car was struck by another car, causing it to leave the highway and go through the wire fence onto the railroad right of way. No one was hurt but the car was damaged considerably and the cream which he was taking to the creamery was overturned.

LaVerne Thompson who was badly hurt some time ago by a log rolling over his body, is so much improved he is able to return to school Monday of this week.

Mrs. Otis Golden left Monday for Portland where she had been sent by the Pethian Sisters as a delegate.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Anderson are the parents of a nine and a half pound girl born Monday, October 14.

John Ford, of Detroit, Mich., was

GOOD NAME, ANYHOW HANOVER, N. H., Oct. 17 (AP)

—If he fights like his illustrious ancestor, Robert E. Lee, halfback of the Dartmouth football team, should give Columbia plenty of trouble Saturday, Lee, a resident of Cincinnati, is a direct descendant of the famous Civil war general.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 17 (AP)

—Ticket sales to the concert to be given by Yehudi Menuhin, 12, California violin prodigy, was resumed here after Attorney General Van Winkle handed down a verdict yesterday that Yehudi's appearance did not break the child labor law.

THREE ARE INELIGIBLE EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 17 (AP)

Three freshmen football players have been lost to Coach Frank Carlson by the ineligibility route, and 13 others are wavering, according to an university announcement. Howard Dirks, fullback; Charles Hoag, half, and Herb Kessell, lineman are the ineligible. None were on the first team of Oregon fresh, though Dirks and Hoag were on the second squad.

A man we know gets up and writes verses when he can't sleep. Insomnia must be an awful thing.

MUSICIAN, 12, MAY APPEAR IN CONCERT

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 17 (AP)—Yehudi Menuhin, California musical prodigy 12 years old, can lawfully appear in an evening concert in Portland, notwithstanding his tender years, says an opinion by Attorney General Van Winkle to Stephen G. Smith of Portland, member of the board of inspectors of child labor. To do so the boy will have to get a permit from the judge of the juvenile court.

A statute of 1922, the opinion says, prohibits, in general terms, any employment of a child under 16 after 6 o'clock in the evening. A later statute, enacted in 1929, allows the appearance of children

Adopt Program At Meeting Of Club at Imbler

Mrs. C. M. Hale (Observer Correspondent)

IMBLER (Special)—A committee, composed of Mrs. E. Hazen, Mrs. Charles Cleaver, Mrs. Ray Wilson and Mrs. C. C. Welch, has prepared the following program for the coming year. This program has been adopted by the Women's club of Imbler, Wednesday, October 9.—Business and Social Meeting; Wednesday, October 23.—Kitchen help and favorite recipes; Wednesday November 13.—Suggestion for Christmas gifts, sewing and refreshments; Friday November 29.—History of Oregon; Wednesday, December 11.—Edgar A. Guest, His Life and Poems; Mrs. Ray Wilson leader; 2nd Wednesday in January.—Musical Program; Mrs. Etta Welch leader and hostess; 4th Wednesday in January.—Book review; Mrs. Charles Cleaver leader; 2nd Wednesday in Feb.—Our Birds; 4th Wednesday in February.—Health Talks, Sewing and refreshments; Mrs. J. A. Gaskill hostess; 2nd Wednesday in March.—Women's Action; Mrs. E. Hazen leader; 4th Wednesday in March.—Patriotic Program; Mrs. Lary Westenshaw and Mrs. Ruth Westenshaw leaders; 2nd Wednesday in April.—When Spring Flowers Glisten in the Blue Mountains; 4th Wednesday in April.—The Book of Job; Mrs. Jesse Berry leader; 2nd Wednesday in May.—Business Election of Officers; 4th Wednesday in May.—Social meeting and picnic.

Grandma Ruekman is quite sick at her home here. One of the members of the household found her last Thursday morning in her bed in a serious condition. Her condition has remained about the same.

Mary A. Elmer, of Wallowa,

Individual Cecos (For Children)

Three-fourths teaspoon cacao, 2 teaspoons sugar, 2 tablespoons boiling water, few grains salt, 1 cup milk.

Mix cacao and sugar in a small saucepan. Add boiling water and cook and stir until a thick syrup. Add milk and salt and heat, but do not let boil. Stir constantly while heating. Serve at once.

Chocolate and Cecos may often be used interchangeably, but cacao is better to digest and makes a better beverage for children especially.

Menus

By Sister Mary

Cool mornings make many mothers feel that children of school age should have a hot drink of some sort for breakfast. Coffee being taboo for growing boys and girls, just what to serve becomes more or less of a problem.

A cereal drink served with hot milk may appeal to older children, but young children from 6 to 10 or 12 years of age need a drink containing more actual food value than the cereal beverage unless it is made wholly of milk.

Coco, which is really chocolate with some of the fat extracted, makes an excellent flavoring for the cup of hot milk suitable for the juniors' breakfast.

Their Chemical Action

Although cacao does contain a substance which is related to the caffeine in tea and coffee, when it is used merely as a flavoring for milk there is not enough of this substance present to cause any stimulating effect.

Cocoa itself contains fat, starch and protein, and when whole milk is used and sugar is added, the result is a drink of high food value, nourishing and wholesome.

Since cacao contains starch, care

Must be taken in the making of the drink. Thorough cooking is necessary for the starch, but undesirable for the milk, so it should not be boiled until this has been well cooked.

The teachers took up their duties again Monday morning with renewed interest after two days attendance at the teacher's institute.

Many of the older pupils spent the two days of vacation picking apples.

The first of the week Dan Brown brought in a 278-pound huck. Clifford Conrad was also among those to bring in a deer.

Mrs. Fran Osborn with her baby boy returned from the hospital Sunday. She is now at the Duvo Osborn home.

While on his way to Elgin last Saturday Andy Coe's car was struck by another car, causing it to leave the highway and go through the wire fence onto the railroad right of way. No one was hurt but the car was damaged considerably and the cream which he was taking to the creamery was overturned.

LaVerne Thompson who was badly hurt some time ago by a log rolling over his body, is so much improved he is able to return to school Monday of this week.

Mrs. Otis Golden left Monday for Portland where she had been sent by the Pethian Sisters as a delegate.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Anderson are the parents of a nine and a half pound girl born Monday, October 14.

John Ford, of Detroit, Mich., was

GOOD NAME, ANYHOW HANOVER, N. H., Oct. 17 (AP)

—If he fights like his illustrious ancestor, Robert E. Lee, halfback of the Dartmouth football team, should give Columbia plenty of trouble Saturday, Lee, a resident of Cincinnati, is a direct descendant of the famous Civil war general.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 17 (AP)

—Ticket sales to the concert to be given by Yehudi Menuhin, 12, California violin prodigy, was resumed here after Attorney General Van Winkle handed down a verdict yesterday that Yehudi's appearance did not break the child labor law.

THREE ARE INELIGIBLE EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 17 (AP)

Three freshmen football players have been lost to Coach Frank Carlson by the ineligibility route, and 13 others are wavering, according to an university announcement. Howard Dirks, fullback; Charles Hoag, half, and Herb Kessell, lineman are the ineligible. None were on the first team of Oregon fresh, though Dirks and Hoag were on the second squad.

A man we know gets up and writes verses when he can't sleep. Insomnia must be an awful thing.

MUSICIAN, 12, MAY APPEAR IN CONCERT

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 17 (AP)—Yehudi Menuhin, California musical prodigy 12 years old, can lawfully appear in an evening concert in Portland, notwithstanding his tender years, says an opinion by Attorney General Van Winkle to Stephen G. Smith of Portland, member of the board of inspectors of child labor. To do so the boy will have to get a permit from the judge of the juvenile court.

A statute of 1922, the opinion says, prohibits, in general terms, any employment of a child under 16 after 6 o'clock in the evening. A later statute, enacted in 1929, allows the appearance of children

Adopt Program At Meeting Of Club at Imbler

Mrs. C. M. Hale (Observer Correspondent)

IMBLER (Special)—A committee, composed of Mrs. E. Hazen, Mrs. Charles Cleaver, Mrs. Ray Wilson and Mrs. C. C. Welch, has prepared the following program for the coming year. This program has been adopted by the Women's club of Imbler, Wednesday, October 9.—Business and Social Meeting; Wednesday, October 23.—Kitchen help and favorite recipes; Wednesday November 13.—Suggestion for Christmas gifts, sewing and refreshments; Friday November 29.—History of Oregon; Wednesday, December 11.—Edgar A. Guest, His Life and Poems; Mrs. Ray Wilson leader; 2nd Wednesday in January.—Musical Program; Mrs. Etta Welch leader and hostess; 4th Wednesday in January.—Book review; Mrs. Charles Cleaver leader; 2nd Wednesday in Feb.—Our Birds; 4th Wednesday in February.—Health Talks, Sewing and refreshments; Mrs. J. A. Gaskill hostess; 2nd Wednesday in March.—Women's Action; Mrs. E. Hazen leader; 4th Wednesday in March.—Patriotic Program; Mrs. Lary Westenshaw and Mrs. Ruth Westenshaw leaders; 2nd Wednesday in April.—When Spring Flowers Glisten in the Blue Mountains; 4th Wednesday in April.—The Book of Job; Mrs. Jesse Berry leader; 2nd Wednesday in May.—Business Election of Officers; 4th Wednesday in May.—Social meeting and picnic.

Grandma Ruekman is quite sick at her home here. One of the members of the household found her last Thursday morning in her bed in a serious condition. Her condition has remained about the same.

Mary A. Elmer, of Wallowa,

Individual Cecos (For Children)

Three-fourths teaspoon cacao, 2 teaspoons sugar, 2 tablespoons boiling water, few grains salt, 1 cup milk.

Mix cacao and sugar in a small saucepan. Add boiling water and cook and stir until a thick syrup. Add milk and salt and heat, but do not let boil. Stir constantly while heating. Serve at once.

Chocolate and Cecos may often be used interchangeably, but cacao is better to digest and makes a better beverage for children especially.

Menus

By Sister Mary

Cool mornings make many mothers feel that children of school age should have a hot drink of some sort for breakfast. Coffee being taboo for growing boys and girls, just what to serve becomes more or less of a problem.

A cereal drink served with hot milk may appeal to older children, but young children from 6 to 10 or 12 years of age need a drink containing more actual food value than the cereal beverage unless it is made wholly of milk.

Coco, which is really chocolate with some of the fat extracted, makes an excellent flavoring for the cup of hot milk suitable for the juniors' breakfast.

Their Chemical Action

Although cacao does contain a substance which is related to the caffeine in tea and coffee, when it is used merely as a flavoring for milk there is not enough of this substance present to cause any stimulating effect.

Cocoa itself contains fat, starch and protein, and when whole milk is used and sugar is added, the result is a drink of high food value, nourishing and wholesome.

Since cacao contains starch, care

Must be taken in the making of the drink. Thorough cooking is necessary for the starch, but undesirable for the milk, so it should not be boiled until this has been well cooked.

The teachers took up their duties again Monday morning with renewed interest after two days attendance at the teacher's institute.

Many of the older pupils spent the two days of vacation picking apples.

The first of the week Dan Brown brought in a 278-pound huck. Clifford Conrad was also among those to bring in a deer.

Mrs. Fran Osborn with her baby boy returned from the hospital Sunday. She is now at the Duvo Osborn home.

While on his way to Elgin last Saturday Andy Coe's car was struck by another car, causing it to leave the highway and go through the wire fence onto the railroad right of way. No one was hurt but the car was damaged considerably and the cream which he was taking to the creamery was overturned.

LaVerne Thompson who was badly hurt some time ago by a log rolling over his body, is so much improved he is able to return to school Monday of this week.

Mrs. Otis Golden left Monday for Portland where she had been sent by the Pethian Sisters as a delegate.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Anderson are the parents of a nine and a half pound girl born Monday, October 14.

John Ford, of Detroit, Mich., was

GOOD NAME, ANYHOW HANOVER, N. H., Oct. 17 (AP)

—If he fights like his illustrious ancestor, Robert E. Lee, halfback of the Dartmouth football team, should give Columbia plenty of trouble Saturday, Lee, a resident of Cincinnati, is a direct descendant of the famous Civil war general.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 17 (AP)

—Ticket sales to the concert to be given by Yehudi Menuhin, 12, California violin prodigy, was resumed here after Attorney General Van Winkle handed down a verdict yesterday that Yehudi's appearance did not break the child labor law.

THREE ARE INELIGIBLE EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 17 (AP)

Three freshmen football players have been lost to Coach Frank Carlson by the ineligibility route, and 13 others are wavering, according to an university announcement. Howard Dirks, fullback; Charles Hoag, half, and Herb Kess