

TIGERS WIN SPECTACULAR GRID CONTEST

La Grande, Beaten Until Last Quarter, Stages Great Comeback.

CROWD THRILLED BY HARD BATTLE

Enterprise High Makes Valiant Stand Against Larger Blue and White Eleven.

A valiant Enterprise High school eleven came to La Grande Saturday, determined to wrest victory from the larger school, and for most of the evening game, it appeared that the dreams of the chiefs would be realized. But in the last minute of play, the Tiger bared its fangs and clawed its way to a winning touchdown, leaving the Enterprise team broken and defeated and the thrilled crowd on a verge of nervous breakdown.

The final score was 20 to 13, and it was the narrowest escape for the Tigers in many a moon. All of the spectators that one expects to see in a dozen football games were crowded in to this one, and when the frantic crowd left the field at the end of the afternoon, there were many weak knees and befuddled brains. Torn from realization of defeat that existed three-quarters of the time, to the threshold of a courageous victory, it was enough to wreck the nerves of the mob of frenzied football fans.

Chiefs Take Lead

It was only four and a half minutes after the opening whistle when the Enterprise team effectively stopped a La Grande march for the goal line, turned the tide against the blue and white and swept down the field to a touchdown—all in one short 15 seconds. And after the ball was booted between the goal posts for an extra point, La Grande was stumped into impotency for the remainder of the half, which ended 7 to 0.

It was in the third and fourth quarters, however, that the real spectacle was witnessed, as the two teams fought a forward pass from Stoddard to Miles from the Enterprise 42-yard line. But Evans missed the try for goal, and Enterprise still held the margin by one point.

But it looked a little more encouraging, and the sidelines went into a ragged but vigorous chant for touchdowns. The blue and white kicked off, Forsythe returning the ball from his 20-yard line to midfield on the punt. A fumble by White put the ball back five yards but a penalty recovered the distance with 10 yards to spare and from the 40-yard line, after two plays that failed to gain an inch, Enterprise scored on one of the most beautifully executed plays ever witnessed in La Grande. It started like an end run, swiftly changed into a lateral pass to a fast running back, and the com-

LARGE CROWDS IN LA GRANDE OVER WEEKEND

Attracted by a number of events hundreds of out-of-town people were in La Grande Friday and Saturday, thronging the business district both afternoons. The Frisco Party, a more business-like event staged by local merchants, lured many of the out-of-town people, and the two football games—Normal vs. O. S. C. Hooks and Enterprise vs. La Grande—attracted many more. Evening attractions, including the Days of '49 show given by the Elks and the colored talking picture at the Arcade "On With the Show," kept a large part of the crowd in La Grande overnight.

Give Report On Work of P.-T. A. In East Oregon

Fourteen Associations in This Section, Most of Them Carrying Out Big Programs.

Showing the district to be progressing rapidly in organization and welfare work, Mrs. C. E. McPherson, fifth vice president of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers, gave the Eastern Oregon report at the convention held last week in Grand Rapids.

Mrs. McPherson, by virtue of her election, has charge of Union, Baker and Wallow counties, which have a total of 14 associations.

Giving a resume of the last year, Mrs. McPherson's report said: "Muddy Creek put on its Puritan Dinner in November, clearing $200, and sent toys and clothing to the service shop and held a community Christmas tree. . . They are serving a daily hot lunch, part of the supplies being donated.

"Haines is sponsoring a hot lunch for the first time. They have raised $2000 by their activities and have been instrumental in raising $2000 more by taxation . . . for a gymnasium. . . "Durkee is a very small association struggling against great odds. They have acquired some play-ground equipment and have done some work in beautifying the school grounds.

"Imbler and North Powder are both flourishing organizations, as is Bock Creek. . . associations like these which carry big plans and put on $400 dinners need occasional work.

"Pondosa, an organization in a mill town between La Grande and Baker, is doing splendid work, the outstanding achievement being the financing of a teacher of music for the school, who comes out once a week from Baker.

"Island City is holding its membership drive and has a promising future.

He also mentioned the "patented" invention now under way, but added that all of the children could not be protected unless some action is taken that will include them all. He also said that 100,000 children were vaccinated without a case of dangerous results from the immunization.

Accidents Over Weekend Cause Several Deaths

One Dead, Two Badly Hurt in Portland—Seven Snuffed Out by Gas in New York.

PORTLAND, Oct. 21 (AP)—Losing control of his automobile when a fire went flat, John Hillman, 48, was killed here today. The machine suddenly swerved and bumped into a telephone pole. Hillman's head struck an upright on his windshield. Death was caused by either skull fracture or shock.

The car was not badly damaged. Investigators found the fire flat and a dent in the radiator. Witnesses said Hillman was driving at a moderate rate of speed. Franklin Taylor, four years old, was in a critical condition in a hospital here today. Yesterday, he suffered the loss of his left foot when struck by an Oregon Electric train. The child's foot became wedged in the rails as he was walking across the track. Before he could release himself the train bore down upon him.

Meadory delivered a forceful address at the Lions club luncheon today at noon in the Sacajawea Inn. Dr. Meadory pointed out that both diseases can positively be prevented and added that of 25 deaths from diphtheria in Oregon last year, five of them took place in La Grande. He also mentioned the "patented" invention now under way, but added that all of the children could not be protected unless some action is taken that will include them all. He also said that 100,000 children were vaccinated without a case of dangerous results from the immunization.

She was en route to a teachers institute at Harney, in Harney county, when the automobile in which she was riding flipped in an accident. She was injured materially but it is believed, not seriously. However, her injuries will keep her from her work for a few days.

She returned to La Grande from Harney county yesterday. Tomorrow's meeting of the Union county chamber of commerce will be one of the most important of the fall season, and the main question taken up will be "How to apply the report from the recent economic survey." L. E. Bretherton, extension economist of Oregon State college, will be the main speaker, and Frank McKennon, chairman of the chamber survey committee, also will appear on the program.

It is proposed to work out a joint plan of operation with committees representing the farmers and fruitmen and the merchants, jobbers and wholesalers, including together, arriving at a conclusion and then reporting to the chamber. A. T. Hill, vice president, is to preside at tomorrow's luncheon. Officers urge all members to attend.

Dornier Flying Boat Passes Amazing Test In Switzerland.

WRITES NEW PAGE IN HISTORY OF AIR

Ship May Be Used for Trans-Atlantic Crossing—Was Built in Greatest Secrecy.

ALTENREIHN, Switzerland, Oct. 21 (AP)—The huge 12-engined flying boat Do-x, which was launched here last July, today made an amazing one-hour flight with a human load of 169, the first time in the history of aviation that so many persons have been carried into the air on any conveyance.

The giant Dornier plane took off at 11:15 a. m. and landed just over Lake Constance, her motors working faultlessly and landed with her 61-ton load at 12:15 p. m. without a hitch. The Do-x carried 159 passengers and a crew of 10. She had made previous test flights but this was the first time that so great a load was taken up.

Build in Secrecy. The flying boat, which may be used for a trans-Atlantic crossing, for the purpose of trying out her capacities, was built in the greatest secrecy. She was designed to carry about forty passengers normally but has accommodation for 100 if necessary. Her twelve engines can develop a total of 6,000 horsepower and each engine can be treated individually without affecting its neighbors. The Do-x measures 150 feet (Continued on Page 8.)

Inform Florida Party Officials Patronage Is Not All-Important.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21 (AP)—President Hoover in reply to a protest from Florida over the appointment of a federal attorney has announced it is the duty of the chief executive to make selections on the basis of public service and not for political reasons. The letter, made public at the white house today, was in reply to a communication from Fred E. Britten, secretary of the republican party in Florida, on the appointment of Federal District Attorney Hughes. It asserted the Florida secretary and other republican leaders in that state had overlooked the "primary responsibility" incumbent on the chief executive "to appoint men to public office who will execute the laws of the United States with integrity and without favor, bias or political collusion."

"I note your demand," the letter said, "that the organization shall dictate appointments in Florida irrespective of merit or any responsibility and that you appealed to the opponents of the administration to attack me. The success of the republican party rests upon good government, not on patronage."

The chief executive wrote that Hughes was especially competent in the enforcement of the prohibition law and that all of the federal judges in Florida had attested to his ability and experience. Britten replied to the president assuring him of the cooperation of the party organization.

Small School Must Work Up To Standard

SALLEM, Ore., Oct. 21 (AP)—Carrying out the idea of standardization, which was the keynote of the convention of the Oregon high school principals' association, the educators at their closing session Saturday, adopted a report which would allow small high schools to exist only if they can meet certain standards of efficiency. This report was presented by F. L. Stearns of the University of Oregon as chairman of the committee on reorganization of small high schools. It was approved with strong opposition.

As for the large high schools it was said that six standards would be added to those already established by the Northwest association of secondary and higher schools.

Golf Knickers Refuse to Act Like Balloon

CHICAGO, Oct. 21 (AP)—James Meers has made the startling discovery that golf knickers may look like a balloon, but aren't. Meers, who is 66 years old, got on a pair of plus-fours and went out with the boys early yesterday. The conversation turned to aviation and Meers had an idea. Inflate the knickers, he figured, and the wearer could float through space or upon the surface of waters.

With his companions he adjourned to a filling station and the plan was assumed full of air. The boys then went to the roof of a small building on the Chicago river bank and Meers jumped.

Poliferson pulled him out. "In very strange," said Meers, wringing water from the trousers. "Probably it's the torn air molecule at the filling station nozzle days."

HOOVER'S IN MIDWEST FOR CELEBRATION

OLD WOODBURNER HAULS COACHES

Famous Inventor Re-Enacts His Boyhood Role of News Butcher, and Collects Cash.

By James L. West (Associated Press Staff Writer) DEARBORN, Mich., Oct. 21 (AP)—Greeted by a driving rain and a biting chill, President Hoover arrived here at 3:30 a. m. today to participate in the golden jubilee celebration of the invention of the incandescent electric lamp by Thomas A. Edison.

The occasion will be the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the invention of the electric light; the host, Henry Ford; the guest of honor, his friend, Thomas A. Edison. Although the whole civilized world will "listen in" by radio to the tributes that will be paid Mr. Edison this night, the celebration itself will be marked by a homely simplicity and informality. It will be the personal tribute of one friend to another. Because of the benefits that Mr. Edison's inventions have conferred upon the entire world, however, Mr. Ford considered it only fair that representative citizens from all countries should be among the invited guests.

Remembers His Admiration. "You see," he said recently, "I haven't forgotten the respect and admiration I felt for Mr. Edison long before I had the privilege of meeting him and becoming his friend. And somehow I feel there are millions of other people today who feel about Thomas Edison as I felt then. I want them to be represented at Dearborn on the night we let Mr. Edison know how beloved he really is."

In the past two decades the country has come to know something of the friendship existing between Mr. Ford and Mr. Edison through the newspaper reports of their vacation trips together. Comparatively few people know, however, that Mr. Edison had been Ford's inspiration for many years before they met. Edison was just winning world recognition when his future friend was a school boy of twelve or thirteen years. Like many other lads of that day, Ford's imagination was fired by the story of the young man who had risen from obscurity by no more than his own industry and talents. Later, Ford frequently passed the Edison Electric Light company and largely through his admiration of the inventor he was impelled finally to go there seeking a job. That job gave him his first contact with Edison and brought about their acquaintance.

Inspect Ancient Train

Upon the arrival at Smith's Creek station the President and Mrs. Hoover inspected the old train which is a reproduction of the old Grand Trunk train from which Mr. Edison in 1852 was forcibly ejected because chemical with which he experimented in the baggage car when he was not selling newspapers in the other cars, spilled on the floor of the car, set it on fire and incensed the train crew.

The locomotive with its bulging smoke stack and two enormous drivers was called the "bean hip" and on each side of the headlight were the words "The President." The name on the tender was "Atlantic and Gulf R. R."

LIQUOR BARON IS MURDERED IN CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 21 (AP)—Frank Leonard, one time corn sugar baron who "got out of the racket" when his brothers, Big Joe and John, were killed two years ago in a gangland battle for supremacy, was dead today—the victim of a fusillade of revolver shots which roared out as he lurched over a car tangle in the back room of a downtown barber shop last night.

Leonard, silent partner in the business which made millions for the brothers, was understood to have abandoned the game when Big Joe and John were shot down side by side, but nevertheless police worked on the theory today that his death was in reprisal for the slaying of Sam "Blackjack" Todaro, rival bootleg czar, credited with having plotted the death of the Leonardos.

Last night's slaying left only Dominic, best reported in San Francisco, alive of the four Leonard brothers. Dominic was indicated here in the Big-Fanner payroll robbery and murders, but evaded extradition and trial. Mrs. Conzelita Leonard, common law wife of Big Joe, and her oldest son, Angelo, 28, were indicted for the slaying of Todaro in Cleveland last night. Angelo is a liberty bond man and is out on bond awaiting trial.

DOPE FRIENDS' ESCAPE

POMONA, Cal., Oct. 21 (AP)—Following the rioting and escape of 17 inmates from the state mental hospital at Sutter, near here, last night a report had been broadcast to officers in adjoining towns and counties to aid in recapturing the town. None was seriously injured.
