training, which they need before taking a profession, he said. An important point is to train students to be free from prejudice, so that they may make a decision for themselves and have it free from any emotion or temptation at the moment. Developing students in matters of leadership is what Oregon needs, he said.

"Where does leadership come from?" the president asked. "The most effective means of forming the emotional life of the part of the youth, can possibly result from a union of the home, the student and the university, developing the type of character and personality in which leadership exists. Boys and girls can bring ideas that have been well founded in Oregon homes, to the university, he said.

Seek Better Opportunities
"For one aim is to try and create for your sons and daughters better opportunities for life," he concluded.

This morning Dr. Hall spoke to the high school on choosing a philosophy for life and making the philosophy the fundamentals of character. "The main thing that you get out of high school is some philosophy of life and habits of mastering problems. If you get the habit of doing everything your way, then you are going to get along successfully in life's projects," he addressed the students.

Mrs. Hill also spoke enthusiastically, mentioning ways that parents contribute to the higher ideals of university life.

This afternoon Mrs. Cook will meet with the Oregon Mothers in an informal session. A short address of the Oregon Dads, and President Hill followed the luncheon.

During the luncheon Mrs. Lee Warnick introduced the Oregon Mothers, Ray Williams, the "dancer" and A. W. Nelson the Oregon Dads, also some out-of-town visitors.

ELIGIBILITY OF GRID MEN QUESTIONED

also sent copies of the protest. Anticipating the protest, the Baker Democrat-Herald yesterday published a lengthy story, starting with the following paragraph: "A La Grande drive to cripple the Baker Bulldogs on the eve of their game with the Union county football warriors here Friday through against alleged violation of the eligibility rules of the state association during the present football season.

The La Grande protest is understood to have mentioned the names of several Baker players who formerly lived in other cities.

It was said here that previous residence does not affect eligibility. Section six of article five of the Oregon High School Athletic association constitution was cited in this connection.

CANNON OUT OF TOWN
PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 23 (AP)—Roy E. Cannon, secretary of the state association dealing with high school athletics, was not in Portland today and was not expected at his office before evening, as one else in his office was acquainted with such matters.

head waves with ease compared to the snub-nosed craft that came behind it rode the bow well while anchored for the night as did the other craft.

Just as in the old days the Ohio was no respecter of persons when it decided to go on a rampage, so today it lashed up for President Hoover, again giving him a rough ride on the face of a gale and cold, driving rain. Men on some of the craft described the storm which the present has encountered as one of the worst in their experience. As the snub-nosed steamers ploughed into the waves, water broke over the forward decks with spray going completely over the tops of the high deck houses.

Although not a particularly good seaman, President Hoover enjoyed the trip as did Mrs. Hoover, who takes kindly to rough weather at sea. She climbed into the pilot house on the Greenbrier to chat with Captain Lester Hill, one of the old-time river pilots, who kept right on chewing his tobacco in spite of the presence of the first lady. He told Mrs. Hoover some interesting stories of his long experience on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers.

Only a few hundred persons gathered in the rain at Madison, Ind., for the half-hour ceremony there, held an hour after the Florida got under way, after an all night anchorage fourteen miles up the river. With Governor Leslie, Vice M. Burt Thurman, republican state chairman of Indiana and Mayor Marcus R. Sulzer and others.

CLASSES AS LITTLE LEAGUE
PENDLETON, Ore., Oct. 23 (AP)—The Women's Christian Temperance union was classed as a little league of nations by Mrs. Ella Boole, national president of the group, who last night described the world meeting at Tusasita in which women from many nations took part.

protests against the eligibility of several of the local players came to light yesterday and today."

Justin H. Joslin, the Baker paper says that his uncle is his guardian and that he has a stage contract on the Oregon Trail highway between Baker and Pleasant Valley. "The boy has attended high school wherever the uncle went, and has been in a different town each year," it says.

In another portion it says that "each has a legal guardian in the city... each of the three is in good standing, both as regards grades here and at his former school. Each of the boys questioned by La Grande is earning his way by a legitimate 'job' one in a garage, another in a hotel, another in a restaurant."

Two of the boys are referred to as orphans, but telegrams and letters received by Mr. Towner indicate that such is not the case, it is said.

Coach George Scott is quoted in the story as saying: "Mr. Walker and I sincerely hope the students of the high school will show true sportsmanship and win or lose treat our guests from La Grande in a respectable manner."

Union Sawmill May Close Down For The Winter

By W. V. CONNOR (Observer Correspondent)

UNION, (Special)—According to reports the local sawmill, the Oregon Trail, will soon close down for the winter as the roads will not long be in condition for logging. The planer, however, will probably run during the entire year.

A double headed surprise social was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bell Wright and Mrs. Edith Pihy in North Union, the occasion being in view of the fact that these two ladies and Mrs. Sarah Shappatt will soon leave for southern points for the winter. Mrs. Shappatt was invited to the Wright home and when the guests had all arrived it was announced that the gathering was in honor of all three ladies.

The afternoon was spent in visiting. Refreshments were served by a committee from the Ladies Aid who were sponsoring the affair. Interesting talks were given by the three ladies for whom the social was being held. Mrs. Pihy also sang a couple of songs.

Those present were: Mesdames Jennie Conklin, Emily Cook, Louisa Burwell, Minnie Baird, Pearl Shaw, Gilbert Courtwright, Session, John Ferguson, Iva Reuter, Ellis Hess, J. J. Brown, Flora Kellibek, Cyrus Williams, Maggie VanHousen, W. H. Halsey, V. L. Barker, Catherine Spence, Cecil Ginn, Warts, Azelle Castor, Sadie Connor, Nora Cheney, R. C. Lee and D. A. Crautner, besides the following out-of-town guests: Mrs. Sanderson and Mrs. Hessemer who is temporarily making Union her home.

Herbert Parker who has been living in this vicinity for the past few years and was recently an employe of the Turnbull Dairy, has moved to Baker county. The Parkers left Union Wednesday of last week.

The body of Mrs. Mary A. McGrath, who died at the home of her daughter in North Union Saturday, October 19, was taken to La Grande Tuesday and the funeral services held at the Catholic church. Interment was made in a La Grande cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Willcock and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Divens were in Union Monday evening and had dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Connor. The Willcocks live in La Grande and the Divens were formerly of La Grande where Mr. Divens was manager of the Western Union telegraph office, but they are now located in Pendleton.

It has become common news to read about deer being brought in by male hunters, but it is a little uncommon for the ladies to get the hunt. Such is the record for Mrs. A. Burford of this vicinity, who went out deer hunting last Saturday in the mountains east of Union. A half hour of hunting was sufficient for the lady to bring down a five-point buck weighing over two hundred pounds.

SLIM FIGURE NOW UNFASHIONABLE

Women and Girls Can Now Be Healthy as Well as Stylish

That excessive and unnatural slimmness that ruined the health of thousands of women and young girls is no longer fashionable. Paris couturiers are developing clothes for the rounded figure. Musical comedy producers are searching for healthy, normal figures for the stage. All the world is getting health-wise where the human figure is concerned.

This means that women and girls will be encouraged to eat enough varied foods at regular meals to supply the requirements of health. It means that tuberculosis, anemia and other dangerous results of undernourishment may be more easily averted. And to the eyes of discerning men and beauty experts, it means that women will be more natural and more beautiful.

Eat cereals, milk, fruits, vegetables and meats daily. Do not gorge or overeat, but eat variety. Remember that flavor is the most important factor in causing people to eat varieties of foods, and that sugar is nature's supreme condiment for developing the flavors of nearly every healthful food.

The necessity of a dash of sugar for making cereals, fruits and milk desserts delicious is well known. Women cooking experts recently discovered that a dash of sugar in vegetables while they are cooking revolutionizes their freshness and natural vegetable flavors. Most foods are more delicious and nourishing with sugar. The Sugar Institute.
