Local Soldiers Shown In Film Of War Scenes

A REVIEW
 "The official world war moving picture now showing at the Colonial theater, is proving of peculiar interest to La Grande people. The reason for this is that many of the pictures were taken near the hospital occupied by the La Grande hospital unit near the front, and in some of the films local boys, including Jesse V. Andrews, are recognized.

This picture is being shown with an accompanying lecture by Corporal Bob Ingleson, one of the cameramen at the front back in 1918, and is said by local theatergoers to be the best film of this time ever exhibited here.

Corporal Ingleson has talked before the Rotary club and the high school students during his stop here.

Gasser In, Burns

NEA Oklahoma City Bureau Here's a scene that proves bringing in a gas well isn't always profitable.
 This one, near Oklahoma City caught fire as it blew in, and caused a loss of approximately $50,000 to its owners before the blaze was extinguished by "shots" of 200 pounds of nitroglycerine.

Baseball was the biggest boomerang for the critical observers who are supposed to occupy the outposts close to the "dope" on the "pod-box" or whatever one cares to call the inside situation.
 But somebody crossed them up at the start. Conlie Mack did it at the finish.

The boys made a bad guess from the outset when the consensus of some 60 baseball writers around the major league circuits pooled their opinions and came up with a consensus favoring the Yankees to make it four straight and the Giants to make it an All-New York world's series.

Instead of a runaway ride, the series turned out to be an even-night jump, Babe Ruth and John McGraw were on the scene, with their ghost-writers, but the only action they got was in fighting their way into the press-box at Philadelphia.

The Chicago Cubs were the first object of nearly half the experts, 28, so that they may claim a moral victory in this National League selection but only ten out of 64 had the vision to see the Athletics as American league champions, let alone world's champions. Exactly 53 picked the Yankees to repeat and now wish they hadn't.

Here's how the race was

Boston Red Sox Eighth At that the critics came closer to guessing the order of the pen-tant race finishes than they did in predicting the pitchers Mack would start in each world's series game. The experts had five chances to guess who all would be and missed them all.
 Even the Cubs were not that badly out-guessed.

Bob Weaver had ended a long reign at the head of the Southern California association of the amateur athletic union. Weaver told me at Del Monte that he felt it was time for him to let others handle the reins and do some of the worrying for his shadowed in the past decade or so. His successor is Leslie A. Henry, national chairman of the A. A. U. track and field committee, who has jumped at once into plans for bringing the National championships to Los Angeles in 1930 and holding them on the night of July 4 in the big coliseum. The Southern California city turned out 69, one to see Enayo Starnel run and believe it can be better than that for the nationals, especially for an evening, instead of matinee performances.

Weaver fired the gun when Charley Daddock churned up many a world's record on the coast. He was a leading spirit in making Los Angeles one of the greatest of all track and field centers.

Applicants for civil service positions in Massachusetts are asked "What is a peanut?" Let's see now — about all we know is that it has something to do with a baseball game.

There Are Others
 A mail carrier is not the only one who has to keep an delivering.
 —John M. Siddall.

"Is that your car, sir?"
 "Yes—why?"
 "Well, would you mind me sitting in it for 'arf an hour? I want ter did a couple of mile." —Everybody's Weekly.

Lawyer: Then you say that this man was drunk?
 Witness: I do not, I simply said that he sat in his car for three hours in front of an excavation waiting for the light to turn green.

 (AP)—A little old lady who went to the white house in 1924 to see her son-in-law inaugurated president has found release from 120 years' illness. Her daughter, Mrs.
 Calvin Gadsidge, was at the head-side when the end came early last night.

Of sturdy New England stock, Mrs. Elmira Goodhue remained intensely interested in the lives of her distinguished kinfolk. She spent two months at the white house after the inauguration. Entering a hospital here in December, 1927, after an influenza attack, she remained mentally active it. Here in La Grande housewives can buy Meadow Harvest at no advance in price... try a pound today—at all dealers.
