FIGHT AMERICAN CARS

MARIE CAMP—The Automobile club of France is campaigning actively against the trend to American motor cars in France. It is asserted that French cars are better adapted to French roads than American, cost less, wear longer and use less gasoline.

Abe Martin

SOMEHOW I've allus been under the impression that a Granddaddy worked fast, cleaned up 'n' got out 'n' town like a circus, but I read about the same one hangin' around Florida for more'n ten days. Ionia, the little daughter 'n' Mrs. Leghorn Tharp, president of the Colonial Bridge Club, wuz seriously crushed today when a stack of unwashed dishes toppled over on her.

"As you surr," an anxious patient asked a physician, "are you sure that I shall recover? I have heard that doctors sometimes give wrong diagnoses, and have treated patients for pneumonia who afterwards died of typhoid fever."

"You've been woefully misinformed," replied the medico indignantly. "If I treat a man for pneumonia he dies of pneumonia."

AT THE THEATERS

"Modern Love" Is Comedy Of The Highest Order

Those who enjoy comedy at its best should see the Universal picture "Modern Love," which opens Sunday at the Colonial theater.

The story is based on modern marriage, that is, marriage on a fifty-fifty basis. However, it is only fair to state that in "Modern Love" not only is the marriage a fifty-fifty business arrangement, but in order that the young wife might not lose her position, it had to be kept secret.

One wonders how so many complications can be packed into one film without straining for effects and without overburdening it with innumerable scenes. The fact that both of these defects have been avoided is perhaps the highest compliment that can be paid the writer and the director.

In the final summing up, this picture is recommended to anyone in low spirits or suffering from boredom. There isn't a dull moment in "Modern Love."

Jean Herhold, Kathryn Crawford and Charley Chase play important roles.

Al Jolson Coming Here In "Say It With Songs"

Al Jolson, entertainer of the unseen millions in "Say It With Songs," Warner Bros. picture, which comes to the Arcade theater Sunday.

As Joe Lane, radio entertainer, the star has many opportunities to make himself felt—which he does not only at the broadcasting station, but from prison where he is sent in the result of an accidental killing.

Jolson does not resort to burnt cork in "Say It With Songs," since

Turns To Dairy Business After Selling Sheep

By Mrs. M. F. Raymond (Observer Correspondent) PONDOSA, Ore. (Special)—J. C. Turner is going into the dairy business quite extensively. He sold his sheep and bought dairy cows.

He is now milking 52 and averages 15 gallons of cream per day.

Miss Nedra Harris and Virgil Rainey were married in Weiser Monday.

Mrs. Rainey is the daughter of Mrs. J. C. Turner and is quite well known here, having visited her mother frequently.

The young folks will make their home at New Meadows where Mr. Rainey is employed.

J. H. Wanker, 75-year-old pioneer of this section and affectionately known as "Uncle Henry" by nearly every one in the creek, is visiting in Oswego on his way home from a trip which began Labor day. Since then he has visited in Ohio and Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Gray and family, which includes Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gray and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Gravel went for a hunting and camping trip Wednesday in the Granite country. They returned Sunday with a large buck.

Bob Wanker of the cattle firm of Woodson and Wanker has an acreage on the ranch that produced him with 12 pups last week. Mr. Wanker being the successful bear hunter he is, it is presumed the pups will be trained for bear dogs.

The Relief society was reorganized last week at the Pondosa hotel. Mrs. W. L. Estes, the president, having moved away, the reorganization was necessary. State officers coming from La Grande for the meeting were Mrs. Mary Bean, Mrs. Blanch Stoddard, Mrs. Adah Adams and Mrs. Anna Black. The local officers elected were Mrs. James Wade, president, Mrs. Torval Hansen, first counselor, Mrs. Edward Lark, second counselor, Mrs. Meta Larwell, secretary, Mrs. Loren Nelson, theology leader, Mrs. David Johnson, literary leader.

Floyd Smith came over from Oswego Sunday to bring his daughter Betty over. The little girl will make her home with her aunt, Mrs. James Wade and will attend school here.

John Miles, who has a farm on Powder river, has just finished digging a 500 sack crop of potatoes. Most of the crop was disposed of in this locality.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boyd and daughter Alma arrived Saturday for a visit with Mrs. Boyd's sister, Mrs. S. S. Dolby. The Boyds have been touring Utah for the last month and on Monday will return to their home at Laydell, Utah, where Mr. Boyd is manager of the Union Pacific eating house.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Doty entertained with a card party Wednesday evening in their beautiful new home on Powder river in honor of Mrs. Doty's sister, Mrs. Earl Boyd and Mr. Boyd. Five hundred was the division of the evening and four tables were at play. High score prizes being won by Mrs. W. C. Sowers and D. E. Nelson and consolation prizes going to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dunne. After the game delicious refreshments were served. Those going from here for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sowers, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Judy, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Duncan Ernest Heater and Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Raymond. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jacobs, of St. Anthony, Idaho, stopped over Wednesday night to visit relatives before continuing on their way to Los Angeles to spend the winter. Mrs. Jacobs is a niece of Mrs. Mary Murray and a cousin of Fred Bradshaw.

The Latter Day Saints Sunday school was reorganized last Sunday when several stake officers came from Baker and La Grande. Sunday school has been held in the school house for nearly two years but was discontinued this summer. The officers coming from La Grande were Robert Baxter, stake superintendent, Henry Maxfield, first counselor, Mrs. Max Burke, stake secretary and Mr. Burke. Those from Baker were Bishop and Mrs. J. E. Eardley, and J. Yancy, second counselor of Bishopric. The local officers elected were Meta Larwell, superintendent, Nelson and Pace Larwell, first and second counselors, Francis Smith, secretary.

The members of the 4-H cooking club with their leader, Miss Marie Colquhoun, enjoyed a weekend on the banks of Big creek near the Wandler ranch Monday evening. After supper the young folks played games for an hour and a half. Miss Anna and Mrs. Queen, Melba Johansen, Wilma Duncan and Charlotte Pratt were guests of the club.

Mrs. May Weir, teacher of the Washington district, was a weekend guest of Mrs. David Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Knowles, of Pocatello, Idaho, were guests of Mr. Knowles' sister, Mrs. W. W. Gray Saturday. Mr. Knowles is a conductor on the Oregon Short line. He and Mrs. Knowles were married a week ago and are enjoying a honeymoon trip to San Francisco.

Med. Edward Wanker, sister of Frank Whitten and Mrs. Robert Wanker and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Schatz arrived Sunday to visit here for a day. Mr. and Mrs. Schatz will spend part of the time visiting relatives in Idaho before returning to their home at Oswego.

Mrs. Clara Johansen, who operated the Pondosa hotel, spent the weekend in La Grande with her daughter Mrs. Henry Hess.

Allard Robertson and M. G. Murray, of La Grande, came up Friday evening for the last days of the hunting season and were successful in getting a 200 lb. buck near Taylor Green Sunday.

Heavy Stranger (returning to theater between the acts): "Did I read on your (oes as I went out)?"

Heavy Stranger (returning to wife): "That's right, Matilda, this is our place."

OFFICE CAT

Trade Mark Reg. By Junius Lady: "No, go away or I'll call my husband."

Tramp: "Oh, I know him. He's the little chap who said when I was here last week: 'Go away or I'll call my wife.'"

"Oh, dear, please don't; you'll miss my hair." And she seemed badly fussed. But he kept right on petting her. He said if he missed, he must!

A swishing noise which emanated from her automobile caused a La Grande woman no end of worry and she finally decided it would be necessary to take it to her mechanic, who had an enviable reputation for his knowledge of the internal workings of motor cars, writes F. L. K. He, however, declared that he was completely mystified as to the source of the noise and said that he believed he would have to overhaul the car to locate it. It was not until sometime later that they discovered that someone had neglected to turn off the windshield wiper.

"I'm going to be married tomorrow."

"Are you? Who's your opponent?"

If husband and wife have a joint checking account, you know who runs the joint.
