OBEDIENCE AND GROWTH—And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them; but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.—Luke 2:51, 52.

Abe Martin

About the only time a candidate for office ever sees anything about the hearty cooperation of the public is while he's getting in. "In my day when a baby cried we knew it was sick," said Mrs. Harriet Richardson, at the organ console, will play Prelude, Op. 25, No. 15, by Chopin, Offertory, "Autumn" by Johnston, Mrs. Alfred A. Richardson, soprano, will sing the 24th psalm, "The Earth is the Lord's," with beautiful music set for the words by Lynne. The minister, the Rev. J. George Wells, will speak on "The Undying Principle Within."

WINNINGS

Many of the churches are holding no evening services Sunday so that their congregations may attend the sacred band concert at the M. E. church.

A series of slides will be shown during the 6:30 young people's hour at the Baptist church.

The Rev. J. George Wells, of La Grande, has been appointed by Paul T. Shaw, general chairman, to serve in the capacity of a member of the state advisory committee of the Westminister foundation campaign committee to assist in arousing statewide interest in the project of the Presbyterians of Oregon to continue and to further and strengthen the work of the campus houses estimated in Eugene and Corvallis.

The La Grande Ministerial association will meet at the Presbyterian church Monday morning at 10 o'clock. The Rev. Vernon E. Hall, of the M. E. church, will give a paper on the subject "Church Union."

Sunday evening services will be held at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, beginning Nov. 3. The meetings will open at 8 p. m.

The Gospel Mission will hold weekday services at 7:45 p. m. on Thursday and Friday.

The Lutheran church will observe Reformation Sunday during the morning services Sunday. An official board meeting will be held Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Christian church. All members of the board are urged to be present. Other weekday meetings follow: Wednesday, at 7:29, Women's Missionary society meeting; Thursday, at 12, monthly church night supper. At the Thursday night meeting, which is a pot luck affair, the plans for the evangelistic meetings are to be considered. They are announced for the week of Nov. 17 to 24.

A special selection of musical numbers has been made for the Sunday morning service at the Presbyterian church.

Was Revelation To Her, She Says

"The way this wonderful Sargol treatment overcame my habitual constipation and restored my health was a revelation to me. My whole system had become poisoned and disordered from constipation."

MRS. STANLEY EDGAR.

stipation and my kidneys and liver were not functioning properly. There was such an awful pain across my back that at times I could scarcely stand on my feet. I'd have to leave the bed two or three times every night and never could sleep well. My appetite was poor and I felt tired and listless all the time.

"Sargol and Sargol Soft Mass Pills are the only medicines I ever found that really reached my trouble. The constipation and liver trouble are entirely gone. My kidneys don't bother me now and the pain is gone from my back. I sleep just grand and feel stronger, more energetic and better in every way than I have in years."—Mrs. Stanley Edgar, 538 E. 21st St., Portland.

Sacred Concert Sunday Feature In The Churches

Second on our church list interest in the various churches of La Grande in centering Sunday evening on the sacred concert to be given by the La Grande municipal band at 8 o'clock in the First Methodist Episcopal church. The concert is sponsored by the La Grande Ministerial association and the member ministers are holding no evening services so that their congregations may attend the musical.

Church announcements for Sunday follow:

First Presbyterian Church
The music prepared for the Presbyterian church 11:30 o'clock service, Sunday morning, will add much in the worship of the hour. Mrs. Harriet Richardson, at the organ console, will play Prelude, Op. 25, No. 15, by Chopin, Offertory, "Autumn" by Johnston, Mrs. Alfred A. Richardson, soprano, will sing the 24th psalm, "The Earth is the Lord's," with beautiful music set for the words by Lynne. The minister, the Rev. J. George Wells, will speak on "The Undying Principle Within."

There will be no evening services in this church as the congregation will join the congregations of the other churches of the city in the enjoyment of the sacred band concert by Mr. Andrew Loney Jr., and the band. This concert will be presented in the Methodist church, and it is desired that the church shall be filled to capacity. Admission free.

Sunday Bible school at 9:45 a. m.

Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m.

English Lutheran Church
Reformation Sunday, Nov. 3, will be appropriately commemorated at the Lutheran church. The pastor will deliver the sermon on the subject, "The Healing Power of the Word of God." The special song numbers, "A Mighty Fortress is our God" and "How Firm a Foundation."

The Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m. The Young People's class will consider the subject, "The Meaning of the Reformation."

This congregation is also invited to hear the sacred band concert at the M. E. church at 7:30 o'clock, under the direction of Andrew Loney Jr. This program is given under the auspices of the La Grande Ministerial association.

First Baptist Church
At the Baptist church Sunday morning, the pastor will speak on "The Christian's Hope." At 6:30 a. m.

stereopticon lecture will take the place of the regular young people's program. These slides were shown to the World Wide Guild girls and those present thought they were so attractive and instructive, that they requested that they be shown Sunday evening so that all who wished might see them.

There will be no evening preaching services on account of the sacred concert given by the band at the M. E. church. Bible school at 9:45, Mrs. Bynum, supt. Prayer meeting Thursday at 7:30. A cordial invitation is given to all services.

First M. E. Church
The subject for morning worship at the First Methodist Episcopal church is "The Door Key to Life." In the evening there will be a sacred concert by the La Grande municipal band.

Sunday school is at 9:45, morning worship at 11, Epworth League devotional meeting at 6:30 and the evening worship at 7:30 o'clock.

Christian Church
A feature of the morning worship at the Central Church of Christ, which begins at 11 o'clock, will be a violin duet by Dorothy Higgins and Edna Turner. The sermon will be on the subject "What Kind of a Church do you Want?"

In the evening there will be no service and all are invited to attend the sacred concert at the M. E. church.

Bible school is at 9:45 a. m. and there will be a meeting of officers and teachers of the school next Tuesday evening.

Christian Endeavor is at 6:30 o'clock, with two interesting meetings—those of high school age and older welcome—led by the young people.

Gospel Mission
In the Sunday evening sermon at the Gospel Mission the pastor, the Rev. Lester Carlson, will speak on the subject "Joseph and His Brethren." In speaking of his sermon, Mr. Carlson says: "The Bible is still the most interesting book of the ages. Its pages are still standing out as a big mirror, the more the world laughs at it, the more it laughs back in the most unaccounting way."

Sunday school is at 10 and morning worship at 11 a. m. with the evening service of evangelism at 7:30 o'clock.

First Church of Christ, Scientist
Services will be held Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m. and 8 p. m. at First Church of Christ, Scientist, at First and Washington streets. "Everlasting Punishment" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Nov. 3.

The Golden text will be, "God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing."

whether it be good, or whether it be evil" (Decl. 12:14).

Among the citations which will comprise the lesson-sermon, are the following from the Bible: "Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished; but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered" (Prov. 11:21).

The lesson-sermon will also include the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Evil is sometimes a man's highest conception of right, until his grasp on good grows stronger; then he loses pleasure in wickedness, and it becomes his torment. The way to escape the misery of sin is to cease sinning. There is no other way" (p. 227).

The evening service is a repetition of the morning service.

Sunday school is held at 9:45 o'clock for children up to the age of 20 years.

The Wednesday evening service which includes testimonies of healing is at 8 o'clock.

The reading room in the West-Jacobson building is open every day from noon to 4:30 o'clock except Sundays and legal holidays. The public is cordially invited to attend the church services and use the reading room.

Episcopal Church
Morning prayer is at 11 a. m. in the St. Peter's Episcopal church following church school at 9:45 o'clock. Miss Gladys Miller will be at the organ and will render "Jubilate Deo" by Silver for the prelude and "Sartre" by Dunham for the postlude. Mrs. S. B. Morgan will sing "In My Father's House are Many Mansions" by MacDermott. The pastor's sermon will be "Branches of Christ."

Normal school fellowship meeting is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Westenhaver at 5 p. m. High school fellowship is at the church at 4 p. m.

There will be no evening service.

because of the concert at the M. E. church.

Church of the Nazarene
The Nazarene church will begin a revival meeting on Nov. 10 and the evangelist will be the Rev. Harry Joseph Elliott, of Nampa, Ida. Mr. Elliott is a good singer and will give musical numbers each evening.

Next Sunday will be the last Sunday before the meetings and the messages of the pastor will be of interest looking forward to this event. The subject for the 11 a. m. service is "Are Revivals a Thing of the Past?" The subject for the 7:30 p. m. service is "Superhuman Manifestations of Salvation."

All are welcomed.

Wisdom in Silence
"To speak," said Ill Ho, the sage of Chinatown, "brings on argument. Our ancestors seem wise because they are now silent and cannot be contradicted."—Washington Star.

Settled Resolve Rare
In truth there is no such thing as man's nature as a settled and full resolve either for good or evil, except at the very moment of execution.—Hawthorne.

Beauty in Forgiveness
In revenge a man is but even with his enemies; but it is a princely thing to pardon, for Solomon saith, "It is the glory of a man to pass over a transgression."—Bacon.
