OREGON FACING STIFF PRACTICE

Will Do Heavy Work for O. S. C. Grid Game During Present Week.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Nov. 6 (Special).—Oregon will complete the bulk of its heavy work in preparation for the great homecoming clash with Oregon State, November 15, before this week is over, and the remaining days will be spent in light practices tapering off for the most important game of the year. Since a few days previous to the Washington game, the Webfoots variety has had its strenuous practice sessions, but a change in the program was announced by Captain John J. McEwan, head coach, following the victory over U. C. L. A. here last Saturday.

The team is in excellent shape and unless there are injuries in the first days of hard practice, the Webfoots will have their full strength available for the Oregon State game. Neither the Webfoots nor the Aztecs have any games scheduled for next Saturday, so it is probable that both teams will be fully prepared for the homecoming fray.

If the Oregon line men can maintain the peak at which they have played the last few games, the possibilities of a victory over the Beavers will be increased. While the Oregon offensive combinations failed to show any spark until the 10th game, the line has played consistent football. The strong showings of Marshall Shields, guard; and Austin Colbert and George Christensen, tackles, has been supplemented by considerable improvement from the lesser luminaries, Jerry Lillis, guard, and Edje Forster, center.

RING LAYING TO START AIRSHIPS

work will be connected by a system of wires of great strength. The designs, designed by Dr. Karl Arndt, who built the giant airships in Germany, will have quarters for a crew of 10. Externally, the new ships will appear rather like the navy's Los Angeles. They will be covered by a water proof and fire proofed cotton fabric.

TWO 8-ROUND MAIN EVENTS FEATURE CARD

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 6 (AP).—The first boxing exhibition staged here since the recent decision of the Portland boxing commission to permit private promotion drew a fair sized crowd to the arena last night. Primo McGale, Seattle and Bob Juhn, Alameda, shared honors in the two six-round main events, McGale winning over Jimmy Dolan and Juhn over Johnny Tremblais. McGale was the aggressor in his bout with Dolan and the decision was marred by his toppling of Dolan in the second round. Dolan rallied in the later rounds, but his power lacked power. The highlight of the evening was the four-round battle which Mickey Dolan won from Jimmy Kelly. Dolan had Kelly woody in the first round with a terrific barrage of head blows and knocked him down in the second for a count of nine with a right to the chin, but Kelly was tough and came back manly. Charley O'Leary made short work of Terry McHugh in another seven-minute scoring the only knockout of the eve in the first round. Jack Lewis took a well earned four round decision over Chuck Sumel. Lewis fought the entire battle with a jockey cut on his cheek. Young Joe Willard won over Young Peter Jackson, four rounds, and Al Straub and Bobby Druggie went four rounds to a draw in the curtain faller.

The rights were promoted by Ralph Truman, well known referee.

MONTANA WILL INVADE BEAR STRONGHOLD

BETHEL, Cal., Nov. 6 (AP).—The fur will fly thick and fast here Saturday when the home-croaching Bears of California university and the hairy Montana Grizzlies tangle in Memorial stadium. At least that was the indication on this end of the competition today, as the Golden Bears, unbeaten this season, prepared for further triumph by lumbering up their gridiron machine.

Chuck Nils-Price ran his squad through a series of signal tactics and drilled his men on plays to be used Saturday, teaching them up here and there with a new idea or two, mainly for speed or to make the punting runs more baffling. Coach Price intends to keep the Montana appreciation growing, but in the "big game" against Stanford, he intends to do more than that. However, his emphasis on plays to be used against Stanford indicates the veteran leader gives the Cardinals no little credit for bunts.

Al Marsters Is Out of Football Games For Fall

BIANOVICH, N. H., Nov. 6 (AP).—Al Marsters, star fullback here today, but college football game a thing of the past. He received a fractured vertebra Saturday in the Yale game.

Dr. John S. Gibe said that the injury would have no permanent effect on the player but it will keep him either in the infirmary or on edge lines while his team plays Brown, Cornell and the Navy. The doctor said he was feeling confident, likely and would be allowed to resume his student work soon. This is the star's senior year.

Two years ago Marsters finished on the gridiron horizon as a halfback. A big year was looked forward to for 1928 but an ankle injury kept him below par.

In the six games Marsters has played this year, "Special Delivery" Al had scored 103 points. His performances against Yale and Harvard were especially brilliant. He was one of the outstanding broken field runners, a great forward passer and a good punter.
