NEW YORK MAYOR IS GIVEN BIG VOTE
from the supreme court bench to accept the democratic nomination. District Attorney Joab H. Danton had declined to run. The vote was 214,967; Couderc 118,104. Another republican setback occurred in the contest for supreme court in the Long Island counties. Stephen Callaghan, republican, whose 14-year term expires this year, was defeated by approximately 50,000 votes by District Attorney Charles J. Dodd, democrat, of Brooklyn.

The Riviera P. T. A. had the largest number of members present. Those delegates to the recent state convention of the Oregon congress of P. T. A., Mrs. Fred Gehring, Mrs. William Collingwood, Riveria; Mrs. David Wylie of Willow; Mrs. William Berry, Mrs. Claude Puckett of Greeny; Mrs. C. P. McPherson, district vice-president, before the convention, and now fifth vice president of Oregon congress, and Mrs. E. D. Towler, president of the La Grande city council, were each given the opportunity to give a brief report of the convention.

The Rev. R. L. Putnam began the meeting with an appropriate invocation.

DEMOCRATIC PARTY WINS
denocratic party to triumph over the coalition of anti-Smith democrats and republicans in yesterday's election. The democratic majority reached 62,450 when returns from 1,539 of the state's 1,652 precincts had been tabulated. Pollard registered 149,013 votes to 86,543 for Dr. William Mosely Brown, coalition candidate.

Indications were that the total vote would fall approximately 50,000 short of the record breaking 306,000 cast in the presidential campaign last year when Virginia, for the first time since reconstruction, was carried by the republican party. Virginia was the first of five southern "Hoover states" to hold a state election.

James H. Price was elected lieutenant-governor and John R. Saunders was re-elected attorney-general in the democratic landslide.

Available tabulations showed the election of 26 democratic and four coalition members of the lower house.

"Raskobism" a term used by Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, one of the organizers of the democratic opposition to Alfred E. Smith, in criticizing John J. Raskob, democratic national committee chairman, often was heard during the campaign. Democrats countered with "Cannonism," in criticism of the bishop.

"De priestism," a term growing out of the circulation of a pamphlet containing pictures of the Negro congressman from Chicago, Oscar De Priest, and his wife, also was frequently heard.

CHAMPAGNE NO LUXURY TO MEN WHO MAKE IT
EPEINAY, France (AP)—This is France's greatest champagne year since 1893 and 1911. Visiting the vineyards while the 1929 vintage was being gathered, an American was guided by the manager of a world famed brand, assisted by four workmen. After two hours spent following the grapes from the vines into the silos or copper bottles, the American invited the workmen to a near-by cafe. Said he:

"Let's have a nice bottle. What will you boys have?"

Lined up at the bar the four, who tolled eight hours or more a day with "the beverage of kings," perked up and as one man fairly shouted:

"Beer!"

SOFIA (AP)—Seven communists, who in 1925 blew up the national cathedral and killed more than 50 government officials, were excluded from the amnesty law recently passed by the national legislature. Among the beneficiaries of the law are former Prime Minister Radostavoff, ex-War Minister Tontcheff and the former Generalissimo Jekoff.
