CONFERENCE WILL SEE THREE GAMES

Stanford Plays Huskies Tomorrow - Cougars Mix With Idaho Team

STANFORD, Nov. 7 (AP)—Offering a respite from the hectic football race during the last two weeks, only one game from each of major importance will lead the feature of conference football tomorrow.

AN HEALING: The Cardinals of Stanford university and the Washington Huskies will clash in the feature contest of the day. The Cardinals have dropped one game this year, to Southern California, and Washington has lost several, but the game promises to be hard fought.

The day will be between Washington State, the leader of Pacific Northwest schools, and the University of Idaho. The game will be played at Pullman, the home of Washington, and from all indications should be a win for the home team.

HOOVERS WILL SEE FOOTBALL TILT SATURDAY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7 (AP)—President Hoover will go to Annapolis tomorrow to attend the Navy-Oregon football game. Mrs. Hoover will accompany him.

The trip will be made in automobile after an early lunch at the White House. The president expects to return to Washington immediately after the game.

Others in the chief executive's party include George H. Aeron, Lawrence Hickey and Walter Newton, the president's three secretaries; Mrs. Hickey and Mrs. Newton; Captain Allen Buchanan, the president's naval aide; and Mrs. Buchanan, and Lieut. Col. Campbell Hodges, the military aide; and Mrs. Hodges.

Huskies to Try Everything In Stanford Game

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 7 (AP)—With a close kick day expected, the Stanford-Washington game here tomorrow is expected to be a battle of strategy, with the visiting Huskies a big factor to win.

Going into the game with nothing to lose, the battered-about Huskies plan to throw caution aside in an effort to score on the powerful Stanford eleven. The Washington combination has a new set of players to show off.

Washington's line and may give the Huskies an interesting afternoon. A conventional backfield is expected to start for Washington, which adds considerable weight to the team. John Patrick, third string quarterback, has been chosen to run the play. Merle Hallford, first-footed ball carrier, and Jimmy Samuels, deft punter, are the probable fullbacks.

NORTH QUILTS AT BAKER FOR NEW POSITION

BAKER, Ore., Nov. 7—William E. North, secretary of the Baker County chamber of commerce since June 1, 1928, tendered his resignation to the board of directors at a meeting in the Hotel Baker yesterday noon and in the afternoon telegraphed his acceptance of a position as secretary of the Corvallis chamber of commerce.

Mr. North, a graduate of Oregon State college, resigned a position with the college memorial organization in 1926 to take over the secretaryship of the Baker chamber. Since establishing his residence here, Mr. North has taken an active part in the affairs of the American Legion, Kiwanis club, Masonic lodge and other civic organizations.

Brilliant Games Scheduled For Big Ten Teams

By William W. L. (Associated Press Sports Writer) CHICAGO, Nov. 7 (AP)—The winter sport season is well advanced and many important Western football conferences are being held in anticipation of tomorrow's brilliant program of games.

Headlined by three inter-collegiate games and one contest of vital championship importance, the day ranks as the biggest of the season in the middle west.

While Illinois goes out to alone for last week's defeat at Northwestern, Minnesota will tackle the toughest foe of the season on Saturday morning at Iowa City. The other inter-collegiate games will bring together Mississippi and Purdue, the Big Ten underdog at Lafayette, Ind.

Ohio State, the surprise team of the conference, will put its Big Ten record straight only by a tie on the block against Northwestern at Columbus, O., and Wisconsin will try to avenge for its initial conference victory at the expense of Chicago at Chicago. Indiana alone will be idle.

Probably the conference Notre Dame and Duke will furnish the
