Members of Alpha Club Are Guests At Dinner - Bridge

Members of Alpha club spent a charming evening last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Dixon at dinner-bridge. Dinner was served at small tables each centered with a lovely rosbud.

Five tables of bridge were at play with Mrs. Adolph Siegrist and William Siegrist winning honors for high tally.

The next evening affair of the club will be in two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bhagner.

Home Department Preparing Boxes

The Home department of the Presbyterian church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. T. Hill with about thirty members in attendance. This organization is now preparing a box to send to Mexico for Christmas, and another box to be used in this community, where it is needed.

Mrs. A. S. Anderson presided. Chrysanthemums from Mrs. Hill's garden were used in decoration. Mrs. C. B. Miller assisted as hostess, and dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. H. Goedecke Hostess to Club

Mrs. H. Goedecke was hostess yesterday at her home during a delightful afternoon to the members of her club with three tables of bridge at play. Mrs. John Harrison won first prize, and second award was presented to Mrs. Robert Quinn. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe Hostess to Club

Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe was hostess at a delightful afternoon of bridge yesterday at the Sacajawea Inn with three tables at play. This was the regular afternoon of the Thursday Bridge Club. Mrs. Lela Jones won honors for high tally. Lovely chrysanthemums were used in decoration.

Diversity Club Continues Study

Mrs. Noel Patrick was hostess to the members of the Diversity club yesterday at her home when they continued the study of Oregon. Mrs. Huff reported on the topic, "The Early Discovery and Settlements of Columbia River," and "The Life and Adventures of Captain Gray," was told by Mrs. Fay Howell.

Following an interesting business meeting games were enjoyed. Among those receiving prizes were Mrs. W. Yedder, Mrs. Claude Puckett, and Mrs. John Price. Nine members were present at this session. Dainty refreshments were served.

Riverside Ladies Aid Meet at Chapel

The Riverside Ladies Aid spent a pleasant afternoon yesterday at Lane Chapel with Mrs. H. E. McAnulty and Mrs. O. B. Maxam as hostesses. About 20 members attended.

Following the business meeting the afternoon was spent playing games and visiting. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The next meeting will be the first Thursday in December.

Masquerade Party At L. M. Hoyt Ranch

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hoyt entertained at a jolly masquerade party at their ranch last Wednesday evening beginning with an oyster supper at 6 o'clock with about thirty covers.

The diversions of the evening were cards and dancing. Six tables of pinocle and bridge were at play. The guests spent a very pleasant evening.

Women's Society In Enjoyable Meeting

The Women's Missionary society of the Christian church met with Mrs. S. C. Lapham Wednesday afternoon at her home with Mrs. C. E. Duff and Mrs. L. S. Weeks assisting as hostesses. Nineteen members and one visitor were present. Mrs. C. F. McPherson presided.

Mrs. R. L. Putnam presented the lesson on "Africa." The Rev. Mr. Putnam reported on the one-day convention held in Baker last month. The suggestion was made that the society take some special missionary work, earning their funds for some certain field. The following committee was appointed to plan for this project: Mrs. Putnam, and Mrs. L. M. Parker. Mrs. G. L. Anderson and Mrs. Arno Voelz were appointed to oversee the sending of a box of cookies to the old people's home before Thanksgiving.

Delicious refreshments were served. The next meeting will be the first Wednesday of December with Mrs. Harry Sandoz, with Mrs. Voelz as leader.

G. I. A. Scores High In Lodge Tests

Members of G. I. A. met yesterday afternoon in the K. P. hall with Mrs. C. C. Bull presiding in the absence of the president, who is ill. Regular business routine took place.

The report was received that the tests taken by the lodge about three weeks ago when the grand lodge representative was here, in ritualistic work and questions on the by-laws, had been scored, and that the organization grade in both divisions was 100 per cent.

Auxiliary Meets With Mrs. Kilgore

The L. A. of B. of L. F. and E. met yesterday at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Kilgore with a social afternoon and a short business meeting. A delicious two-course luncheon was served at small tables, and

S. H. Weimer To Have Dairy Farm - Buys Ten Cows

By Mrs. A. G. Conkila (Observer Correspondent)

COVE, Ore. (Special) — S. H. Weimer is starting out on a new venture. He is going into the dairy business. He is starting out on rather a large scale with 10 cows. The board of directors of school district No. 15, at its regular monthly meeting Monday, transacted some important business. The members ordered an automatic fire extinguisher to equip the school building. The fire hazard in Cove in the past has been very great, but with this new type of extinguisher the danger is very small. It will safeguard the lives of the children and make everyone feel easier to know that the occupants are practically safe.

Mrs. J. R. Price, of Grane, was an overnight guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Laird in Cove. She had made a trip to Boardman to attend the funeral of Mrs. Albert Price, wife of Mr. Price's brother, and on her return trip spent a short time here with her friends.

The Venerable S. W. Crensey, of Pendleton, will be here Sunday for the service at the Ascension Episcopal church at 2:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baum and family have moved to Union on the Catherine creek road. Although the Baums have only lived in Cove for a year their loss will be keenly felt. The high school will miss Orva, Chester and Jean from their ranks and Richard and David are missed by their playmates in the grades.

Lester Boorkgren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Boorkgren, of Wenatchee, Wash., came here a couple of weeks ago to visit his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Mat Boorkgren. He has entered school and will remain all winter.
