ins, entertained their parents at a Halloween party at the school house Thursday afternoon.

The school room was appropriately decorated for the occasion, many symbols of the season having been used.

Following a program which consisted of recitations by Frank Johnson, Albert Hughes, Joe Spencer, Phyllis Johnson, and Pat Hughes, and a class exercise, "Halloween Signs," by five pupils, refreshments, consisting of salads, sandwiches, pumpkin pie with whipped cream, cake and elder were served.

Several prizes were awarded to winners of contests that Mrs. Jenkins conducted, Albert Hughes, Pat Hughes and Robert Spencer winning in fishing for apples.

Vernon DeLong, Albert Hughes and Mildred Spencer receiving the most counts when feeding the jack-o'-lantern; Robert Spencer, side leading in the treasure hunt and Delbert Grout receiving first prize and Phyllis Johnson, second, in the doughnut eating contest.

Mrs. Bert Grout, Mrs. George Hughes and Mrs. Tom Macgibbon carried out an interesting program when they entertained the members of the Countrywoman's club Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Grout.

Grange at the home of the Halloween season, was the color scheme used in the decorations. Three contests were held during the social hour, with Mrs. Sara Anson winning first place in two of them and Miss Minnie Holman first in the other.

Miss Holman, vice president of the club, presided over the business meeting in the place of Mrs. R. A. Masterson, president, who is in Portland. One new member, Mrs. Debert Anson, joined the organization.

The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. John Hamann, Nov. 15. Ernest DeLong and daughter, Frances, accompanied by Mrs. Everett Wallinger and son, Virgil, left last Wednesday morning for Portland in the DeLong car.

While there they visited with Mrs. J. P. DeLong, mother of Mr. DeLong and Mrs. Wallinger, and they also attended the Pacific International Livestock exposition. The party returned home Sunday.
