freezing weather, Eastern Oregon experienced its coldest weather since last winter. In La Grande, the minimum last night was 20 above, which was six degrees colder than any previous minimum recording this season. At 736 o'clock, it was only 22 above and head people shivered as they went to work. The skies were clear this morn-ing, however, the snow flurries of the weekend having been dissipat-ed by Moraday's sunshine.
