Trojans Start East For Game With Irish Team

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 12 (AP)—The Southern California Trojans, 25 of them, accompanied by six coaches, two doctors, and a box of fans, will entrain at six o'clock this evening for Chicago where, next Saturday, they will engage Knute Rockne's Irish from Notre Dame in one of the outstanding football clashes of the current season.

And, as a parting gift, a make-believe Notre Dame team, composed of members of the Trojan second squad, aided by three former Southern California athletes, gave Harry Jones' boys something to think about during the two days and three nights of their journey to the Windy City. This team yesterday, using Notre Dame plays, scored three touchdowns in rapid succession over the valiant sons of Troy and the apparent ease with which they did it caused Coach Jones to keep the squad at practice for an extra hour.

Deaths injuries to Don Moses and Jose Hill, first string fullbacks, Jones announced that both men will accompany the team and will in all probability be able to play in Saturday. He is taking Everett Brown, however, in place of Moses and Hill need seller. "Rocky" Kemp, who broke his leg in last Saturday's game with Nevada, must remain behind, and some concern is felt for Harry Edelson, who has been suffering with an attack of the flu, although Jones said he would be able to accompany the team.

Game Saturday Ends Northwest Oregon Season

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Nov. 12 (Special)—The Oregon football team is rapidly approaching the peak of its preparatory drive for the great homecoming battle with Oregon State here next Saturday. The game is the outstanding tilt of the year for both schools, and is state wide in attraction.

With the Oregon State game the Webfoots will end their 1929 conference season. A victory will give the Oregonians a rating higher than any enjoyed within the last few years. The football year, however, will not be closed against the Aggies, for Oregon begins a long post season schedule which will last into December. Following the Oregon State game the Webfoots play Hawaii in Portland, November 23; St. Mary's at San Francisco, November 25, and Florida at Miami, December 7.

Huge preparations have been made to welcome Oregon alumni back to the campus next week. The customary rally will be held Friday night with the flaming "O" on Skinner's hill as the gathering point of activity. The football team will be removed from the city to escape the general excitement which precedes a game with the Beavers.

KENTUCKY MAY PLAY GAME ON COAST DEC. 25

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 12 (AP)—R. A. Hales, athletic director, announced today that the University of Kentucky football team has been invited to play a Pacific coast game on December 25. The invitation was received Sunday from St. Mary's college, Oakland, Cal., which held California to a scoreless tie this season.

The athletic authorities do not contemplate accepting the invitation, however, unless the Wildcats, put off of the Southern conference next Saturday by Alabama, should defeat both Virginia Military Institute and Tennessee in remaining games. Even in that event permission would have to be obtained from Southern conference officials, and there was said to be doubt that it would be granted.

Dempsey's Charity Is Not For Dogs

CHICAGO, Nov. 12 (AP)—Jack Dempsey still has a heart, but it's for children, not dogs.

The former world's heavyweight champion refused today to allow his name to be connected with a charity boxing show to raise funds for the orphans of the storm, a home for friendless dogs sponsored by Mrs. Frederick McLaughlin, the former Irene Castle.

"There are too many needy kids," was his only comment.

BAKER—Thirty-five Baker business men have returned from Burns, where they were entertained on a goodwill tour.

SALEM—The Western Board Products company, organized here recently with a capital stock of $100,000, announced establishment of a plant in Salem to cost $75,000.

Haskell Indians To Play Teachers

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 12 (AP)—Captained by Louis Weller, 140-pound Caddo Indian halfback who is credited with a 105-yard run for a touchdown this season, the Haskell Indians will meet the Klamath Falls teachers here Saturday in their last game in home territory before going east to battle Duquesne and St. Xavier.

Weller made his long run against Creighton in a night game in Omaha, which the Indians won, 19 to 13. Taking the kickoff five yards back of his own goal line, Weller sped down the field behind perfect interference for a touchdown.

The colorful Indian team, which spends most of the season on the road, has won five of its six games this season.

William H. Long (Star) Dietz, part Indian himself, is coaching the team for the first year.

Camels are for knowing smokers!

It's just too bad if any smoker because of misinformation denies himself or herself the pleasure of CAMELS.

New smokers are not always in a position to have a real preference in cigarettes. But when they acquaint themselves with Camels they develop that sense of discrimination that leads to real smoking pleasure. Camels are made so carefully and of so good a blend of choicest cigarette tobaccos that even those with inexperienced smoking taste quickly recognize their superiority. They are for those who appreciate the taste of choice tobaccos, the fragrance of a perfect blend and the soothing mellowness of a really satisfying cigarette.

ALLEN INGERSOL BOUT ENDS EVEN

Cliff Hottinger Given Nod Over Kid Alabama — Worder Wins Decision

Delmer Allen of La Grande and George Ingersol of Astoria fought to a 10-round draw in a colorless main event here last night at Rex hall, in the annual Armistice day boxing card. Allen and Ingersol have met several times and both were so well versed in what to expect that the fight fell far short of spectators' anticipations.

Neither fighter was in much danger at any time, although a few solid smashes landed, and the majority of the time found them either boxing or in a clinch. The last round found both boys, however, trying to get over a knockout punch, with neither succeeding. In some respects this was the best round of the fight.

Allen Evened Up Match
 Ingersol piled up an early lead, but in later rounds Allen came back to take the Astorian's advantake away and even up the count.

In the semi-final six-round event Cliff Hottinger of Los Angeles, substituting for Westover of Vernonia, won a decision over Kid Alabama of La Grande. The Kid had a lead in the first three rounds, spectators believed, but weakened in the later frames.

In the second preliminary Ector Warden of La Grande won a decision over Kid Dolan of Walls Walla by taking the last two rounds. The first round was slow, but the fighters began mixing it more in the last of the battle, with both stopping some hard clouts.

Lavon Walker lost to Glen Ford in the first round of the first match on a technical knockout. Ford outclassed his opponent from the start, dropping him to the floor for an eight or nine count shortly before the referee stopped the fight to save Walker from further punishment.

A fair-sized crowd was in attendance. O. D. Scott refereed the last two bouts and Carl Becker presided in the preliminaries. Carl Helm announced the fights and Police Chief Clint Boyson served as timer.

Don't give your children matches to play with. Give them cigarette lighters, they're less dangerous.
