Herriot Reports European Unity Idea Is Feasible

PARIS (AP)— Edouard Herriot, ex-premier of France, has returned from a lecture tour in Central Europe enthusiastic over the plan advanced by Aristide Briand to organize the United States of Europe.

Basing his impressions particularly upon his visits to Germany, M. Herriot expressed his conviction that no really insurmountable objections have come to combat the formation of an European federation and that he is not alarmed over any idea that a federation would result in a struggle between America and Europe.

He argued that the Pan-American conference has not prevented the republics of South America from collaborating with the league of nations at Geneva and that Pan-Americanism interferes neither with the United States nor the league. He added:

"Moreover, the American people are too practical to see any danger in a United States of Europe. I believe that Russia one day will adhere to our project and that England cannot afford to hold an attitude of splendid isolation. Pan-Europeanism is necessary in order to secure a settlement of the grave social problems which menace Europe."

Mr. Herriot said he found Holland, Belgium and Czechoslovakia particularly interested in the plan because it was regarded as an important advance for the consolidation of peace.

As a first step, M. Herriot favors the creation of a permanent central organization which would study all economic questions that possess a vital interest for European nations, such matters as river navigation, international traffic regulations, aviation and radio broadcasting. He also favors a single European postoffice system which was advocated so earnestly by the late Foreign Minister of Germany Gustav Stresemann.

Rockne to Direct Ramblers Saturday

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 12 (AP)—Knute Rockne will direct his Notre Dame football warriors from a wheel chair Saturday when thye clash with the Southern California Trojans on Chicago's Soldier field.

Rockne's right leg, incapacitated for more than a month by a blood clot, has improved rapidly. He has been able to leave his bed, but his physician insists that he remain off his feet as much as possible. So the wheel chair will be used as it was when he went to Pittsburgh to direct the Ramblers against Carnegie Tech October 26.

PERSHING LEAVES PARIS

PARIS, Nov. 12 (AP)—General Pershing left here today for Cherbourg where he will board the Leviathan back to America.

During a trial in a French court a man laughed so loudly that he was ejected. Maybe the French are copying our system of picking juries.

Change sometimes helps us to a better view of life — if we get enough change and spend it wisely.

TRADE MARK REG.

By Junius

We read where a street car conductor's wife got a divorce. We wonder if, true to his trade, he told her where to get off at.

The room was dark.
It was two a. m.
Her father came to the top of the stairs and called.
No answer.
He came to the bottom of the stairs and called.
No answer.
Angrily striding into the parlor, he switched on the lights.
There was no one there!

A girl is always a bit uneasy for several months after she returns from her vacation. She is afraid that some of the men she met during her holidays will accept her invitation to call when they are in town.

Husbands often buy suits with two pairs of trousers just so their wives will have to go through twice as many pockets to get anything.

• • •

A N. C. man recently fainted three times at his own wedding. It was no use, however. They waited until he came too the third time and then went on with it.

Teacher: "And just think! One of you may be president some day. All of you who would like to be president, please rise." (All rose except little Willie.) "Well, Willie, what's the matter. Wouldn't you like to be president?"

Willie: "Y'yes'm, I would, but I can't."

Teacher: "Why not?"

Willie: "Because-because I-I-I-democrat."

Neighbor: "So you are going to marry? Have you anything laid up?"

Helen: "Yes, I've a rich old man laid up with a paralytic stroke. I'm his only surviving relative."
