

OVER THE VALLEY

Mabel E. Morton, Valley News Editor
Phone: Residence, 412-J; Office, Main 17

To Study Poultry—Prof. Don Stewart of the Smith-Hughes department of the timber high school is announcing a series of meetings to discuss the business of poultry raising in this valley...

Have Fine Dinner—The community dinner staged Tuesday evening at the Island City church by the members of the Ladies Aid was quite successful...

Doing Satisfactorily—Reports from the bedside of Mrs. Walter M. Pierce of Island City, who is a patient at Hot Lake, are to the effect that her condition is satisfactory and she seems to be responding to the treatment.

Visits Mother—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fox of Union Grove, who were in the valley during the week, were guests at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. E. Wilson, Appleton, during the week...

Stop for Visit—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kunkel stopped in the valley early this week for a visit at the Harry Fisher home. Mr. and Mrs. Kunkel live on their farm near Warfield, Ida., during three seasons of the year and spend their winters at Forest Grove, Ore. They stopped off here on their way of the latter place. They were greatly impressed with this valley.

Better Again—Mrs. Charles Spencer of the Grande, who was ill during the past week, is reported as being much better again.

Son Meets Mother—Rev. Hall K. Wallis of Enterprise, former pastor of the church at Island City, drove out from his home yesterday to La Grande to meet his mother, Mrs. S. Wallis, who will winter at Warfield, Enterprise. Mrs. Wallis had come from her home in Bullimore, Md.

Given Birthday Party—Wilbur Morgan, who lives with his aunt, Mrs. O. O. Shafer, was given a birthday party Monday afternoon by Mrs. Shafer, eight of his schoolmates at Moss Chapel school having been the guests. The afternoon was spent playing games the youngsters enjoy and with refreshments equally enjoyable.

Make Short Visit—Mrs. Isaac Shafer, of near Island City, had for her guests Monday of this week her two nephews, William and Joe Doolin, of Ontario.

Have Work Meeting—While the attendance at the all-day meeting of the Allcoi aid yesterday was smaller than usual, the company which spent the day at the Union hall accomplished a great deal of work during the day. The work was done for Miss Margaret, the county health nurse, and the comforters and quilts will be used for charitable purposes. One new wool top was completed, two new comfort backs and one new print top were made, and 50 blocks were pieced which will be put together later. At a short business meeting held Mrs. Hazel Fuller was elected secretary, to take the place of Mrs. Jessie Fisher, who is moving from the district.

Large Funeral—The funeral of the late W. J. Townley, held yesterday at Union, was very largely attended, a large company of old-time friends from this section thus paying their last tribute of respect to the memory of this former prominent citizen. Mr. Townley was one of the large landowners of the valley and was a very useful and public-spirited citizen.

To Halfway—Mr. and Mrs. Beaul Hug of Elgin drove to Halfway Sunday and visited for a few days among friends. They accompanied Rev. Harriman to Halfway, the minister conducting services there Sunday evening.

Operated Yesterday—Miss Jane Conrad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Conrad of near Imbler was operated yesterday at the Grande Tendon hospital for appendicitis.

Visits Sister—Mrs. Ida Morton of Goldendale, Wash. is in the valley visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ed Kiddle, at Island City, and with other relatives and friends. Mrs. Morton plans to leave the last of the week for California, where she will spend the winter.

Attend Dinner—A number of cars of Union county and La Grande people drove to Muddy creek Wednesday evening and attended the Puritan dinner served by the P. T. A., of which Mrs. Ruby Ledbetter Loening is the president. The dinner was up to the very high standard set in preceding years, 500 pounds of turkey having been roasted by the ladies of the community. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Donnel and daughters, Jane and Ardella, formerly of this valley, now living close to the Muddy creek school, were in the crowd. Mrs. Daniel having assisted with the dinner and Jane helping in the booth which the Camp Fire girls had.

To California—Mrs. Gem-Russell Terrall of Cedar Rapids, Ia., who has been spending the past week visiting at the home of her nephew, L. Z. Terrall, and family at Union and with her friend, "Over the Valley," left this morning for Portland, then to Roseville, Berkeley and Los Angeles, California, on her way to her home. After coming to visit her relatives in the valley, Mrs. Terrall found in this corner of Oregon, so far from her home, a number of old friends whom she was glad to meet again—Mrs. R. P. Tyler, Mrs. Annfield and the Rev. and Mrs. Ira Aldrich. The Iowa visitor, according to her own description, "was thrilled at our valley, so beautiful right now," as always.

To Seattle—Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Gowing of Joseph, representative of one of the grange organizations in Wallawa county, went to Seattle Wednesday to attend the meeting of the national grange. They expected to be gone from eastern Oregon for about 10 days or two weeks.

Return From Valley—Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dobbins have returned from Portland and other places in the Willamette valley, where they have been for the last ten days on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Suffers Big Loss—Sheep raisers in this valley, and particularly those who attended the Oregon state fair at Pendleton in August, will be sad with interest concerning the loss recently sustained by Dave L. Johnson of Pendleton. Dogs attacked Mr. Johnson's band of purebred sheep and killed 19 rams, and the interesting part is that they were 10 of the 15 rams purchased from those offered for sale by Jim Dobbins, Hugh Huron and Harry G. Avery of this valley. The story as it has been given out within the last few days is as follows: Dave L. Johnson of Pendleton recently lost 10 head of purebred Hampshire rams through the use of a dog which he had recently purchased from a neighbor. The dog was a black and white pointer and was named "Buck." The dog was kept in the pasture at about the time the rams were killed. The rams were some which Mr. Johnson had purchased at the last Oregon ram sale at Pendleton.

(Continued on Page Twelve)

Rebekahs Hold District Meeting Tuesday Night—A district convention of the Rebekah lodges of the county was held on the afternoon and evening of Tuesday, November 12, at Elgin, with about 150 members present from the lodges of Cove, La Grande, Summerville, Union and Elgin. The occasion was the annual visit of the state president, Mrs. Hattie Ingte, of Corvallis, who is touring the state and visiting lodges in each county. Mrs. Mac Rasmussen, member of the Elgin lodge and county president of the convention, presided at the sessions. Mrs. R. L. Shoemaker welcomed the visiting Rebekahs and the state president on behalf of the Elgin members who were hostesses for the day. A response was given by Mrs. Henry McGoldrick of the La Grande lodge. A team from the Elgin lodge exemplified the fraternal work of the order; the La Grande lodge demonstrated how one lodge visits another in a body; Cove showed how a member is received into a lodge by transfer card, and Union went through the ceremony of granting the charter in memory of a member who has died. State President Ingte gave an interesting talk on the work and purpose of the Rebekah lodge and conducted a question box for the benefit of members who desired information about the order. The afternoon session closed at 6 o'clock and the members enjoyed it because served by the ladies of the Christian church. The evening session began at 8 o'clock and lasted until after 11. Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, Sadie Connor of Union; vice president, Ava Woodell of Summerville; secretary, Pearl Shaw of Union; treasurer, Mrs. C. W. Clark of Cove; right supporter to the president, the state president and supporter, Thelma Hug of La Grande; right supporter to the vice president, Gladys Callus of Cove; left supporter, Doris Hill of Elgin; inside guardian, Emma Richards of Cove, and outside guardian, Pearl Richards of Cove. Interesting talks, instrumental numbers and readings were given by members from most of the lodges. After deciding to hold the 1930 convention in Union, the evening session closed in form, the Elgin officers in charge.

new home within the next few weeks. The farm, which consists of 240 acres, is a short distance this side of Cove and the residence is opposite the Shanghai schoolhouse. The old neighbors report having the Fisher family move from the neighborhood where they have lived for so long, and townships will be held by her schoolmates at the Valeria school.

While the attendance at the all-day meeting of the Allcoi aid yesterday was smaller than usual, the company which spent the day at the Union hall accomplished a great deal of work during the day. The work was done for Miss Margaret, the county health nurse, and the comforters and quilts will be used for charitable purposes. One new wool top was completed, two new comfort backs and one new print top were made, and 50 blocks were pieced which will be put together later. At a short business meeting held Mrs. Hazel Fuller was elected secretary, to take the place of Mrs. Jessie Fisher, who is moving from the district.

The funeral of the late W. J. Townley, held yesterday at Union, was very largely attended, a large company of old-time friends from this section thus paying their last tribute of respect to the memory of this former prominent citizen. Mr. Townley was one of the large landowners of the valley and was a very useful and public-spirited citizen.

Mr. and Mrs. Beaul Hug of Elgin drove to Halfway Sunday and visited for a few days among friends. They accompanied Rev. Harriman to Halfway, the minister conducting services there Sunday evening.

Miss Jane Conrad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Conrad of near Imbler was operated yesterday at the Grande Tendon hospital for appendicitis.

Mrs. Ida Morton of Goldendale, Wash. is in the valley visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ed Kiddle, at Island City, and with other relatives and friends. Mrs. Morton plans to leave the last of the week for California, where she will spend the winter.

A number of cars of Union county and La Grande people drove to Muddy creek Wednesday evening and attended the Puritan dinner served by the P. T. A., of which Mrs. Ruby Ledbetter Loening is the president. The dinner was up to the very high standard set in preceding years, 500 pounds of turkey having been roasted by the ladies of the community. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Donnel and daughters, Jane and Ardella, formerly of this valley, now living close to the Muddy creek school, were in the crowd. Mrs. Daniel having assisted with the dinner and Jane helping in the booth which the Camp Fire girls had.

Mrs. Gem-Russell Terrall of Cedar Rapids, Ia., who has been spending the past week visiting at the home of her nephew, L. Z. Terrall, and family at Union and with her friend, "Over the Valley," left this morning for Portland, then to Roseville, Berkeley and Los Angeles, California, on her way to her home. After coming to visit her relatives in the valley, Mrs. Terrall found in this corner of Oregon, so far from her home, a number of old friends whom she was glad to meet again—Mrs. R. P. Tyler, Mrs. Annfield and the Rev. and Mrs. Ira Aldrich. The Iowa visitor, according to her own description, "was thrilled at our valley, so beautiful right now," as always.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Gowing of Joseph, representative of one of the grange organizations in Wallawa county, went to Seattle Wednesday to attend the meeting of the national grange. They expected to be gone from eastern Oregon for about 10 days or two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dobbins have returned from Portland and other places in the Willamette valley, where they have been for the last ten days on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Sheep raisers in this valley, and particularly those who attended the Oregon state fair at Pendleton in August, will be sad with interest concerning the loss recently sustained by Dave L. Johnson of Pendleton. Dogs attacked Mr. Johnson's band of purebred sheep and killed 19 rams, and the interesting part is that they were 10 of the 15 rams purchased from those offered for sale by Jim Dobbins, Hugh Huron and Harry G. Avery of this valley. The story as it has been given out within the last few days is as follows: Dave L. Johnson of Pendleton recently lost 10 head of purebred Hampshire rams through the use of a dog which he had recently purchased from a neighbor. The dog was a black and white pointer and was named "Buck." The dog was kept in the pasture at about the time the rams were killed. The rams were some which Mr. Johnson had purchased at the last Oregon ram sale at Pendleton.

(Continued on Page Twelve)

A district convention of the Rebekah lodges of the county was held on the afternoon and evening of Tuesday, November 12, at Elgin, with about 150 members present from the lodges of Cove, La Grande, Summerville, Union and Elgin. The occasion was the annual visit of the state president, Mrs. Hattie Ingte, of Corvallis, who is touring the state and visiting lodges in each county. Mrs. Mac Rasmussen, member of the Elgin lodge and county president of the convention, presided at the sessions. Mrs. R. L. Shoemaker welcomed the visiting Rebekahs and the state president on behalf of the Elgin members who were hostesses for the day. A response was given by Mrs. Henry McGoldrick of the La Grande lodge. A team from the Elgin lodge exemplified the fraternal work of the order; the La Grande lodge demonstrated how one lodge visits another in a body; Cove showed how a member is received into a lodge by transfer card, and Union went through the ceremony of granting the charter in memory of a member who has died. State President Ingte gave an interesting talk on the work and purpose of the Rebekah lodge and conducted a question box for the benefit of members who desired information about the order. The afternoon session closed at 6 o'clock and the members enjoyed it because served by the ladies of the Christian church. The evening session began at 8 o'clock and lasted until after 11. Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, Sadie Connor of Union; vice president, Ava Woodell of Summerville; secretary, Pearl Shaw of Union; treasurer, Mrs. C. W. Clark of Cove; right supporter to the president, the state president and supporter, Thelma Hug of La Grande; right supporter to the vice president, Gladys Callus of Cove; left supporter, Doris Hill of Elgin; inside guardian, Emma Richards of Cove, and outside guardian, Pearl Richards of Cove. Interesting talks, instrumental numbers and readings were given by members from most of the lodges. After deciding to hold the 1930 convention in Union, the evening session closed in form, the Elgin officers in charge.

Even though he hates to wash his neck! Your boy is mighty dear to your heart. You want him to thrive and enjoy life. Let him have plenty of Tru-Bake Crackers. They have the stuff that makes boys strong—and keeps girls beautiful. Crisp, delicious, economical!

Tru-Bake Crackers. Order from Your Grocer. Baked and Guaranteed First Quality by the TRU-BLU BISCUIT COMPANY—Spokane, Portland, Seattle.

new home within the next few weeks. The farm, which consists of 240 acres, is a short distance this side of Cove and the residence is opposite the Shanghai schoolhouse. The old neighbors report having the Fisher family move from the neighborhood where they have lived for so long, and townships will be held by her schoolmates at the Valeria school.

While the attendance at the all-day meeting of the Allcoi aid yesterday was smaller than usual, the company which spent the day at the Union hall accomplished a great deal of work during the day. The work was done for Miss Margaret, the county health nurse, and the comforters and quilts will be used for charitable purposes. One new wool top was completed, two new comfort backs and one new print top were made, and 50 blocks were pieced which will be put together later. At a short business meeting held Mrs. Hazel Fuller was elected secretary, to take the place of Mrs. Jessie Fisher, who is moving from the district.

The funeral of the late W. J. Townley, held yesterday at Union, was very largely attended, a large company of old-time friends from this section thus paying their last tribute of respect to the memory of this former prominent citizen. Mr. Townley was one of the large landowners of the valley and was a very useful and public-spirited citizen.

Mr. and Mrs. Beaul Hug of Elgin drove to Halfway Sunday and visited for a few days among friends. They accompanied Rev. Harriman to Halfway, the minister conducting services there Sunday evening.

Miss Jane Conrad, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Conrad of near Imbler was operated yesterday at the Grande Tendon hospital for appendicitis.

Mrs. Ida Morton of Goldendale, Wash. is in the valley visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ed Kiddle, at Island City, and with other relatives and friends. Mrs. Morton plans to leave the last of the week for California, where she will spend the winter.

A number of cars of Union county and La Grande people drove to Muddy creek Wednesday evening and attended the Puritan dinner served by the P. T. A., of which Mrs. Ruby Ledbetter Loening is the president. The dinner was up to the very high standard set in preceding years, 500 pounds of turkey having been roasted by the ladies of the community. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Donnel and daughters, Jane and Ardella, formerly of this valley, now living close to the Muddy creek school, were in the crowd. Mrs. Daniel having assisted with the dinner and Jane helping in the booth which the Camp Fire girls had.

Mrs. Gem-Russell Terrall of Cedar Rapids, Ia., who has been spending the past week visiting at the home of her nephew, L. Z. Terrall, and family at Union and with her friend, "Over the Valley," left this morning for Portland, then to Roseville, Berkeley and Los Angeles, California, on her way to her home. After coming to visit her relatives in the valley, Mrs. Terrall found in this corner of Oregon, so far from her home, a number of old friends whom she was glad to meet again—Mrs. R. P. Tyler, Mrs. Annfield and the Rev. and Mrs. Ira Aldrich. The Iowa visitor, according to her own description, "was thrilled at our valley, so beautiful right now," as always.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Gowing of Joseph, representative of one of the grange organizations in Wallawa county, went to Seattle Wednesday to attend the meeting of the national grange. They expected to be gone from eastern Oregon for about 10 days or two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dobbins have returned from Portland and other places in the Willamette valley, where they have been for the last ten days on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Sheep raisers in this valley, and particularly those who attended the Oregon state fair at Pendleton in August, will be sad with interest concerning the loss recently sustained by Dave L. Johnson of Pendleton. Dogs attacked Mr. Johnson's band of purebred sheep and killed 19 rams, and the interesting part is that they were 10 of the 15 rams purchased from those offered for sale by Jim Dobbins, Hugh Huron and Harry G. Avery of this valley. The story as it has been given out within the last few days is as follows: Dave L. Johnson of Pendleton recently lost 10 head of purebred Hampshire rams through the use of a dog which he had recently purchased from a neighbor. The dog was a black and white pointer and was named "Buck." The dog was kept in the pasture at about the time the rams were killed. The rams were some which Mr. Johnson had purchased at the last Oregon ram sale at Pendleton.

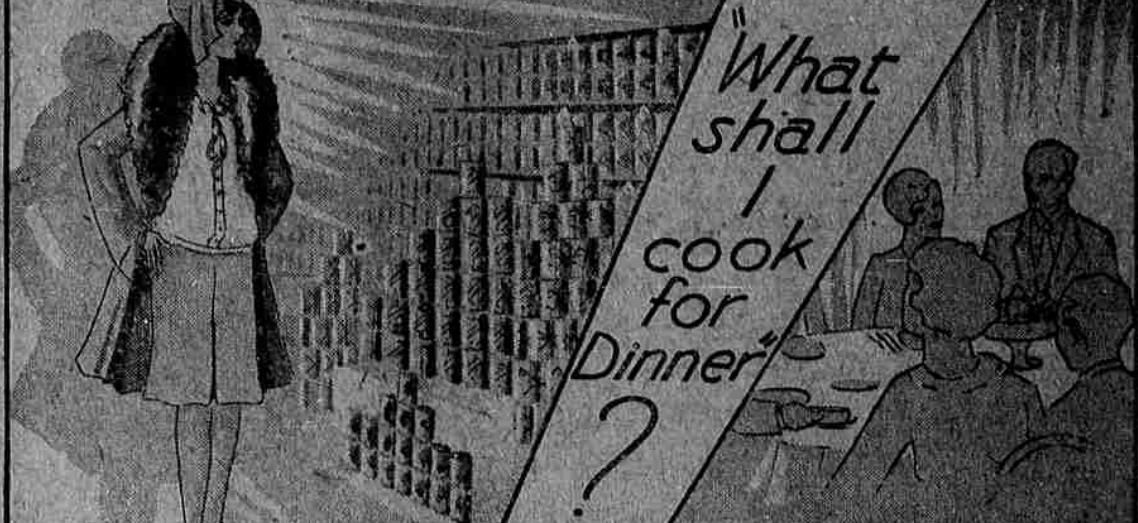

(Continued on Page Twelve)

A district convention of the Rebekah lodges of the county was held on the afternoon and evening of Tuesday, November 12, at Elgin, with about 150 members present from the lodges of Cove, La Grande, Summerville, Union and Elgin. The occasion was the annual visit of the state president, Mrs. Hattie Ingte, of Corvallis, who is touring the state and visiting lodges in each county. Mrs. Mac Rasmussen, member of the Elgin lodge and county president of the convention, presided at the sessions. Mrs. R. L. Shoemaker welcomed the visiting Rebekahs and the state president on behalf of the Elgin members who were hostesses for the day. A response was given by Mrs. Henry McGoldrick of the La Grande lodge. A team from the Elgin lodge exemplified the fraternal work of the order; the La Grande lodge demonstrated how one lodge visits another in a body; Cove showed how a member is received into a lodge by transfer card, and Union went through the ceremony of granting the charter in memory of a member who has died. State President Ingte gave an interesting talk on the work and purpose of the Rebekah lodge and conducted a question box for the benefit of members who desired information about the order. The afternoon session closed at 6 o'clock and the members enjoyed it because served by the ladies of the Christian church. The evening session began at 8 o'clock and lasted until after 11. Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, Sadie Connor of Union; vice president, Ava Woodell of Summerville; secretary, Pearl Shaw of Union; treasurer, Mrs. C. W. Clark of Cove; right supporter to the president, the state president and supporter, Thelma Hug of La Grande; right supporter to the vice president, Gladys Callus of Cove; left supporter, Doris Hill of Elgin; inside guardian, Emma Richards of Cove, and outside guardian, Pearl Richards of Cove. Interesting talks, instrumental numbers and readings were given by members from most of the lodges. After deciding to hold the 1930 convention in Union, the evening session closed in form, the Elgin officers in charge.

Even though he hates to wash his neck! Your boy is mighty dear to your heart. You want him to thrive and enjoy life. Let him have plenty of Tru-Bake Crackers. They have the stuff that makes boys strong—and keeps girls beautiful. Crisp, delicious, economical!

Tru-Bake Crackers. Order from Your Grocer. Baked and Guaranteed First Quality by the TRU-BLU BISCUIT COMPANY—Spokane, Portland, Seattle.

THE QUESTION EVERY WOMAN ASKS HERSELF

The problem of "what to cook" need not bother you now. Just check the suggested items on this ad. Then visit a nearby MACMARR STORE and complete your selection for your menus from our shelves of inviting foods. It's easy, pleasant—and economical—to solve your menu question the MACMARR way!

ECONOMICAL PRICES -- NOVEMBER 16th & 18th

- Currants New, Fresh—Very Clean 15-oz. Package 2 Pkgs. for . . . . . 43c
Walnuts Diamond No. 1 Every nut branded 2 lbs. . . . . 55c
Emerald Brand Medium size 2 lbs. . . . . 45c
Northern Tissue The modern bathroom paper 3 Rolls for . . . . . 25c
White King Lge. Pkg. . . . . 39c
S & K Pickles Sweet Sliced or Sweet Mustard Full Pint Jar . . . . . 19c
New Rice Extra Fancy Blue Rose 3 Pounds . . . . . 25c
Brown Rice With all the natural vitamins, mineral salts and food value. 3 Pounds . . . . . 25c
Raisins Sunmaid Brand 4-Pound Bag . . . . . 29c
Peanut Butter Jumbo Brand Made from Virginia Peanuts 2-lb. Glass Jar . . . . . 49c
New Corn Meal White or Yellow 9-lb. Bag . . . . . 39c
Puritan Malt Syrup 2 3/4-lb. Can . . . . . 49c
Rolled Oats Buckeye Brand 9-lb. Bag . . . . . 49c
Dry Beans Great Northern 2 Pounds . . . . . 23c
5 Pounds . . . . . 59c
Red Mexicans 3 Pounds . . . . . 25c
5 Pounds . . . . . 39c
CANNED GOODS SALE Ends Saturday More than 40 items offered at special prices. Stock up now for the winter's supply. Buy More and Save More
O'Cedar Polish Regular 60c Value 12 oz. Bottle for . . . 39c
Palmolive Soap 6 Bars . . . . . 43c
RAISINS -- Sunmaid Brand Nectar Seedless or Puffed Seeded 2 Packages . . . . . 23c

Just a Few of the Many Canned Goods Savings Still in Effect

Table with 5 columns: Item, No., Price per unit, Price per unit, Price per unit. Lists various canned goods like Corn, Hominy, Spinach, Sauer Kraut, Grapefruit, Peaches, Pineapple, Crabmeat, Salmon.

MACMARR STORES