Entertain Friends At Bridge Party Saturday Evening

At a delightful evening of bridge Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Gardner were host and hostess Saturday evening at their home on N avenue.

Mrs. Ross Eaton and Herbert Davies won honors for high score, with three tables at play. Consolation prizes were awarded to Mrs. Herbert Davies and Perry Caldwell. Clusters of orchid chrysanthemums were attractively arranged about the home. During the evening dainty refreshments were served.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Dentch of Portland, who are staying at the home of her mother, Mrs. Frank Harris.

Admits Slaying Young Woman After Quarrel

REDWOOD CITY, Cal., Nov. 13 (AP)—Sheriff's officers announced here today that Kirk, 26, who confessed Saturday that he slew Clara Hoeko, 39, a San Francisco school teacher because of her refusal to wed him, had admitted that he had been married to four women in the last fifteen years but had been legally separated from only one of them.

Kirk's purported admissions, made in his cell last night only a few doors removed from the chapel where the body of his victim is awaiting funeral arrangements, moved Sheriff J. J. McGrath, of San Mateo county, to telegraph police of the southwest, scene of the man's multiple marriages, in an effort to locate the four wives.

Exhibiting the same nonchalance with which he led detectives Saturday to where Miss Hoeko's body, the throat slashed, lay in a clump of bushes on a golf course at San Carlos, Kirk whistled and laughed in his cell throughout the day, freely discussing with his jailors the motive and events preceding the slaying.

Tells of Crime
"We went for a ride and I asked her to marry me," Kirk said. "When she refused, we quarreled and I cut her throat with my pocket knife. Then I drove back to San Francisco, ate dinner, and had a few dances and went to bed."
Revelations of his previous marriages, police said, were made last night.

Reference to his last marriage to Marie Lee at Yuma, Ariz., was contained in Kirk's diary found yesterday in his hotel by Sheriff McGrath.

J. T. Summerville, San Francisco attorney, revealed yesterday Kirk had retained him to bring an annulment action last September in connection with his last marriage. As grounds, Summerville told police, Kirk declared he was insane at the time of the ceremony and produced records to show he had been previously con-

FIRST AIR BABY NOW NEEDS NAME

It wasn't an air male, as might be supposed, but a 7 1/2-pound daughter who was born in an airplane flying 1200 feet above Miami, Fla. The mother and baby "airliss" are pictured above after the first aerial birth on record. In the "flying maternity hospital"—a large cabin plane—were nurses, a doctor, relatives of the mother, and two pilots. An airy name is being sought for the child.

Kirk was unable to provide information as to the present whereabouts of the four women.

The first official passage through the Panama canal was made on August 15, 1914. It was made by the steamship Ancon. Since then thousands of ships have used it to go from one ocean to another.

Silly Belief About Rabies
Rabies can be transmitted only by animals that are actually diseased at the time. There is no foundation for the belief that persons bitten by a dog which subsequently becomes rabid may contract the malady.

Lower Animals Smell Fear
Wild animals smell fear in human beings; not merely sense it, but smell it actually. . . . for man's glands, acting from the brain, give forth certain excretions caused by this state of fear; animals having the advantage of this information proceed to attack, says I. G. Holcott.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helps Her So Much

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"I was just completely run-down. I had tired, heavy, sluggish feelings and I could not eat. I was losing in weight. I read so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what a good medicine it is, that I started taking it. I have taken eight bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and about the same in tablet form. This is one medicine a woman should have in the house all the time. I am improving every day and I sure am able to eat. I am willing to answer any letters asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. ELLA RICHARDS, 21 Chautauqua St., N. S. Pittsburgh, Pa.

tomato fashion, a dish which combines them with some other material often is necessary to introduce this valuable vegetable into the diet. Since scientists assure us that tomatoes can be cooked without damage to their vitamins, canned and baked dishes should be freely used.
Luncheon rice and tomatoes served with shredded cabbage, lettuce, endive or cross furnishes a complete meal for adults as well as children.
The cheese used in this mixture makes meat unnecessary.
Luncheon Rice and Tomatoes
Two cups cooked rice, 2 cups tomato pulp, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 1/2 pound grated cheese, 2 tablespoons minced sauer pepper, 2 tablespoons minced celery, 1 tablespoon onion juice, 1-4 cup buttered crumbs.
Rub tomatoes through a coarse sieve to remove seeds. Combine rice and tomatoes and add salt, minced pepper, celery, onion juice and softened (not melted) butter. Mix thoroughly and put a layer into a well buttered baking dish. Add a layer of grated cheese and continue layer for layer until all is used. Then cover with buttered crumbs and bake 20 minutes in a moderate oven. Serve from baking dish.

Chivalry Never Dead
Some say the age of chivalry is past, that the spirit of romance is dead. The age of chivalry is never just so long as there is a wrong left unredressed on earth.—Kingsley

WHY DO YOU TELL CHILDREN TO SAVE THEIR MONEY?

You know, of course, that it's important to save as you earn. You naturally want to teach your children to save—but do you tell them why they should save?

The "rainy day" of a generation ago isn't as vital a reason as it used to be. You are more practical, and you must provide practical reasons for your children to save.

Give your child a worthwhile goal toward which he can work and saving is more easily accomplished. If a boy's heart's desire is a bicycle, or a girl's a cedar chest, let them save for that purpose. If they look forward to a college education, let them save with that as their goal.

Even though you are able to provide it for them they learn to save for a purpose. They quickly acquire new reasons for saving—and the foundation of a thrifty life is laid.
