Kamela People Expect to Move To South State

By Mrs. C. E. Thornburg

HILGARD, Ore. (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. W. Evans, who have lived in Kamela for several years, are planning on going to live in Arkansas soon, where they expect to make their home. They will be greatly missed by Kamela people who have enjoyed their friendship for so long.

Mrs. Joseph Ward, of Pendleton, was a business visitor in Kamela, on Monday.

It has been very cold and frosty here for the last few nights, but the days are still wonderful.

Mrs. P. Brooks is still in Portland with her father, G. T. Shaw, who is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Nordeen, of Pendleton, were in Kamela during the weekend renovating one of their houses there.

Mrs. W. Lane, of Portland, spent the weekend visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Thornburg. Mrs. Lane is well known in La Grande, having lived there for many years until the death of her husband two years ago. She now makes her home in Portland with her daughter, Mrs. Itoy Clapp.

Mrs. Arden Lockett and small son, James, are leaving this week for Albuquerque, New Mexico, to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bell. Her mother, who has been ill for some time, is considerably worse at present. Mrs. Lockett will stay for a few weeks.

Mrs. John Heath left Sunday for Portland to visit friends. From there she is going to visit relatives in California and expects to be gone for some time.

Mrs. P. Biever and Mrs. H. Horstman were in La Grande shopping Monday.

Lillian Schubert is now able to go to school on crutches.

Albert Wigglesworth spent Friday night visiting his mother and sister here. He left Saturday for La Grande and Wallowa.

Engineer and Mrs. Leron Morgan and Mrs. McAllister and daughter, of La Grande, spent Sunday afternoon in Kamela visiting at the Biever home. Mrs. Morgan is Mr. Biever's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Finas drove to La Grande Sunday.

Mr. Castille and Mrs. Muriel Brooks are taking inventory in the Kamela store at present.

Mr. and Mrs. James Glasson and family, of Elgin, were visiting Mr. Glasson's sister, Mrs. Guy Tamerlis, in Kamela Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bond, of Meacham, also spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tamerlis. Mrs. Bond teaches the upper grades in Meacham school.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tracy, of Elgin, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Guy Tamerlis.

Mrs. J. D. Casey and Mrs. E. E. Robinette and family drove from Meacham to visit at the Roy Hawes home here. Mrs. Casey, who is Mrs. Hawes' mother, has not been well for several months but has improved considerably.

Mrs. F. Barnes is anticipating a visit from her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Chelf, of Portland, in a few days. She will stay here until after Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Tom Burton was agreeably surprised Sunday by a group of young people who drove from La Grande to visit her. They were friends from Nyssa, her home town, but are attending normal school in La Grande at present. Mr. and Mrs. Teutsch, of La Grande, brought them to Kamela, and those in the party were Iva and Grace Walters, Helen Clement and Dorothy Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Thornburg and son Ivan and Francis Brooks, who is staying at the Thornburg home, spent Saturday in La Grande shopping and visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. Wylie, who live east of La Grande.

unable to enter the territory by water competition. This he claimed was unfair.

Evan J. Foulds, Southern Pacific counsel, objected because "this is not a rate case." His objection was overruled, however.

Other Salt Lake City witnesses were O. J. Grimes, secretary of the Utah Coal Producers' association, and J. S. Early, representative of the Utah Shippers' association.

The typewritten statement of Grimes was rejected as evidence because it represented the opinion of the Coal Producers' association and that organization was not present to stand cross examination.

NO LET-UP IN CRIME WAVE IN PORTLAND, ORE.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 20 (AP)—Portland's so-called annual winter crime wave continued unabated throughout the night with a series of attacks on women, men and children, despite an augmented police force and Chief of Police L. V. Jenkins' imperative orders that the city will be "cleaned up."

Dozens of men and women were halted early today by special policemen and asked for explanations why they were abroad after night. But two were taken to the police station for further investigation.

The police chief today warned householders to lock all doors and do away with ladders to prevent marauders from entering second story windows left open for ventilation.

Assistant State School Head Quits

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 20 (AP)—Resignation of W. M. Smith, assistant state superintendent of schools, was announced Wednesday by C. A. Howard, state superintendent.

James M. Burgess, superintendent of schools at Heppner, Ore., will succeed Smith, Mr. Howard said.

Smith's resignation is to take effect December 1.

ROCKNE TI MISS GAME

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 20 (AP)—Knute K. Rockne, Notre Dame football coach, was informed today by his physician, Dr. R. L. Sensenich, that he must not accompany the team to Evanston, Ill., next Saturday for the Northwestern game. Rockne was also directed to remain in bed for another week. He has been afflicted with a blood clot on one of his legs.

SAYS ARTIFICIAL LIGHT PROVIDES MOST COLORS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The traditional standard of daylight for color discrimination has been the north skylight, says A. H. Taylor of the General Electric company in a report to the Illuminating engineering society.

"Since north skylight from a clear sky is quite bluish," he says, "it makes the purples (pink, lavender, magenta, etc.) appear more bluish than they would in white light. Because of its deficiency in yellow, orange and red, north skylight suppresses these colors in objects illuminated by it."

JURY IS COMPLETED

NEW YORK, Nov. 20 (AP)—A jury to hear the trial of George A. McManus for the murder of the gabler, Arnold Rothstein, was completed at 3:15 p. m. today.

Camp Fire Girls In Joint Meeting

A joint meeting of the Sacajawea and the Wakelita Camp Fire groups Monday afternoon at the Lutheran parsonage was featured with an interesting talk about music given by Mrs. A. L. Richardson. The subject was, "Influence and Inspiration One Gets From the Study of the Better Grade of Music," telling how quickly the taste develops for the better grade in individuals if they will permit themselves to listen to good music.

Mrs. Richardson also told them how to listen to music, saying that if they would grasp the opening theme, the rest could be followed more intelligently, and see the subsequent growth into the complete work.

Some delightful musical selections were presented by Misses Ruth Geibel and Katharine Wissler, accompanied by Miss Grace Geibel. "The Old Folks at Home," "Fallen Leaves," and "Dreamin' Time," were sung by Miss Ruth Geibel. Numbers by Miss Wissler were: "When Song is Sweet," "I Love to Hear you Singing," and "The Morning is Breaking."

Mrs. Richardson also stated that 98 per cent of boys and girls showed some musical talent, due to the rythmic sense and the joy of expression found in youth.

Muffs, With Handbags, Coming To the Front

By Diana Merwin
Fashion Editor
(Associated Press Feature Service)

PARIS (AP)—Muffs with handbags concealed in their interior are coming to the foreground in the style picture.

Women who stubbornly refused for several successive seasons to consider reinstatement of the old-style hand-warmers are adopting the new handbag version. It does all the work of the ordinary handbag plus the job of a muff.

Barrel shapes, about the size of a football, pillow muffs twelve by nine inches and little round affairs which can be hung over the arm by a cord, reticule style, are all in vogue. The pillow form is the most popular by far.

Short furs are the only ones used for the all-fur muffs. A few velvet affairs have trimming bands of kolinsky or mink. Black velvet muffs with trimming of ermine bands and tails are seen for afternoon and evening.

Cloth coats trimmed with fur as well as all fur coats have their matching muff, made of the trimming fur. It is usually caracul, astrakan, broadtail beaver or seal.

BANK ROBBER IS LYNCHED BY MOB OF ANGRY TEXANS

The bandit had been stripped of his clothes when he was brought downstairs. He was dragged in the direction of the public square, but the crowd would not wait to go those few blocks. At 200 yards from the jail a strong telephone cable was pointed out, a rope flung across it. A noose was put around Ratliff's neck, a dozen men on the other end of the rope bent their weight and Ratliff was jerked from the ground.

The rope grabbed somewhere on the spur of the moment, broke. Messengers were sent for another, and again the mob set to its task. Then someone remembered that men about to die are usually given a chance to say a last word. For another moment he was lowered to the ground, but, displeased at his mumbling, the crowd yelled, "String him up."

Inquest Ordered

An inquest was ordered for today.

Ratliff's death leaves but one of the four Cisco bank robbers alive. Robert Hill was sentenced to 99 years' imprisonment and later escaped from the state prison farm. Henry Helms was electrocuted last summer, and L. E. Davis was fatally wounded in the bank robbery battle.

Late last night District Judge George L. Davenport indicated that a grand jury would be called to investigate the mob action.

Jones, at the hospital, was told of Ratliff's death. "That's fine," he said. "I'm glad of it."

Physicians late last night held out some hope for the wounded deputy's recovery, although his condition was still said to be grave.

PRESIDENT'S ACTIONS AID TO INDUSTRY

clude such widespread needs as steel, plumbing fixtures, electrical appliances, upholstery, draperies and furnishings and fittings of all kinds.

Earlier in the day, Mr. Hoover had conferred with the railroad presidents and the members of the advisory council of the federal reserve board, and had received assurances of the support of the transportation chieftains and indications of prospective decreases in collateral rates through a reduction in the rediscount rates of all the federal reserve districts.

Th construction plans and prospective equipment orders of the railroads was outlined to the chief executive and estimated to aggregate considerably more for the next six months than for the corresponding period of a year ago.

COLD WAVE HITS WEST; LA GRANDE LOW MARK IS 13

sub-zero weather reported in the Rocky mountain area.

ZERO WEATHER IN ROCKIES

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 20 (AP)—Zero and freezing temperatures were the rule throughout the Rocky mountain region today after a Tuesday snowstorm had covered most of the area.

Low temperatures ranging from zero in Montana to freezing weather in southern Colorado and northern New Mexico, followed in the wake of the storm, but there was little added precipitation.

Sub-zero temperatures were reported in the Judith Basin, Mont., area early today, and at Livingston it was three degrees above zero with no let-up in the cold spell indicated. At Cheyenne three inches of snow lay on the ground, and Denver experienced a similar fall, the seventh snow fall of the season.

9 ABOVE IN PENDLETON

PENDLETON, Ore., Nov. 20—(AP)—The mercury dropped to 9 degrees above zero here last night. It was the coldest night of the season so far.

MENUS

By Sister Mary

The success of any holiday or guest dinner depends largely upon the roast. Each roast has its own particular sauce or gravy which is best suited to serve with it.

The accompaniment chosen for each variety of meat is important. A roast without the proper contrasting flavor is an incomplete as apple pie without cheese.

The following list suggests suitable combinations for the roasts usually chosen for festive occasions:

Roast beef (rolled or standing) is served with Yorkshire pudding and horseradish and a brown gravy—or the natural meat juices, if the roast is "done rare."

Filet of beef is served with a tart spicy jam or conserve and mushroom sauce.

Lamb is served with mint jelly, currant jelly or crabapple jelly and brown gravy or hot mint sauce.

Pork is served with apple or cranberry sauce.

Ham is served with browned pineapple or a tart relish and hot raisin sauce.

Veal is served with cranberry sauce or a tart jam and brown gravy.

Turkey or chicken is served with cranberry sauce or jelly and giblet gravy.

Duck is served with sliced oranges or currant jelly and brown gravy or orange sauce.

Goose is served with apple or cranberry sauce and brown gravy or mushroom sauce.

Brown Gravy

Three tablespoons "drippings," 3 tablespoons flour, 2 cups water, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon pepper.

Pour off all but 3 tablespoons fat of the drippings in the roaster. Put roaster over a low fire and stir in flour, salt and pepper mixed and sifted. Stir until bubbly and beginning to brown. Slowly add water, stirring constantly. Stir until boiling point is reached and boil two or three minutes. If the gravy is not perfectly smooth, it should be strained and reheated before serving.

Chopped cooked mushrooms can be added to make mushroom sauce, although real mushroom sauce is made with brown stock in place of water.

One-half to one cup orange juice is substituted for part of the water to make orange sauce for duck.

More or less water in proportion to the flour will give a thinner gravy as preferred.

NEW SILK UNDERTHINGS

New crepe teddies, new vests, new bloomers, new slips, new one piece suits, pantier-brassier-vest all in one.
