Stewart Coached Chas. Reynolds In O. S. C. Days

Among the Oregon State alumni who were mentioned yesterday to learn that Doc Stewart, former football and basketball coach, had been killed in a hunting accident in the southwest, was Charles Reynolds, former O. S. C. grid star and later high school coach in La Grande before he centered his attention on his present business.

While in Portland the other day, Mr. Reynolds was interviewed by the following items appeared in the Portland newspaper:

"Among registrants at the Imperial hotel Sunday following the big game at Eugene were Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Reynolds of La Grande, Ore. Mr. Reynolds—'Shrimp,' as he was known affectionately to a generation of Oregon State college students—achieved the seemingly impossible feat of making a round face long. He disappeared of the scene this year. As an explanation one must go back between 15 and 20 years to the reigns of Sam Dolan and 'Doc' Stewart as coach at Corvallis, when 'Shrimp,' weighing in the 120s, and sometimes even less, was the orange and black quarterback. He held that pivotal post four years, at a time when big men rather than fast men were the rule on the football field. He was, and still is, it is believed, the smallest man ever to hold a regular berth on a major team in this part of the country. Also, his record is a proud one. In four years of play he never let a man with the ball run past him at safety—until the final game. On that occasion he fell 100 yards and attacked the runner from straight in front instead of from the side. The result was a fumble and the runner went through 'Shrimp' from straight in front against the logic of football. Mr. Reynolds is now an insurance man and generally prominent citizen of La Grande. For exercise he has turned to golf and has had a part in the developing of La Grande's very fine course. But he goes to the big game, remembering the time when he used to go through the line clinging to the trousers of some mammoth guard or tackle."

In addition to the 'eye,' it might be mentioned that Mr. Reynolds, who formerly refereed many football games, has again returned to the officiating. This year he 'worked' two O. S. C. games, including Eastern Oregon Normal school contests, and his officiating met with general approval of the teams playing.

Urges Purdue For East-West Contest

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 20 (AP)—Roy H. Yeager of the Denver, Colo. Athletic club, who is a delegate to the A. A. U. convention here, has wired Hal Reynolds, manager of the rose festival at Pasadena, Cal., urging that the Purdue, Ind., Bollinger, Big Ten champions, be selected as the eastern team for the New Year's day east-west football game.

Yeager, a native of Indiana, believes Purdue is a logical choice for the California invasion.

A Kansas City dentist asks $10,000 damages because his name was left out of the telephone directory. That's going to be a somewhat painful extraction.

New Backfield Combination To Face Hawaiians

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 20 (AP)—Captain John J. McEwan, head Oregon football coach, and William J. Reinhart, backfield assistant, this week are in a huddle. The two Webfoot mentors are devising an offensive built on a foundation of sheer power and fortified with speed on end runs, off-tackle slants and through the air. McEwan today said that he is forced to improve Oregon's scoring power because the eleven faces two tough games in the next two weeks against undefeated teams.

First of these contests will be played against the University of Hawaii at Portland Saturday on the Multnomah stadium field. The deans of Hawaii, a clever manufacturing offensive machine that also has a heavy, strong defensive line, will meet all the viciousness of the new Oregon attack. McEwan will send in a backfield combination against Hawaii that hasn't been used yet. This fall he has on which he places great confidence.

Johnny Longhit, the new quarterback, will get his great chance to sparkle at signal calling and playing the safety. Longhit was forced into the lineup when Johnny Klumiller was injured.

Flanking him at the halves will be Bobby Robinson, who this year is having his greatest gridiron season, and Al Brown, husky youth just breaking in. Hal Hutton, a plunger who proved his worth by working through the Oregon State line here Saturday, will be at fullback.

PRELIMINARY BEST BATTLE ON THE CARD

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 20 (AP)—The four round draw between Frankie Munroe, Klamath Falls, and Charlie O'Leary, Portland, was the bright spot on last night's boxing card here, and the only contest to arouse the enthusiasm of the fans. The two boys mixed from start to finish and both were shaken up time after time with solidly landed blows.

Gene O'Grady, Ashland light heavyweight, outpointed Tony Lehtinen, Roseburg, in their ten round event.

Stocks Bullish In Wall Street Trading Today

NEW YORK, Nov. 20 (AP)—A broad upward movement reminiscent of the pre-October bull market was set in motion by a rush of buying in today's stock market. Scores of leading shares rose $1 to $1 1/2 in share, with a few comparatively inactive issues selling up as much as $2. U. S. Steel, after falling in the early transactions, quickly rose to $109.25, up $2.75, and General Electric touched $216, up $15.

New developments during the day were largely of a character to aid the upturn. Directors of National Biscuit Company, after a 2 1/2 for a split up, moved the stock quickly surged up $11.50 to $180. Although the United States Steel corporation's plants were reported operating at 74 per cent of rated capacity, an actual 75 per cent last week, reports from the steel trade were generally optimistic, stating that the confidence of buyers was returning.

Such shares as American Tobacco Co. B. Chesapeake and Ohio, A. Reclamation, Western Union, Allied Chemical, I. H. Macy, Eastman Kodak, Standard Gas, Union Pacific, Nickel Plate, and Westinghouse Electric rose from $5 to $10 a share.

Trading was in comparatively moderate volume, but considerably heavier than yesterday. Total sales during the first two hours of the session were 1,992,000 shares as compared with 1,559,000 yesterday. The ticker fell nearly 20 minutes behind the market for a time in the morning, but was only 12 minutes in arrears by early afternoon.

FRISCO FRUIT

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20 (AP)—Federal Market News Service supplies and trading were moderate on the San Francisco wholesale fruit and vegetable market today. The market on fruits was steady, with most prices remaining unchanged. There was a moderate demand for most varieties of apples, with fancy delicious bringing $2.25 to $2.50 and belleflowers $2.00 to $2.25. Newtown pippins ranged from $2.25 to $2.50 with a good demand, while lady apples were quoted from $3 to $4 per box. Most of the Oregon varieties were moving fairly well. Spitzenbergs, extra fancy, were bringing $3.25 to $3.50 with fancy quoted at $2.75 to $3.00. C grade $2.00@2.25.

25-Cent Cut In Cane and Berry Sugar Announced

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 20 (AP)—Following reduction at refineries, Portland jobbers announced a cut of 25 cents a hundred pounds in the price of cane and berry sugars. No comment was made concerning beet sugars.

Egg receipts were light and the price grew firmer after a short period when it looked like values might weaken.

Butter prices are unchanged. Reviewing the fruit and vegetable situation, the Portland News Bureau of the United States department of agriculture says:

"The highest cash sale of cauliflower for the season in carlot quantities, was established Tuesday, with one carlot transaction at $1.50 per crate.

Seattle and other Puget Sound cities are taking 200 to 400 crates of Oregon cauliflower daily, by motor truck, at $1.50 per crate.

Supplies of grapes from California are decreasing, and prices for good quality stock show decided advances, with Thompson seedless and Emperors as high as $2 per lug. Much of the present offerings show poor quality.

"First arrivals of now-crop naval oranges are expected in a few days. Lemons are cheaper, as demand decreases with the colder weather.

"Apple movement continued slow, with cheap, ungraded stock predominating."

Lamb quotations steady. Lambs, good and choice, $12.50@13.50; ewes, medium to good $12.25 @ $5.85; feeder lambs good and choice $12.00@13.00.

WHEAT PRICE DROPS THREE CENTS TODAY

CHICAGO, Nov. 20 (AP)—Warned back by widespread notice that the market had risen 13 cents a bushel from recent low levels, wheat prices today showed a pronounced reactionary trend. At no time were wheat values as high as yesterday although black rust news from Argentina persisted. So-called spread trading became an outstanding feature here at various stages today. Chicago wheat futures deliveries being sold against simultaneous purchases of corn.

Wheat closed spotless, 2 1/2c to 2 1/2c per bushel lower than yesterday's finish.

Corn closed unchanged to 1c off, oats 5c to 1c down and provisions varying from 2c decline to a rise of 12 cents.

Aviator Aids In Saving Buildings

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 20 (AP)—The identity of an aviator who was instrumental in saving buildings on a farm in the Hartland district near 1 1/2, Wash., was being sought today by farmers of the district who want to express their appreciation.

The flier, apparently piloting a west bound air mail plane, noticed flames shooting through the roof of the home of C. C. Franzen. He swooped his plane low over several farmers' homes and then pointed the nose of his ship toward the flaming building.

Although the farmers first wondered why the aviator was "stunting" over their homes, they soon saw the flames and managed to save other buildings on the farm. The home was destroyed. The aviator winged his way westward.
