

LIEF WORKERS RUSH TO BURIN

the wave reached its height were flung back with succeeding waves two and three times, as the waters receded they it to sea with the speed of a mer.

Many deeds of heroism occurred in the terrifying 15 minutes. I rushed through the waters to houses on the lower levels, owing caution to the winds they nbered to the roofs, smashed in windows, dragged out women children and leaper to safety as dwellings were caught in the roll and swept to sea.

A man named Fudge, of Post Avenue, was a short distance from the beach. Seeing the incoming flood he rushed to save his family. His house was blocked by a house floating. As the house passed he his wife and children in it, he was too late to save them. A Steapside, a house, containing persons, was carried to sea three feet. On the last occasion that turned to shore the elder man holding the young children and all were saved. Another family also was carried out three feet only to be borne back and finally to escape.

WAR-LIKE THRILL

PORTLAND, England, Nov. 23 (AP)—The crew of the battleship a Duke, now used as a training ship, had a real war-like thrilling exercise in the channel today when a dummy torpedo, fired from a submarine struck a vessel, which it from stem to stern. One of the crew prepared to leave believing she had fouled a mine or other obstruction but actual damage appeared to have been done.

SEEKING DISTRESSED SHIP

PALETTA, Malta, Nov. 23 (AP)—Four destroyers have searched successfully over a front of 75 miles seeking to intercept the liner Baron Eleho whose wireless operator Thursday broadcast calls for help. At one time the ship steamer Chaucer was said to have heard the Baron Eleho but subsequently no reply received to the Chaucer's respective signals.

HEARING TO BE DEC. 9

ALEM, Ore., Nov. 22 (AP)—Hearing of the disbarment cases by Thomas Mannix and Joe Joseph of Portland, each in Monday, Dec. 9, and will probably be held in the state chamber. This was announced late yesterday by Judge G. F. Worth of Eugene, who is chairman of the board of referees that take the testimony.

MAZED HYMN'S IDEA IS 1,000 YEARS OLD
TORONTO (AP)—When a minor nowadays suggests that one be set to jazz tunes in order to draw nearer the people, a man envelops him.

It is interesting to find," says Gibbon, "that the jazz hymn was Thomas, the first bishop of York, appointed shortly after the Norman conquest. William the Conqueror. This musical prelate instructed priests to adopt sacred words popular tunes so the church remain in touch with the people."

EMPIRE IS MARRIED
LONGVIEW, Wash., Nov. 23 (AP)—Mike Price, a Pacific Coast umpire, and Miss Hazel Olson, Longview, were married last night, the marriage the culmination of a romance that started when the couple met several years ago at a log rolling test which Price won.

THIS GREAT MERCHANDISING EVENT IS FEATURED BY "VALUES-SUPREME"

Breier days are not sales days in the usual sense, where high priced old merchandise is greatly reduced. Our every day low price policy prevents such a practice.

Breier Days are days on which we place on sale new merchandise numbers, bought on an advantageous market, in such staggering quantities that we own it at from 50 to 75 per cent of its regular price. Breier Days this year will be even greater than last year, because, due to the late fall season, we have been able to buy from manufacturers and mills, who are seeking this huge outlet, more advantageously than ever before. The savings are
